Miss Julia Harrington of Fall River, Mass., and Miss Alice Sullivan of Lincoln, Neb., who have been visiting their Uncle Paul Sullivan and family for the past three weeks, departed for their homes Monday. Miss Harrington has a position as teacher in the Fall River high school.

Work was commenced excavating for the new residence of Court Reporter Scott last Thursday morning. The building will be 27x38 feet, two stories, containing eight rooms and will be modern in every way. He is building on lots owned by him on the corner of First and Everett street.

John Bunn and Myrtle Corbin, both of Wood Lake, Neb., were united in marriage by County Judge Malone last Saturday. The groom is 50 years of age while the bride confessed to having seen 33 summers and a like number of winters.

There has been considerable petty thieving going on around town the past three or four months and many of our residents have oiled their trusty shot guns and say they will give the midnight marauders a warm reception should they come prying around their premises.

A special from Bloomfield, Neb., to the Norfolk News of Tuesday, says: Gold ore worth $24 to the ton has been found in the sand taken from the oil well at a depth of 900 feet. This fact became known today when a quantity of sand sent to a prominent Omaha assayer last Thursday, was returned this morning with an analysis showing the sand contained gold ore worth $24 to the ton. Bloomfield people are jubilant.

A large delegation of O'Neill people attended the old settlers picnic north of O'Neill last Thursday. The day was an ideal one for picnic purposes and the picnic is said to have been the largest ever held by the association. Sports of various kinds were provided for the amusement of the crowd and everything passed off harmoniously. The O'Neill people who attended all enjoyed themselves thoroughly and were pleased with their day's outing.

A man giving the name of F. R. Baker and his residence as New York, registered at the Evans hotel last Saturday and pulled his freight sometime Sunday evening after supper without the formality of paying Landlord Evans for his board and lodging. The assistance of the wires were invoked and the chances are that the gentleman will be apprehended and that it will cost him considerably more than $3.50 to extricate himself from his difficulty.

D. P. Weeks, S. Humphreys, C. H. Hohn and P. R. Davidson of the engineering corps of the Burlington, are in the city this week surveying for the siding that will be laid to the gravel pit recently purchased by the Burlington northwest of this city. We understand that on account of a scarcity of equipment that there will not be much ballasting done this season but that next year it is the intention of the company to keep a force of men at work in the O'Neill gravel pit throughout the summer.

W. H. and Patsy Harty of Shellsburg, Wis., arrived in the city last week and will open a tailor shop in the Reka building, two doors south of the post office formerly occupied by a restaurant. The boys come to O'Neill well recommended as expert tailors and as they have several relatives living in this section of the country they expect to become permanent residents of O'Neill. They are nephews of John London, who has been a resident of this county for many years, living southwest of Spencer.

A Niobrara special to the Norfolk News of last Monday, says: Between midnight and dawn parties broke into Freeman brothers' electric theatre tent and stole two trunks of moving picture films—eight reels—valued at $1,000. At 10:30 a. m. a boy employed at the depot and a man saw J. W. Carson and James Grey transferring the stolen trunks from one cornfield to another. Later the men were captured, identified, lodged in jail at Center and bound over to the district court on a charge of grand larceny. J. W. Carson at one time kept a saloon at Pierre, it is said without a license.

Last Saturday afternoon at Norfolk Charley Richter pitched one of the classiest ball games seen in northeast Nebraska this season. The game was played between Norfolk and Lynch with Charley Richter and Bill Wilson as the battery for the Boyd county team. The game lasted fourteen innings and was won by Norfolk with a score of 4 to 3, but at that Richter had the best of the twirling all the way through and was won by Norfolk in the last half of the fourteenth on a wild throw by the Lynch third baseman, after two men were down. During the fourteen innings Richter held the salaried Norfolk aggregation down to seven hits, while Lynch secured thirteen hits off of Norfolk's twirler. Tough luck to lose a game with such twirling as that.

FILE TWO DAMAGE SUITS

More Grief for the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad.

DAMAGES IN SUM OF $63,300

Messenger Boy Had Shoulder Bumped and Engineer Lost a Foot.—Cases for This County.

Last Saturday Gertrude Scofield, as next friend of Don D. Whiting, her brother, filed suit in the district court of Holt county against the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company, asking damages in the sum of $30,500 for injuries alleged to have been sustained by Whiting while in the employ of the railroad company in August, 1908.

The petition alleges that Whiting was employed by the defendant company and while so employed in the month of August, 1908, he was in a cream car at said station. That said train stopped suddenly and plaintiff was thrown violently backwards against the jam of said car door and that by being thrown against said car his left elbow was bruised and injured and his left shoulder bruised, crushed and injured; that by reason of said injuries he had to go to Omaha and was operated upon there by the defendant's surgeon; that said surgeon cut his shoulder open in two places and took therefrom a pound of flesh, tissue and pus that had accumulated by reason of said accident. A second operation was found necessary and was performed in about three weeks; that at the second operation the surgeon cut into his shoulder in four different places and removed three pieces of bone from the shoulder and arm end removed a pound of flesh, pus, tissue and muscles, and that plaintiff endured great pain by reason of said cutting and operation; that ever since receiving said injuries he has been sick, maimed, bruised, mangled and diseased and that said injuries are permanent; that since said operation he has been able to work at intervals only, not exceeding two months during the time since he sustained said injuries and finally had to give up work and is now unable to perform labor of any kind. That when injured he was receiving $50 a month and has already sustained a loss of time in the ten months amounting to $500. In addition to this he has sustained damages by reason of said injuries and the pain and suffering resulting therefrom and loss of health and working capacity in the total sum of $30,500, for which amount, with costs of suit, plaintiff prays judgment.

Whiting is nineteen years of age and suit is brought by his sister as next friend.

Asks for $32,800.

Frank Girard also brings suit against the same railroad, asking for $32,800 for injuries alleged to have been sustained while in the employ of said road as engineer.

The petition alleges that while engaged in the performance of his duties as engineer on said company's road near Fremont on July 13, 1908, his left foot was so badly mangled that it had to be amputated about six months afterwards.

The petition further alleges that he was confined to his bed for a long time and that ever since he has been sick, lame and diseased and ever will be.

That since receiving his injuries he has been unable to perform any work of any kind and that all of said injuries are permanent and that he will never be able again to work as a railroad engineer or do any work of consequence. The plaintiff has already sustained damages by loss of time and by reason of his being unable to work in the sum of $2,400 and has necessarily expended, trying to effect a cure; and that in addition to this sum the plaintiff has sustained damages by reason of said injuries in the sum of $30,000 on account of his loss of time, pain and suffering, and plaintiff prays that judgment be awarded him in the sum of $32,800 and cost of suit.

particulars were at hand as regarded his death but since we have learned that with his daughter he was out in the sand hills sand cherrying and while climbing into a buggy with a single barrel shotgun in his hand the gun was accidentally discharged, the load of shot striking him in the breast. As a result of the wound he expired in about thirty minutes. The remains were brought to Willow Springs and buried in the cemetery at that place, services being conducted at the grave by Prof. Boomer. He was an old resident of this part of the country.

J. A. Naylor of Thompsonville, Conn., arrived in the city last Friday and will make O'Neill his future home. Mr. Naylor purchased a half interest in the restaurant of his brother-in-law, George Weingartner, taking possession Monday morning. Mr. Naylor is highly pleased with O'Neill and the surrounding country and is showing his faith therein in the erection of the cement block on Douglas street, upon which work was commenced a couple of months ago. The Frontier welcomes Mr. Naylor to the ranks of O'Neill business men and hopes that he will meet that degree of prosperity that his faith in this city and country justifies.

Mr. Alfred B. Christian, proprietor of the Christian Clover Leaf farm, situated in and near York on which are two separate herds of Aberdeen Angus cattle, a breed that is claimed to be the best money-making breed of cattle, and three separate herds of the big, quick maturing type of Poland China pure bred hogs, about ten days ago shipped in three hundred yearling wethers which were taken to the 400 acre farm southeast of York, says the Times. Buying lambs or sheep at this time of year is something new to York county farmers who have raised hogs and cattle, but have not considered feeding sheep. These wethers are strong, healthy, vigorous and great rustlers and may make Mr. Christian a profit, but if they do not pay more than the work and feed and the original cost Mr. Christian thinks that they will help to clean up his corn field of cockle burrs and other weeds that have become a pest. Immediately the wethers were run in the corn field and the way they are cleaning the field of weeds and eating only the lower leaves of the corn stalks makes Mr. Christian believe that this is one of the means York county farmers have to rid their land of burrs and weeds.

Mr. D. S. Lang informs Mr. Christian that the wethers eat the leaves off the cockle burrs, thus destroying them, preventing going to seed, and that all the wethers will eat from now on until severe frosts will be fed in corn fields that cost nothing. The wethers do not try to eat ears of corn. A number of farmers in York county are interested in the experiment made by Mr. Christian and while too late this year, say they will buy sheep next summer and do the same. Iowa and Illinois farmers have for several years realized the value of sheep at this time of year to make growth and meat in the corn and stubble fields, cleaning the ground and making a profit on what the farmer never considered of any value but a source of annoyance.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gallagher and daughter came up from Laurel last Saturday evening being called here by the serious illness of Mr. Gallagher's mother, who has been in very poor health the past month.

The Live Stock Market

South Omaha, Neb., Sept. 1.—Special market letter from Standard Live Stock Commission Co.

There are liberal receipts of cattle arriving again at the opening of this week and values can be quoted about steady with some of the best killers a shade higher. There is still a good inquiry for butcher cows and a better demand for stockers and feeders and the best quality are commanding a little stronger prices. Prospects seem to be for a steady to stronger market this week.

We quote:
Choice range beef.....$5.00@5.60
Choice corn fed beef..... 6.40@ 7.50
Common to fair..... 4.50@ 6.25
Corned cows and heifers..... 5.25
Good butcher grades..... 3.00@ 3.60
Canners and cutters..... 1.75@ 2.75
Veal calves..... 4.00@ 6.50
Bulls, stags, etc..... 2.50@ 4.50
Prime feeding steers..... 4.25@ 5.10
Stock down to..... 3.00
Others heifers..... 2.75@ 3.50

Hogs touched the $8.00 mark again Monday, this firm selling a load at that price, which is the high point for several weeks. Receipts continue light. Bulk $7.60 to $7.80, top $8.00.

Although sheep receipts are liberal killers are strong to 10 higher. There is a good healthy tone to the feeder trade and offerings are picked up readily at steady prices.

Cut To One Dollar.

The Lincoln Daily State Journal wants a few thousand new trial subscribers and has cut its price from now to Jan. 1, 1910, to only $1, or daily and Sunday both $1.25. This is a specially low price for such a newspaper and will result in a big business. The Journal stops when the time is out so that people need not be afraid to take one of these special offers. Its not a trick to get you started. The Journal has greatly enlarged and improved each year and has been having a wonderful growth in its readers. Being the paper of our state capital it is especially the paper for Nebraskans to read, and it has an especially clean lot of readers because the paper itself is clean, having cut out all liquor and objectionable medical advertising. The Journal is thoroughly independent, and has been making a determined fight to have our representatives at Washington do something to lower the cost of living.

If you want to read not only all of the news of the world, but a practical, helpful newspaper, working in the interests of the masses of Nebraskans, try The Lincoln Journal until Jan. 1, 1910 at this cut price.
