

PRIMARY ELECTION VOTE

About One-Sixth of the Voters Take Part in the Nominations.

BARNES LEADS STATE TICKET

Hickman Was Winner for Clerk Nomination Until the Votes at O'Neill Were Counted.

At the primary election held in this county Tuesday of last week a total of 658 votes were cast, about one-sixth of the vote of the county. Outside the the contest on the republican ticket for judges of the supreme court the only contest was on the democrat ticket for county clerk between Chairman Hickman of the county board and S. F. McNichols of this city. Sam Hickman was handicapped in the race, having incurred the enmity of the machine and was forced to go through the campaign with the influence of Boss Mullen against him. Sam was confident all along that he could overcome that handicap, but when the votes were counted it was found that the O'Neill man was an easy winner. Hickman came to O'Neill with a majority of eight votes on the democratic ticket but the heavy vote cast for McNichols in this city put him under the wire a winner in a walk. On the peoples' independent ticket Hickman had a majority of nineteen votes outside of O'Neill, but the three wards of this city gave McNichols enough votes to overcome that lead and put him under the wire with a majority of six votes.

Following is the vote cast for the several candidates in the county:

The Live Stock Market

South Omaha, Neb., Aug., 25—Special market letter from Standard Live Stock Commission Co.

The advance of last week of 15 to 25 cents on good killers is well maintained at the opening of this week. There is a broad demand for fleshy cows and all offerings of this kind were readily picked up. There was also a good inquiry for fleshy feeders at firm prices while the light and medium weight cattle are slow sale at lower figures. The run is very liberal both at Chicago and river points.

We quote:
Choice range beef.....$5.00@5.75
Choice corn fed beef..... 6.50@ 7.50

We have a very light run of hogs here this week although fair at Chicago. Values 5 to 10 up. Bulk $7.45 to $7.70, top $7.90

Fat lambs have declined 25 to 40 cents during the past week. Fat sheep have held up well and are steady. Desirable feeders have held fully steady and bunches that just suited have brought a stronger price in some cases. The demand has been good but the supply is plenty large to meet it.

Leon Manville Dies Suddenly.

The Fremont Tribune reports the death of Leon Manville, son of O. A. Manville, well known in this county where he held the office of superintendent two or three terms. The Tribune says:

At 9:30 o'clock Friday morning the body of Leon Manville, a former Fremont boy who was stricken with spinal meningitis while at the bedside of his sick wife in Omaha last week, was brought to this city for burial. Services were held at the Ridge cemetery a half hour later, Rev. G. M. Jones of Louisville, Neb., officiating. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Manville, parents of the deceased, arrived in the city late Thursday afternoon from their home near Herrick, S. D., to attend the funeral. Their daughter and her husband from Colon were also here.

For the past year or two Leon Manville had been principal of the schools at Dallas, S. D. A few weeks ago he left his South Dakota home in company with his wife for Omaha, where she entered a hospital and was operated upon for appendicitis. After a sinking spell during which she was near death, Mrs. Manville began to recover. Last Friday when the prospects were all bright, Mr. Manville, who was working in Omaha, was stricken with a sudden illness. The following day he was seriously ill. His death occurred Tuesday night.

The deceased was well known here, being a graduate of the Fremont high school. His father was county clerk of Dodge county for several years, before moving to Spencer, thence to Herrick. Mr. Manville is survived by his widow, a bride of two years. He was 24 years of age.

Everlasting.

F. D. Coburn of Kansas on alfalfa: Alfalfa is very long lived; fields in Mexico, it is claimed, have been continuously productive, without replanting, for over 200 years, and others in France are known to have flourished for more than a century. Its usual life in the United States is probably from ten to twenty-five years, although there is a field in New York that has been mown successively for over sixty years. It is not unlikely that under its normal conditions and with normal care it would well-nigh be, as it is called, everlasting.

MINOR MENTION

During the rain storm Monday morning lightning struck the corner of O. F. Biglin's implement house and in a few seconds a good-sized fire had started, but it was discovered almost immediately by Nightwatchman Kane who sounded the alarm and the department soon had it under control. The damage to the building will not exceed $100.

Frank Kiernan returned Sunday afternoon from his trip to the coast. While away Frank registered at the three land drawings and was one of the fortunate ones in the Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, drawing and will be able to file on a piece of Idaho land next April. Frank thoroughly enjoyed his trip and says that during the journey he met many former O'Neill people.

Dr. A. H. Corbett arrived home Sunday from Cheyenne, Wyo., where he attended the frontier celebration three days last week. Doc says it was a great celebration and that Cheyenne did herself proud in entertaining the thousands of visitors. The celebration consisted of a program of characteristic western "stunts" and was carried out as advertised. Doc says one thing that was very noticeable was the absence of rowdiness, gambling and street fakirs.

S. G. Hammons of Afton, Ia., was here the first of the week looking after his real estate interests, he having something over 1,400 acres of land five miles east of town. Mr. Hammons says he notes a substantial development in the country this year. He says southern Iowa has had a poor crop season, there having been excessive rains in the spring that made seeding and subsequent cultivation late. The summer turned out dry and excessively hot which renders the corn crop a failure.

Howard V. Trafton, sheriff of Santa Cruz county, California, arrived in the city Sunday afternoon and Tuesday morning left with Henry Price, the man arrested by Sheriff Hall at Amelia a week ago and wanted in the California county on the charge of bigamy. Mr. Trafton was loud in his praise of Sheriff Hall for having taken the man into custody and said that the arrest of Price about three thousand miles from the scene of his crime proved that the United States was a very small country for a man to hide in when the officers once started out to find a man.

W. W. Mills was called up from Meadow Grove last Friday on account of his young son meeting with an accident. The boy was visiting at their former home near Minneola. Thursday he was hurt with a pitchfork. The boy was around where grain was being stacked. The stacker had completed his stack and let the fork slide down the side. It struck the Mills boy in the right shoulder, the sharp tines penetrating the flesh down along the back far enough to support the weight of the fork, which had to be removed from the boy. Dr. Gilligan was summoned from O'Neill and dressed the wound, which is not serious. Mr. Mills and son returned home Sunday.

Liberati and his famous band and Grand Opera singers makes music very popular at the State Fair.

They will be heard at Lincoln four concerts every day Sept. 6th to 10th. They never disappoint the crowd simply hold them spell bound during the entire program. The cornet solos by the great leader or the solos by the other artists always well rendered. No matter whether the band renders "Andre Cheniev" a number so tremendous that it taxes the full musical power of the band or "Uncle Sam's March" as the last note dies away the crowd always cheer.

A good-sized delegation of O'Neillites went to Neligh last Friday to take in the races and incidentally see the O'Neill ball team trim an aggregation of Antelope county players. The game resulted in a score of 4 to 1 in favor of the O'Neill boys. Charley Richter was on the firing line for O'Neill and the boys say he twirled a very classy game, holding the opposing team down to four hits and fanning fourteen men. The races were not as good as those seen here, the event of the day, the 2:14 pace, being won by Louise Mac over Capt. Mack in three straight heats.

Springview Herald: Judge Harrington arrived Saturday from O'Neill, and held a special term of district court at this place. He sentenced Chas. Williams and Harvey Middaugh, charged with stealing three head of horses from L. P. Larson of Mills, to terms in the penitentiary. Williams received six years at hard labor, Sundays excepted and Middaugh received two. Williams confessed to having served a term of 16 months in the Minnesota penitentiary for grand larceny. He was also arrested in Wisconsin on a charge of embezzlement, but in some manner was gotten out of the scrape. Middaugh is only 20 years old and his parents live near Carlock in Gregory county.

For the past month or more there has been considerable discussion among the "railbirds" and those interested in race horses as to which of two horses were the faster, Stannard's "Speed On" or Gregg's "Kyd." The discussion finally caused an advocate of each horse to put up a little roll of the long green as a supporter of their judgment and the race was pulled off on the race track Tuesday afternoon. They got away nicely together with Speed On at the pole. The Kyd tried to pass him at the turn and went in the air and Speed On won the heat in a canter. The next heat was a little more exciting. The Kyd trailed Speed On clear around until he got on the neck stretch when he passed him and was pulling away from him fast when he again went into the air and Speed On won the heat and race easily. Considerable money changed hands on the result of the race.

A NEW LIMITED TRAIN

Northwestern Puts on Another Passenger From Chicago West.

The last announcement of increased passenger service to western points is made by the Chicago & Northwestern. A new train, to be known as the Oregon - Washington Limited, was placed in service August 22, leaving Chicago at 11:30 a. m. daily, arriving Portland 8:30 the third morning, and landing passengers in Tacoma and Seattle the same afternoon.

The new train has an equipment that includes Pullman drawing-room sleeping cars, Pullman tourist sleeping cars, Pullman private compartment and observation sleeping cars, and free reclining chair cars. All of this equipment is handled between Chicago and Portland without change. These trains have a la carte dining car service of the highest character.

This is in addition to the present service via the electric-lighted Chicago Portland special, and gives to the public the choice of two through trains to the north Pacific coast, each of which is operated on a three-day schedule via the Chicago, Union Pacific & Northwestern line.

The increased popularity of this line to Salt Lake City, the Yellowstone park, Portland and the Puget sound country may be attributed to two principal reasons; one is that by this route some of the most remarkable commercial and agricultural development that the west can boast of is to be seen, together with a magnificent group of scenic attractions which reach their climax on the 200-mile trip which these trains make along the banks of the Columbia river from Umatilla to Portland.

The other chief reason for the heavy travel attracted by this route is due to the extensive publicity that has been given to the fact that it has the only double track, automatic safety signal line between Chicago and the Missouri river, and the only route operated under automatic safety signals from Chicago to the Pacific coast, while the train equipment and service are of such perfect type as to insure a steadily widening circle of patronage.

Ray C. Aldredge and Miss Isabella McKathnie, both of Celia, were united in marriage by Judge Malone at the county court room yesterday afternoon, in the presence of a few relatives and friends. The groom is a son of S. M. Aldredge, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of western Holt, while the bride is the daughter of Benjamin McKathnie, also one of the old prosperous residents of the western part of the county. This happy young couple have a host of friends in their neighborhood who will wish them many years of happiness and prosperity.

Sunday School Convention.

The annual Sunday school convention was held as usual at Middle Branch, August 21-22. Saturday, being a bad day, there were only a few present but there was an unusually large crowd on Sunday. Ten schools were represented, but owing to the absence of the secretaries, a few were unable to give their report, but we were very glad to note the improvement in both attendance and interest over last year, in the reports which were given.

A few of the candidates at the recent primary election have filed their expense account in the office of the county clerk. It cost Sam Hickman $10.75 to be defeated for the democratic and populist nomination for county clerk. Of this amount $5 was paid as a filing fee, $3.75 for campaign cards and $2.00 for an announcement of his candidacy. Henry Grady's nomination cost him $10.00 which was paid for announcing his candidacy. The rest of the republican candidates were to no expense except the payment of the filing fee of $5.00 each.

THE FIGURES TO PROVE IT

Convincing Reasons Why New State Normal Should Be Located Here

TWICE THE NUMBER TEACHERS

County Superintendent Shows That Normal Here Would Have Double the Attendance Over Others.

By the County Superintendent.

The Holt county Junior Normal has had, each year of its existence, a larger enrollment than any other Junior Normal in the state. This fact should furnish good argument for the establishment of a permanent state normal in the county. Holt county, with the surrounding eleven counties, employs annually 1,265 teachers. The number of children in this territory is 32,555. The northwest fifteen counties employ only 633 teachers, just half our number, and report 16,867 children on their census list.

Statistics show that one third of the teaching force consists of new teachers each year. Within our twelve-district territory, 400 students would be accommodated yearly at a state normal, while in the northwest territory not more than 150 students could possibly be expected to enroll at any time. Their territory is better supplied than ours with normal training high schools, to which practically all centers of population have access. This lessens their need of a state normal.

In the minds of those who have made any comparison, there is no doubt but that O'Neill is the proper location for the new state normal because it is the center of an area having a population more than double the population of any like area in the Sixth district.

Educational Notes.

School sites can not be changed (except at annual meetings).

School districts Nos. 244, near Stuart, 245 and 247 in Swan precinct and 21, the Atkinson district, will build new school houses this summer.

A normal school district may bond the district for an amount not to exceed 5 per cent of its valuation. Bonds may draw not to exceed 6 per cent interest. Bonds can not be issued in districts containing fewer than twelve children.

Nebraska now has a course of study and a law making it obligatory for the county to furnish a copy of the course to each school district. The county furnishes report cards, perfect attendance certificates and all necessary official records and blanks needed by school officers.

Advice to Young People.

Lincoln Journal: Deputy Attorney Grant Martin spoke at a picnic at Hickman last Saturday, and he brought back a story of a speech delivered by a woman whose name he did not hear, that he said was one of the most timely he ever heard. At the conclusion of the regular program he said volunteer speakers were called for and the woman mounted the platform. Here is about what she said: "What the young people of Nebraska need is courage. I have heard a lot of young people around here today talking about it being so hot, and about there being no opportunity for a young man or woman like there used to be. Let me tell you about some of the things I went thru in the old days. My husband and I settled on a little homestead near here, and times were so hard and crops so poor that he had to leave me alone and go back to civilization to make enough money to buy something to eat. The hot winds came on and they made this weather seem pleasant. "After the death of my husband my son, who was grown, told me I would have to leave the farm and come with him. I said, 'Why?' "Because there are so many tramps going thru the country now it is not safe for you to stay alone." "Is that so," I replied. "Let me tell you something. I was alone out here on this same homestead before you were born. I never saw any one for days except Mexicans and Indians passing the house. Now you just get me a bulldog and a revolver and don't you bother about me. I never lived off my mother-in-law when I was young, and I don't intend to live off of my children now that I am old. The opportunity is still here for the young people. They just need a little courage and some get-up about them."

If you need help of any kind, tell as many people as possible. There are more than 40,000 people who subscribe for The Omaha Bee. You can tell them all for one cent per word per day. Write today.
