

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XXIX.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JUNE 17, 1909

NUMBER 52

YOU deliver your declaration of independence of cheap, slip-shod, commonplace tailoring, of doubtful quality in fabrics, of uncertainty in style, and of unsatisfactory fit, the minute you enter the doors of our store. You're on your own ground here; you're in a place where the thing you want is the thing we want, you are where you can absolutely count on getting the best value that your money can procure. You know, without needing anybody to tell you, that these fine, high grade are right; you know they're made of all-wool fabrics, that the linings, trimmings, insides of every garment, are as good as can be made; that the styles and models are correctly designed by the most expert talent in the country; that the clothes fit. If you don't know these things, look around you, we've put clothes on the best dressed men in town. Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes, they speak for themselves, and for us, and they speak for the men who wear them. We offer you absolute security in clothes buying, certainty that you'll get what you want. You can't get it in the same way anywhere else, and you don't want to get any less.

Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

You may be correct in your suit and be complimented by your associates as to how well you look, but you are not complete without one of those well-made Cravenette Coats, made by Hart Schaffner & Marx, that completes your dress. Produces the large shoulders and a smooth drape that looks like comfort. This coat cost you $20 to $25.

Fancy vests gives the wearer a snappy appearance and calls the attention of his associates to the fact that his idea of neatness is superior to others. I show you a selection at $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 $3.00, $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00.

In men's furnishings the best is the cheapest. The Cluett shirt always meets the approval of the critic. Its make, pattern and fine quality, its pure white texture, always wears well and meets the approval of all comers.

My store furnishes you a high grade hat that retains its shape, produces an appearance of art in dress, and at the same time gives you full value for your money.

Collars are an item that every well dressed man is interested in and I have always paid strict attention to this stock, and always have on hand the latest styles. The Avolyn, low cool and easy. Amolek, medium high. Lustannia, high but very comfortable, 2 for 25c. The Tremont, latest and most popular collar made, 2 for 25c.

A man who has pride in dress never will neglect his foot wear and I have never overlooked this fact in the selection of my mammoth stock of high grade shoes made by the best and honestest shoemaker in America, Pingree & Co. I carry all shapes and newest styles at $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00. Also in Oxfords at $3.50, $4.00 and $5.00.

The home of up-to-date clothes.

PEELERS PEELED THEM

Boys From the North Trimmed High School Team Sunday.

COYNE PITCHED SWELL GAME

But His Support Was on the "Punk" Order and the Game Went to the Peelers 5 to 3.

The Peelers came in from the north country last Sunday and trimmed the High School team by a score of 5 to 3. The game was quite interesting and was thoroughly enjoyed by a good sized crowd of fans and rannettes. Charley Richter was on the mound for the Peelers and although touched up quite lively managed to get away with the bacon through dumb-headed plays and bone-headed base running on the part of the High School boys. During the session he was touched up for ten hits, a couple of which was for extra bases. Hugh Coyne was on the firing line for O'Neill and held the sluggers from the north down to three measly hits, no two of which came in the same inning, yet he lost the game. In addition to holding them down to three hits he whiffed seven and by all rules of the game was entitled to win, but he didn't. During the session Richter fanned nine men, and gave two men bases on balls but was especially strong with men on bases. The score by innings was as follows:

O'Neill.....	0 0 3 0 0 0 0 0 0	—3
Hits: O'Neill 10; Peelers 3.
Errors: O'Neill 6; Peelers 3.
Struck out: Coyne 7; Richter 9.
Batteries: O'Neill: Coyne and McNichols; Peelers: Richter and Richter.

District Court.

The annual spring term of district court, which was in session the past two weeks, adjourned last Saturday afternoon until July 10, the jury being excused until that date.

One of the most important trials the latter part of the week was that of M. F. Harrington vs. John Hedlund, in which the jury returned a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $352.00. This case grew out of the celebrated school land case of Boyd county, in which the settlers sought to acquire title to the land and were opposed by the Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings on behalf of the state. The case was finally settled the settlers paying a stated price per acre for the land. The suit of Mr. Harrington's was to collect attorneys fees from one of the settlers in the controversy.

The case of the state of Nebraska vs. Chris M. Ernst was dismissed at the request of the county attorney.

In the case of the State of Nebraska vs. Frank McShane, who was charged with complicity in the celebrated Atkinson hog stealing case, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

Obituary.

Florence Sullivan died at his residence in this city last Monday at 5:20, after an illness of several months, of cancer of the stomach, the remains being interred in the Catholic cemetery Wednesday.

Deceased was born in County Cork, Ireland, March 15, 1836 and was 73 years of age at the time of his death. At an early age he came to America and for many years worked in the copper mines of Michigan. About thirty years ago he came to this county and took a homestead about seven miles northeast of O'Neill, upon which he resided until about four years ago when he sold his farm and moved to this city, where he resided up to the time of his death. Mr. Sullivan was a good citizen without an enemy on earth. He was one of those hardy pioneers who suffered all the hardships of early days when railroads were a 100 miles away and wood for fuel had to be hauled forty miles. It was through the indefatigable labors of pioneers like Mr. Sullivan that Holt county owes much of its prosperity and advancement. His son, Michael, and daughter, Mrs. Nellie McMullen of Butte, Mont., were with him during his last illness and death as was also his brother, Timothy and sister, Miss Hanorah.

A Special Invitation to Cream Patrons.

We have set aside June 19th as visitors day. We want you to come up and inspect the plant, bring your cream and see us test same. We want your business and know you will be benefited if you only give us a trial. Bring along your wife so she can see also and we will have an extra dish of ice cream for all.
