Is it the Captain or Mrs. Hains they are trying to prove insane?

Omaha has to submit to the eight o'clock closing, but they refuse to give up their cowboy mayor.

The Hon. Arthur F. doesn't seem to meet with the same success among the democrats of the state in his efforts to be "the whole thing" that he has at home.

The political field is still a wilderness in Holt county. The primary comes about a month earlier this year and with a full set of county officers to elect, if there is any aspirants now is a good time to make it known.

Boston proposes to outdo all others in exposition wonders. It is planning to celebrate on a large scale in 1920 the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims. The Bostonians have struck upon a happy occasion as it will create great interest all over the country.

Lincoln voted out saloons at Tuesday's election by a decisive majority.
 The state capital started in on the warfare against granting saloon license by experimenting with the "daylight" saloon. It has proved the stepping stone to no saloons at all.
 Lincoln will be about the only dry large city in a license state.

Texas people have called the bluff of Prof. William Henry Pickering of Harvard university. The professor came out with a statement some time ago that he would undertake the task of communicating with the planet Mars if $10,000,000 could be raised for that purpose. Texas now comes forward and offers to supply the funds if Prof. Pickering will establish himself on the western plains of that state to carry on the experiments.

Col. W. H. Ketcham of the Crawford Tribune has retired from the chair of that newspaper after twenty years service and will move to Washington D. C., where he expects to make his future home. Col. Ketcham was formerly engaged in the newspaper business in this county, publishing a paper at Stuart some twenty-five years ago, and is known to many of the older citizens of the county, who will wish him prosperity in his new home.

The department of agriculture has authorized one or two experiment stations in northern Nebraska for the purpose of finding a remedy for the elimination of an affection that threatens the principal crop grown in that section, the potatoes. Northwest Nebraska potatoes are the favorites on the markets and make an important industry of the state. A "disease" has appeared in the potatoe region which the department of agriculture will lend its aid to suppress.

Two federal judges of Missouri have been placed under suspicion by charges made by Congressman Murphy of that state which in effect imply that the judges have been in collusion with the railroads, as well as other more or less serious charges. The charges are of such a nature that congressional investigation is likely to follow, in which event, if the congressman's allegations are founded on fact, some interesting disclosures will probably come to light.

Since Abdul Hamid has been deposed from the throne of Turkey stories are coming out that classify him as the meanest man in the world. Some of his former subjects in this and other countries recount incidents of their personal knowledge that show the former monarch butchered countless innocent victims for pastime. The Turks bore with his absolute despotism for thirty-three years, which shows that men will suffer long and much but when finally aroused they will do desperate things.

Senator Curtis of Kansas has received assurances from republican members of the finance committee that in the administrative sections of the tariff bill will be incorporated the provisions asked for by the western exporters of meats and grain products intended to save these industries from the effects of discriminatory action on the part of certain European governments, notably Germany and France. Mr. Curtis was informed that the committee has practically agreed upon the sections intended to prevent these discriminations.

Teddy is proving a wonder and amazement to the Africans who think he's the greatest proposition behind a gun that ever startled the inhabitants of a jungle. Everybody at home knew that there would be a few less men eaters on the dark continent when the ex-president began to oil his ramrod, but they didn't look for the extinction of the specie on the first expedition. Since the news came that when Teddy fired three shots three lion lay dead it looks like the British government may have to cancel his license if they wish to preserve any of the monsters of the jungle.

Representative W. J. Taylor of Custer county, one of the progressive democrats in the late legislature, has this to say of the failure of that body to perform the functions for which it was pledged and paid: "Everybody knows that the democratic legislation was completely helpless in the grip of the corporations, insurance companies and breweries, and fell far short of redeeming its pledges.
 Good, honest democrats, many of them in the house, admitted by explanations to be printed in the house journal that our party could not redeem its pledges because of the influence of the corporations."

Mr. Bryan has received another severe jolt. The democratic senators have united in opposition to that plank of the Denver platform which declares for free lumber. In fact the minority of the senate is as strongly opposed to putting lumber on the free list as the most radical protectionist.
 The attitude of the democratic members of congress on this and other questions shows that they are not in sympathy with the promises made in the Denver platform. It shows, too, that Mr. Bryan is out of harmony with the leaders in the party and does not wield influence strong enough to secure the adoption of the measures he advocates were he to be elected president.

Matron of Asylum Removed.

There is always something doing wherever an O'Neill man—or woman —hangs up his hat. We have just got into the streaming limelight again. This time it is one of the city's fair daughters that brings us celebrity. Miss Bridget McGinnis has, like Abdul Hamid, been deposed as matron of the Lincoln asylum.
 Last Saturday's papers announced that Miss McGinnis had been removed by Superintendent Woodward but that she refused to quit. However, the governor sustained the action of the superintendent and an Omaha woman has been appointed as matron.

Miss McGinnis was appointed to the place upon the recommendation of A.
 F. Mullen and it appears that considerable friction has existed among the asylum employees since the O'Neill lady took command of the matron's desk.

The Lincoln correspondent of the Omaha Bee made these observations in the Sunday edition of the Bee:

"It has come at last. Governor 'Mullenberger' has declared his independence and the Mullen will be stricken from his name and the 'Shallen' will be restored. All of which, however, depends upon what happens when Sir Arthur returns to Lincoln. Anyhow, Governor Shallenberger announced this morning that Mrs. Hannah Kelley of Omaha had been appointed by Superintendent Woodward of the Lincoln asylum to take the place made vacant by the discharge of Miss Beatrice McGinnis, who secured her place upon the recommendation of Overlord Mullen.
 Miss McGinnis is distantly related to Mr. Mullen.

"The action of the governor in upholding the edict of the superintendent has all the appearance of the beginning of the end of the house of Mullen so far as the overlord business is concerned around the executive office. And the overthrow of Mullen would be in keeping with the official acts of the executive. First there came the throwdown of the democrats of Omaha who elected him by the signing of the 8 o'clock closing law; now comes the icy mit for one of Arthur Mullen's relatives, when Mullen himself will not deny that he furnished the brains and the inspiration for most of the work of the late legislature and is the chief adviser of the executive. But even before the house of Mullen began to crumble, the governor permitted Chris Gruenther's recommendation regarding a legislative act to go unheeded. And Gruen-ther is the one man who stood by Shallenberger when Tom Allen and Mullen had no idea he could be elected and when both were breaking their backs for Bryan and permitting the Shallenberger fight to go by default."

Kola Items.

Mr. Walter Benjamin and sons were in Chambers Tuesday evening where he and Robert helped to initiate Fred and Noel in the mysteries of the I. O. O. F. lodge of that place.

Mrs. Jacob Pfund and daughter Louise drove to O'Neill last week.

Mrs. J. L. Shaw and Mrs. Walter Shermer were called to Verdigris on account of the illness of their father and mother, they having been visiting there when taken sick.

Mrs. Walter Fray, baby and brother Jacob Pfund of Wilmar, Minn., came to Kola to visit with relatives and friends during the summer.

Prof. Bruner of the State University at Lincoln visited at the home of Mrs.
 Monroe, his sister, and other relatives the past week.

Miss Lily Monroe returned from a trip to Atkinson last Tuesday.

Two young men were observed coming out of the cellar at J. J. Thomas' saloon Sunday afternoon, each carrying a pail. They had been noticed around the rear of the saloon but those who saw them supposed they were getting water from the hydrant outside the building. When they were seen coming out of the cellar an effort was made to ascertain who they were but they ran down the alley and disappeared. Mr. Brennan, who had observed their operations through the rear window of his shoe shop, attempted to catch them, and then notified Mr. Thomas. An investigation disclosed that twenty-two bottles of beer had been taken from the cellar. The robbers contrived to open the cellar doors by running a wire between them and lifting the bar. They tapped two cases of beer, taking thirteen small and nine large bottles.

A big prairie fire did considerable damage out in the Antelope slough country Tuesday. John Roach, living in that country, was in town that day and ascertained by telephone that his hay was burning. The fire started a few miles west of the slough and burned over an extensive tract.

Mrs. S. A. Page, who left this county something over a year ago for California but returned last winter and has been teaching in the east part of the county, was an O'Neill visitor Tuesday. Mrs. Page says while she liked California she was glad to get back to Nebraska. Her trip west was for her little daughter's health and she having recovered rather more rapidly than was anticipated they were enabled to return sooner than they expected.
