Mrs. C. E. Hall departed Tuesday for Leavenworth, Wash., in response to a telegram stating that her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Hamilton, was seriously ill. Mrs. Hamilton spent the summer here and practically recovered from a severe sick spell, but took down again upon her return home.

P. J. Donohoe, states attorney of Gregory county, S. D., was in O'Neill the first of the week visiting relatives. Although Taft carried Gregory county by a majority of 300 P. J. was re-elected prosecuting attorney on the democratic ticket and had a majority of 326. This speaks well for his standing with the taxpayers of the South Dakota county.

Postmaster J. G. Gannon of Pender, Nebr., was a pleasant caller at these headquarters this morning. Mr. Gannon is spending the week visiting his brother, W. A., at his home near Inman. While not satisfied with the result in the state Mr. Gannon says he is proud of Thurston county which gave over 100 majority for the republican candidates, which is considered miraculous in this democratic year.

P. J. Biglin was taken to Omaha last Saturday morning by his brother O. F., and Dr. P. J. Flynn, suffering from a severe case of cerebral meningitis. He was very bad Sunday and Monday but Tuesday he took a change for the better and word received yesterday from the physicians in charge state that he is getting along nicely and will be alright in a week or two, which is gratifying news to his many O'Neill friends.

Miss Belle Kearney, who lectured here early last month, has been engaged to return on November 27, when she will give one of her popular lectures in the opera-house. Those who heard her on the previous occasion were much pleased and a much larger audience may be looked for this time. Miss Kearney is traveling under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. and no admission fee is charged to her lectures.

J. B. Berry was in from the river Tuesday. "Back" says he has one of the three cannon used by the Ponca Indians in their last battle with their old time rivals the Sioux, which took place about 1875 a few miles this side of the present town of Niobrara.

The field piece weighs about 1100 pounds and "Back" says can shoot a half bushel of powder and a like amount of shot. It is one of the ancient relics of eastern Nebraska and Mr. Berry says that some time when there is to be "big dolings" in the city he will fetch "her" in and put it on exhibition in O'Neill. It would undoubtedly be of considerable interest to the citizens of this city and county.

Estray—Taken up at my place four miles north of O'Neill on or about Oct. 4, 1908, two brown calves, age about four months. One white face and the other with a white star on forehead. Owner can have same by paying expenses.—Gustave Weinrich.

W. M. Kelley of Aberdeen, S. D., has opened a real estate office in the Gallagher block south of the postoffice. Mr. Kelley was a caller at The Frontier Tuesday and is a pleasant gentleman with the evident characteristics to make things hustle in the real estate line. He is well pleased with the appearance of O'Neill and surrounding country and tells us he expects to bring some immigration here from the country about Aberdeen.

Fred Barclay was down from Stuart yesterday. For the past ten years he has been loaning money on Holt county real estate and has been driving over the county the past two weeks endeavoring to get people, whose mortgages are due December 1, to renew the loan but he says they all have the cash and will pay in full when due. The average man in this county, remarked Mr. Barclay, has no idea of the prosperity of Holt county farmers. They are simply rolling in money.

Married: At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Ritts, in O'Neill, on Monday, Nov. 16, 1908, at 8:15 a. m., Mr. Harry F. Reed and Miss Flossie Ritts, both of O'Neill, were united in marriage by Rev. T. S. Watson, pastor of the local Methodist church, in the presence of a few relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony and congratulations, a bountiful wedding breakfast was served to which all did ample justice. Mr. and Mrs. Reed will continue to reside in O'Neill.

Sheridan Simmons left for Omaha this morning to attend the democratic ratification meeting which will be held in that city tomorrow evening. Sheridan is a candidate for deputy warden of the state penitentiary and his friends here hope he will be successful in landing the prize. There is a lot of worse fellows than Sherd in the pen and The Frontier hopes he will be able to land in the penitentiary, as long as he desires it, as he certainly earned something by his long and enthusiastic bourbon championship.

Destroys Hair Germs

Recent discoveries have shown that falling hair is caused by germs at the roots of the hair. Therefore, to stop falling hair, you must first completely destroy these germs. Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will certainly do this. Then leave the rest to nature.

Does not change the color of the hair.

Formula with each bottle Show it to your doctor Ask him about it, then do as he says

Ayer's

Recent discoveries have also proved that dandruff is caused by germs on the scalp. Therefore, to cure dandruff, the first thing to do is to completely destroy these dandruff germs. Here, the same Ayer's Hair Vigor will give the same splendid results.

Courts Have No Jurisdiction Over Foreign Ambassadors.

The chief of an embassy is an august being and one who boasts some remarkable privileges. It may be mentioned to begin with that in the land in which he is officiating an ambassador ranks immediately after the princes of the blood royal.

The ground on which an embassy stands is in theory as well as in practice the territory of the nation to which its principal occupant belongs. Even if a criminal were harbored in an embassy the police could not enter the premises without permission.

An ambassador is above the law of the country to which he is accredited. The courts have no jurisdiction over him, and, strangely enough, his subordinates and even his domestic servants are also inviolate. The humblest employee in the embassy if he committed a punishable offense could not be arrested without the consent of his master, nor can an embassy official be imprisoned for debt.

Ambassadors are to be envied most of all perhaps for their freedom from the burden of taxation. They disburse not one penny in taxes, either directly or indirectly, and, as for the custom house, it is nonexistent so far as they are concerned. No duty whatever is charged in respect of wines, cigars, cigarettes, etc., that are consigned to them.

Again, their excellencies need not bother about taxes unless they please. That they do so is purely an act of grace on their part. They are not legally exempt from these tantalizing demands on the purse, but if they declined to meet them there would be no means of enforcing payment.—Cassell's Journal.
