A LETTER PRESS.

It Was a Great Bargain, but He Knew
It Too Late.

One of the smokers had been exhibiting a diamond pin which he had purchased of a hard up traveler and made at least a hundred dollars on when the gray haired man heaved a sigh and remarked:

"As for me, I never had but one real bargain offered me, and I was fool enough not to take that."

"Something in the way of jewelry?" was asked.

"No; it was a letter press."

"But I don't see how much of a bargain could be offered in that."

"No? Well, I will tell you. I thought I was in love and was writing the girl two letters a day. Six months later, when I knew that I wasn't in love with her, I busted up things, and she sued me for breach of promise."

"But you had been careful in your letters not to pledge yourself."

"I told my lawyer that she couldn't exhibit one single loving sentence in any of my letters—that is, any having connection with matrimony."

"Yes."

"But when the suit came to trial she exhibited over forty letters in which I said that I should die if she turned me down, and the jury awarded her $2,500 for her broken heart. Yes, sir, and I could have bought that letter press for $7 and had copies of my letters as fast as written and knew what I was up against at the end. Great bargain, gents—great bargain, and yet I turned it down."—Baltimore American.

THEATRICAL STARS.

Some Famous Ones That Started on the Variety Stage.

Edwin Booth was in his younger days a member of a minstrel company and, unless I am mistaken, appeared in some of the variety shows of that period. He lived to become one of the most noble and dignified figures of his day as well as one of the most distinguished actors that the English speaking stage has ever known. Joseph Jefferson was also a minstrel in the early part of his career, and prior to that he and his sister, both mere children, had been wont to perform on Boston Common and pass the hat among the by-standers.

Lotta was known in the mining camps of California and in the early variety theaters of San Francisco long before she came east in the sixties to win money and fame—"a dramatic cocktail." John Brougham called her—"the legitimate houses of Broadway." William H. Crane used to play the tambourine in a wandering minstrel company. Nat Goodwin, Lillian Russell and May Irwin came to the front in the early eighties at Tony Pastor's theater. Mr. Goodwin gave imitations of popular actors and lived to become an extremely popular actor himself. Miss Irwin's remarkable humorous gifts were shown in the condensed versions of comic operas that brought Mr. Pastor's entertainments to a close, and it was in one of these that Miss Russell leaped into fame in a single night.—James L. Ford in McClure's Magazine.

Football as Played in Labrador.

One must not imagine it is all work and no play with the Labrador Eskimos. Much to my surprise, I found that our good old game of football had taken hold in Ungava. The game is played with a ball of seal skin stuffed with grass. The goals are placed much the same as in our own game, and each player is armed with a short handled sling made of several thongs of seal hide bent in loops and attached to a wooden handle. The ball may either be tossed in the sling, kicked or, should opportunity offer, picked up and carried. Rough tactics are not barred. I have seen a man tossed in the air and pitched headforemost into a snow bank, while pushing, tripping and blocking are all freely indulged in.—Recreation.

The Clarinet.

The clarinet has the richest, sweetest voice of all the wood wind instruments, although its sound does not travel quite so far as that of the oboe. Whenever, as sometimes happens, there are two melodies to be played at once, the clarinet takes the lower of the two, while the violins play the upper and more important one. But in a military band, where there are no strings at all, the clarinets play the chief melody. The bass clarinet is not so smooth or so sweet as the higher ones. It has a rather choky sound, though softer than that of the bassoon.—St. Nicholas.

Reassuring Him.

"A little final advice," said a professor of elocution, addressing his pupils before the annual entertainment—"go well to the front of the stage, don't hesitate and don't be nervous!"

"But, I say, professor," remarked a very self satisfied member of the class, "suppose I forget part of my oration?"

"Oh, that doesn't matter," replied the professor. "On the contrary, the more of it you forget the better the audience will like it!"

Kept Him Busy.

"Did you do much sightseeing when you went abroad?"

"No," answered Mr. Cumrox. "Mother and the girls did the sightseeing. I had to put in my time finding the places where they cash letters of credit."—Washington Star.

Man Killed Twice.

An English paper is responsible for stating that a man "was overtaken by a passenger train and killed. He was injured in a similar way about three years ago."

Order of Hearing of Probate of Foreign Will.

State of Nebraska, Holt county, ss.

In the probate court of said county.

In the matter of the estate of Louis Hohn, deceased.

On this 14th day of May, A. D. 1909, Margaret Hohn filed her petition in this court, and presented an authenticated copy of the last will and testament of Louis Hohn, deceased, late of Detroit, Wayne county, Michigan, the prayer of said petitioner being that a day be fixed by this court for the purpose of approving and allowing said last will and testament, and causing the same to be filed and recorded in this office. It is therefore hereby Ordered, that Saturday, the 5th day of June, A. D. 1909, at 10 o'clock a. m. be fixed for hearing said petition when all persons interested in said matter may appear and show cause why the prayer of said petitioner should not be granted; and that notice of the pendency of said petition and the hearing thereof, be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Frontier, a weekly newspaper printed in said county, for three weeks prior to said day of hearing.

(Seal) C. J. MALONE,
County Judge.

(First publication May 27)

The Deere No. 9 Leads the Field Why?

Because it leads in accuracy—actual accuracy. We demonstrate it.

Because it leads in perfect checking, independent of speed of team.

Because it leads in easy operation. Instantly changed from hill to drill. Has spring lift. Automatic reel, perfect foot drop, etc.

Because it leads in simplicity and strength of construction. Front frame is tied in eight places.

Because it leads in substitution of malleables in place of common castings at all vital points.

Because it leads in lightness of draft. No strain on the check wire, hence no side draft.

Because it leads in ability to successfully plant not only corn, but practically any kind of seed.

Because it leads in number sold each year—and this number is every year increasing.

Drop in and get a copy of our booklet, "More Corn—and Better Corn." Contains a lot of boiled down practical seed corn information.
