

MEMORIAL DAY

Exercises Held Monday Afternoon Well Attended.

The memorial day services at the opera-house Monday afternoon were well attended despite the rainy day. An interesting program was carried out, fitting and appropriate to the day. The stage was decorated with the stars and stripes and flowers. A row of flower girls dressed in white encircled the stage on three sides and the old soldiers occupied seats across the stage. M. Slattery, Samuel Beavers, Jake Ernst, E. H. Thompson, John Skirving, W. E. McRobert, Benjamin Sanders and Barney Jones, all wearing the badge of the Grand Army, were the old soldiers present. Mr. Slattery acted as chairman and announced the program, the first number of which was a song by a choir composed of Messrs. John Sullivan, Jesse Mills, C. B. Scott and Dr. E. T. Wilson, and Mesdames Spencer and Stout and the Misses Rose Fallon and Martha Younkin, Loretto Sullivan playing the piano. Sanford Dodge, who was in the city for a theatrical engagement, recited a selection from James Whitcomb Riley and one from Kipling. The choir rendered another song, and Miss Dot Wolverton read "The Blue and the Gray."

A. F. Mullen then spoke for a half hour, paying tribute to the dead and and homage to the living soldiers. He spoke of the blessings we enjoy as the result of the triumph of the arms of the north in the great civil war and also of the responsibilities resting upon us today as citizens, admonishing his hearers to take an interest in the affairs of the state and nation.

In conclusion the choir sang "America" in which the audience also joined. Conveyances were furnished for the soldiers and flower girls who in a drenching rain, went to the cemetery and placed their floral tributes upon the graves.

Albion News: Bridget Maher was born in Tipperary, June 12, 1834. She came to Iowa in 1865 and was married to Wm. Keeshan. They moved to Boone county in 1889, where they continued to reside until Mr. Keeshan was called home. Her youngest daughter married a few years later, she went to live with her. She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. Perrigo, seven miles north of O'Neill, Friday, May 21, 1909. She had been sick for about two weeks and had had a slight stroke of paralysis, causing her to fall, impacting her hip joint. She leaves seven children to mourn her loss: Wm. Keeshan of Albion, John Keeshan of St. Edward, Mrs. R. Machemer, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Mrs. Elmer Ross, Des Moines, Iowa, Mrs. S. L. Jameson, Vienna, S. D., Margaret Keeshan and Mrs. E. Perrigo, O'Neill.

Mrs. Keeshan was well known and beloved in the city of Albion, where she lived for a number of years. Her family have been bereft of a kind loving mother, her church of a faithful consistent member and the community of a friend who delighted to do good to all about her.

The funeral was from St. Michael's church May 23rd, Rev. Father Crowley officiating.

Creighton Liberal: The many friends of D. E. Coffey, cashier of the Farmer's State Bank at Fairfax, S. D., will be pleased to know that he was married to Miss Bernice Van Gorden at Spencer Wednesday morning. An amusing circumstance happened in connection with the marriage. Father Lordeman, the pastor, was here assisting in the exercises and could not get back on account of the washout. The groom's sister Miss Mame Coffey, was a passenger up Tuesday morning to act as bridesmaid and was forced to stop off till until Wednesday evening during which time she visited with Dr. and Mrs. Mullen. However the parties had Father Stratman of Butte tie the nuptial knot and they departed Wednesday on a brief wedding trip and will later return and be at home in Fairfax. The groom is so well and favorably known in this community that we have nothing to say concerning him. The bride has been the assistant principal of the Spencer school for sometime and is a deservedly popular young lady. Her folks reside at Gresham, Nebr.

WIN TWO GAMES

High School Boys Return From a Successful Trip.

Using the words of the "Duck," otherwise, William Francis McNichols, "we brought home the bacon."

Last Saturday at Ainsworth the local high school boys added another pelt to their belt, and in doing so won a signal victory over one of the best all-home ball teams in the state.

Ainsworth has long enjoyed a reputation on the diamond to be proud of, and when the school boys left for the scene of the conflict every fan in O'Neill had it guessed that they would not have a look in. Let it be known at the beginning of this joyful story that Hugh Clement Coyne, named after an uncle, is some pitcher. Fourteen of Ainsworth's gladiators fell victims to his deceptive curves. They garnered off his delivery during the nine burning sessions, but seven safe swats, three of which came in the first inning before Hugh Clement had got up a perspiration.

Ainsworth had their king bee hippodrome hurdler, and hoop jumper, in the person of Clyde Cuteness De Silva on the firing line.

Ainsworth's two scores came in the first inning, on a single by Wilson and doubles by Robertson and Clyde, but after this session there was nothing doing.

O'Neill started their scoring in the second-inning when Coyne led off with a three ply jolt, which caused the hippodrome artist to turn a flip-flop. Coyne scored on a sacrifice by Booze. In the third Kane or Curdle singled and took second on Bill Biglin's jolt to right field. A neat double steal by Kane and Biglin made Clyde turn four more flip-flops. Kane registered when Campbell laid down a perfect bunt, and Bill scored when Jeremiah Eugene Cress, the boy pedagogue from the wilds of Coleclusser, shoved one to center for a bag. This was all the scoring, but it was enough. In the ninth Baldwin, a nice young gentleman as all Ainsworth's players are, up to bat for Grimes, a Valentine recruit went out a pitcher to first. The only error checked against O'Neill was a bad bounder to first which out guessed Bill. We remarked at the beginning, and say as much once again, that Hugh Clement Coyne is some pitcher. The score:

Three base hits, Coyne; two base hits, Robertson (2), Wilson, W. Biglin, Cress; sacrifice hits, A. Biglin, Campbell, Herre, De Silva (2); struck out by Coyne 14; by De Silva 11; base on balls off Coyne 1; stolen bases, Kane, W. Biglin, Cress (2). Umpire, Horiskey.

The boys played two games at Valentine Sunday and both were close and exciting. Ryan opened the first for O'Neill, and we will inform the universe to keep their best eye on this boy for he has lots of stuff. Coyne pitched the second game which went to Valentine, and outside of a bad start did great work. In the first inning, hits coupled with two infield errors gave Valentine 13 scores and the game. The day was cold and the wind blew a gale from the northwest. A home run wallop in the first game by McNichols and a running one hand scoop which he shot to third for an out were the features. Both were seven inning contests by agreement. The score:

Home run McNichols; hit by pitched ball Golden (2), Cox; struck out by Ryan 11, by Grimes 13; base on balls off Ryan 4; stolen bases, Coyne, Kane, DeSilva, Bishop, Stetter. Umpire, Miller.

Three base hits Tomsik; two base hits Cox; struck out by Coyne 11; by Grimes 10; base on balls, Grimes 1; hit by pitched ball DeSilva; stolen bases, McNichols, Cox, Stetter, double play, Tomsik to Cress. Umpire Jackson.

District Court in Session.

The regular spring term of the district court convened in the city last Tuesday with Judge Westover on the bench and J. D. Scott reporter. T. J. Coyne and Stephen McGinnis were selected as bailiffs.

On Tuesday the docket was called and the case of Frank Hoffman, administrator of the estate of George V. Glover, vs. the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, was set down for trial Wednesday and is now occupying the attention of the court. This case came from Dawes county and is a suit for damages for the death of Glover, who died at Chadron on November 12, 1907, his death alleged to have been caused by injuries sustained on the defendants company's road. They ask for $30,000 damages.

Glover was a brakeman working for the company and about 2 o'clock on the morning of November 11, 1907, so the plaintiffs allege, started for his home from the railroads in Chadron and was struck by a train while crossing a railroad track, sustaining injuries from which he died the next day. The plaintiff alleges negligence on the part of the railroad company because it "failed to give notice or warning to said George V. Glover of the approach of said car, at said time, in the dark, without a light and without a brakeman thereon, and without giving notice or warning of its approach, was a reckless, careless and negligent act."

Glover left a widow and three minor children and the suit is brought in their behalf by the administrator. Five witnesses are here from Chadron for the plaintiff and a half dozen or more for the defendant.

The graduation exercises for the class of 1909 were held at the opera-house last Thursday night and were attended by a crowded house. The class this year was the largest ever graduated from the O'Neill public schools, containing fifteen members, nine boys and six young ladies. In the membership of the class it was different from its predecessors, and the general rule, as nearly always the boys are in the minority in high school graduating classes while in this class the young ladies were in the minority. Following is the names of those who finished their high school work on May 27, 1909: Edna H. Barnard, Ina M. Bain, Nell P. Brennan, Ida B. Craig, Ed. P. Campbell, Clara Grimes, Erwin Gallagher, Edward Mann Gallagher, Thomas V. Golden, Lawrence G. Hunt, Ruth J. Meredith, Pearl E. Roberts, Ernest P. Simmons, Fred J. Voedisch, and John C. Gallagher.

Joseph Frost of Lamro, S. D., and John Flannigan of Stuart have commenced an action in the district court of Holt county to collect damages to the extent of $8,000 from the Chicago & Northwestern railroad company, said damages alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiffs on a shipment of cattle on defendant's road in May 1907. In May of the above named year the plaintiffs purchased a train load of cattle in Texas, which, they allege in their petition, was shipped from Texas to Valentine to be placed upon their ranch in Tripp county, S. D. At Crawford the cattle were turned over to the defendant railroad for transportation to Valentine, and near Gordon, while on said trip, one of the cars in said train, which was a special composed of twenty cars left the rails and bumped along on the ties for about three miles. Plaintiffs allege that the bumping injured many of the cattle on said train and caused them to greatly depreciate in flesh for which they ask damages in the sum of $8,000, with interest from May 28, 1907, and costs of suit.

here, will weeping bend above my lowly bier, and bring large garlands, worth three bucks a throw, and paw the ground in ecstasy of woe. And friends will wear crape bowknots on their tiles, while I look down (or up) a million miles, and wonder why those people never knew how smooth I was until my spirit flew. When I cash in I will not care a yen for all the praise that's heaped upon me then; serene and silent, in my handsome box, I shall not heed the laudatory talks, and all the pomp and all the vain display, will just be pomp and feathers thrown away. So tell me now, while I am on the earth, your estimate of my surprising worth; O tell me what a looloo-bird I am, and fill me full of taffy and of jam!
