O'Neill, Neb., April 14.—Dear Bro. John: I reached here all right and am pretty well settled down. This is a cracker jack fine country and I believe I will get ahead. The place I bought was too small and we are just finishing a good sized addition to the house. I bought my lumber and building material of O. O. SNYDER and must say I never in all my life got such a good deal. The lumber is strictly tip top and every thing else is just as good. They have a fine new shed right in the center of town. I expect you are about ready to start, aren't you? Let me know when you intend to get here. Molly and the kids like it fine. Goodbye. Your brother, JIM.

Notice.
To Sarah Pugh, single, and William Howard Winterbotham, guardian of the said defendant, Sarah Pugh, an incompetent person, Ann Davies and husband, John Davies, first, full and real name unknown, the Showalter Mortgage Company of Wellington, Sumner county, Kansas, a corporation, the unknown heirs and devisees of Marion Trowbridge, deceased, Gilman Fuller and wife Harriet M. Fuller, Caroline E. Small, widow, J. Cheever Fuller and wife Mary E. Fuller, Lizzie M. Brigham and husband William D. Brigham, non-resident defendants.

The above named defendants and each and all of them will take notice that Ishmael Pugh has commenced an action in the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, against you and each of you the object and prayer of said action and petition being to obtain a partition and judgment confirming the shares of the plaintiff and the defendants Sarah Pugh and Ann Davies in and to the following described real estate situated in Holt county, Nebraska, to-wit: the southwest quarter of section fifteen (15), township twenty-eight (28), north of range twelve (12), west of the 6th p. m. Plaintiff praying in said petition that if said land cannot be equitably divided then that the same may be sold and the proceeds thereof divided between the plaintiff and Sarah Pugh and Ann Davies. Plaintiff alleging in said petition that the above described real estate was owned by his brother Samuel Pugh at the time of his death, May 24, 1907, and that the plaintiff and the defendants Sarah Pugh and Ann Davies are brother and sisters of the deceased, he having left surviving him no father, mother or widow or any other persons entitled to share in said real estate. Plaintiff alleging that he has an undivided one-third interest in said land and that his sisters, Sarah Pugh and Ann Davies have each a similar estate and interest in said land and prays that a partition and distribution of said real estate or the proceeds thereof be made according to their respective rights.

Plaintiff further alleges that the other defendants named in said petition have no interest in said real estate but that their claimed interest casts a cloud on the title to said real estate and prays that the same may be set aside by a decree of this court and they excluded from all interest in said real estate and that the mortgage given by Ellen Keys on said land to the Showalter Mortgage Company August 1, 1888, and recorded in book 40 of mortgages at page 473 be decreed to be fully paid and satisfied and barred by the statute of limitations and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 7th day of June, 1909.
