

ANOTHER WOMAN CURED

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Gardiner, Maine.—"I have been a great sufferer from organic troubles, until she has given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made exclusively from roots and herbs, a fair trial. This famous medicine for women has for thirty years proved to be the most valuable tonic and renewer of the female organism. Women residing in almost every city and town in the United States bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills, and creates radiant, buoyant female health. If you are ill, for your own sake as well as those you love, give it a trial.

Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

Don't whip the bowels with harsh cathartic. You can do just as much, and gently, with a candy Cascaret. Harsher physic makes the bowels hard, so you increase the dose. Cascarets leave the bowels normal, so one tablet is enough.

Vest-pocket box, 10 cents—at drug-stores. Small now use a million boxes monthly.

FOR SALE—6 per cent mortgage bonds with stock bonus; safe investment; local agent wanted. Sherman Collins, Ithaca, N. Y.

AGENTS—Make $5 daily selling metal weather strips; 200 per cent profit. Easy sales. Write today. A. C. Wandelken, Marietta, Ohio.

SIoux CITY PTT'G CO., 1,317—43, 1909

From the Chicago Tribune. "Algy, did you call on Miss Peachley last evening, as you intended?" "I went as far as the front door, dear boy, but I was so thoroughly drenched by a sudden storm that had come up that I merely asked the servant for a rain check and came away."

Stop guessing! Try the best and most certain remedy for all painful ailments—Hamlin's Wizard Oil. The way it relieves all soreness from sprains, cuts, wounds, burns, scalds, etc., is wonderful.

Salemanship. From Judge. "It makes you look small," says the saleslady to the big woman, who is trying on the hat. Sold.

"It makes you look plump," she says to the slender woman. Sold.

"It makes you look young," she says to the obviously middle-aged woman. Sold.

"It makes you look tall," she says to the short woman. Sold.

"It brightens your face," she says to the dark woman. Sold.

"It brings out your color," she says to the pale woman. Sold.

Autumn. There is beauty everywhere. When the scarlet leaves appear. And the ripened nuts are falling from the trees. All enchanted is, and gay; While sweet chords of nature play. And I'm fonder, ever fonder, dear, of these.

There are harmonies I feel That no language will reveal. As I taste the pleasant fruit thou offerest me; And the calmness of the air To my peace cannot compare. For I'm fonder, ever fonder, dear, of these.

All the colors thou hast blent, All the music thou hast sent. To enthrall me with their rapturous harmony, All the beauties of autumn trees, And the soft October breeze, Makes me fonder, ever fonder, dear, of these.

AND BEFORE CHRISTMAS, TOO. "Janetta, you are the light of my life. You're my sun, my stars, my all. You're my—"

"Yes, George, I know all that; but you're broke."

BABY'S WATERY ECZEMA. Itched and Scratched Until Blood Ran—$50 Spent on Useless Treatments—Disease Seemed Incurable—Cured by Cuticura $1.50.

"When my little boy was two and a half months old he broke out on both cheeks with eczema. It was the itchy, watery kind and we had to keep his little hands wrapped up all the time, and if he would happen to get them uncovered he would claw his face till the blood streamed down on his clothing. We called in a physician at once, but he gave an ointment which was so severe that my babe would scream when it was put on. We changed doctors and medicines until we had spent fifty dollars or more and baby was getting worse. I was so worn out watching and caring for him night and day that I almost felt sure the disease was incurable. But finally reading of the good results of the Cuticura Remedies, I determined to try them. I can truthfully say I was more than surprised, for I bought only a dollar and a half's worth of the Cuticura Remedies (Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Pills), and they did more good than all my doctors' medicines I had tried, and in fact entirely cured him. His face is perfectly clear of the least spot or scar of anything. Mrs. W. M. Comer, Burnt Cabins, Pa., Sept. 15, 1908."

Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Props. of Cuticura Remedies, Boston.

Heroic Remedies. From London Answers. "According to this magazine," said Mrs. Biffingham, "sliced onions scattered about a room will absorb the odor of fresh paint."

"I guess that's right," rejoined Biffingham. "Likewise, a broken neck will relieve a man of a catarrh!"

PERRY DAVIS' PAINKILLER costs only 25c, 50c or 10c a bottle, but it contains many dollars' worth of virtue in curing colds, rheumatism, neuralgia, and kindred ills. At all drug stores.

It is not every man who would be willing to pay for tracing his ancestors.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

Those Twins. From the New York Sun. An upper Harlem man named his twin sons Theodore Roosevelt and William Taft, says the New York Sun. A friend asked him the other day how they were getting along.

"Famously," was the answer. "William digs steadily into his breakfast bowl while Theodore yells and pounds him over the head with a spoon."

Remember—the Little Member. You may keep your feet from slipping. And your hands from evil deeds. And to guard your feet from tripping. What unceasing care it needs! Be you old or be you young. Oh, beware. Of the little-tattle telltale tongue!

You may feel inclined to quarrel. With the doctrine that I preach. But the soundness of the moral. Sad experience will teach. Be it said, be it sung. Oh, beware. Take good care Of the little-tattle telltale tongue!

—St. Nicholas.

SENSITIVE ANIMALS. Washington Star: A noted trainer of thoroughbreds, who dropped into Washington the other day to pick out the stable track for his string at the Benning track for the forthcoming fall meeting, was talking of the sulking propensities of a certain clever race horse now running on the metropolitan tracks.

"If the people behind that horse could only find out what trifling little thing he is sulking about," said the trainer, "it would be worth tens of thousands of dollars to them. I could easily remedy whatever little matter it might be that is causing the horse to carry such a vast amount of poutishness about in his midriff, and then, with his wrong redressed, he'd go right ahead and win good races until the end of the season."

Foot of the remark that thoroughbred horses are as capricious as women. I'd rather put it that they're as whimsical as children. "Their likes and dislikes are formed all of a sudden, like a child's, and as often as not a thoroughbred horse has the same sort of distinctive guidance behind his whimsical notion that a child has. For example, a naturally sneaky, treacherous man has no more chance to gain the good will of a highly bred race horse than he has to gain the confidence of a child."

"There is something in both the horse and the child that tells them that the bad hearted man isn't right. That something, I suppose, is pure instinct. "But horses of high caliber have an even wider range of whimsy. That's why every good trainer studies the whims of every one of the horses in his charge. "About ten years ago I trained a great race horse—one of the greatest of his time—who was as calm and self-contained as a priest, except for one thing. He couldn't tolerate the sight of a man with a beard. "It was pure nervousness, of course, but you can't tell me that that horse didn't get that aversion somewhere. We hear about children being 'marked' by some trait or characteristic by their mothers. Don't you believe that that immortal old four footed boy I'm talking about wasn't marked just in the way that children are, before his birth, with that hatred for a bearded man? I believe that I'm hearing a hat that that horse's dam had been abused by some fellow with a beard, and that she transmitted her fear of and hatred for bearded men to the son, who made her name glorious as a stud matron. It may not be scientific, but I believe that I know a lot of plain old facts about horses and other things that are not embraced in any system of science. "Most race horses are devoted to women. Yet I've trained thoroughbreds that had such an innate dislike for women that it was dangerous for a woman to get anywhere near them. "I've got a swell horse in my string now who is 'dead gone' on the young wife of one of the owners for whom I train. He won't even approach her, but I know a lot of plain old facts about horses and other things that are not embraced in any system of science. "Most race horses are devoted to women. Yet I've trained thoroughbreds that had such an innate dislike for women that it was dangerous for a woman to get anywhere near them. "I've got a swell horse in my string now who is 'dead gone' on the young wife of one of the owners for whom I train. He won't even approach her, but I know a lot of plain old facts about horses and other things that are not embraced in any system of science."

THE REASON. Mr. Brown—Did you enjoy yourself at the afternoon tea? Mrs. Brown—Yes; I was the only woman there who had a new hat.

A NURSE'S EXPERIENCE Is a Good Guide for Any Person Who Does Not Understand Kidney Troubles. A nurse has to know just what to do for common ailments, and those who suffer backache, languor and other common signs of kidney trouble, should heed the example of Mrs. Judson Ellis, 414 Francis St., Jackson, Mich. Known for many years prior to her marriage as "Nurse Baker."

"My back ached a good deal and was lame and weak, so that I had difficulty in straightening up or turning in bed," said she. "Doan's Kidney Pills benefited me wonderfully, and since using them I have been able to do my own work again."

Remember the name—Doan's. Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

ANOTHER DOUBLE EAGLE. Little Known Pattern Piece Made in 1896 by the Chief Mint Engraver. In the interest excited by the Saint Gaudens designs for coins (the existence of an entirely different double eagle made by the chief engraver of the United States mint in 1896 seems to have entirely escaped the notice not only of the general public but even of coin collectors, who usually keep in close touch with everything pertaining to the coinage of this country.

Charles E. Barber, chief engraver of the mint, who executed the designs for the present nickel five cent piece, the dime, the quarter and the half dollar, engraved the dies for a new $20 gold piece when a change in certain United States coin designs was proposed a few years ago. From these dies two specimens were struck, one in gold and the other in silver metal, gilded, to show the obverse design. The two pieces were placed in the coin cabinet at the Philadelphia mint, but even the coin experts have overlooked them.

The obverse shows a large head of Liberty of original design. Around the borders are 13 stars and below is the date, "1906." The reverse is distinctly different from many other United States coin designs.

A standing female figure fills the center of the field. She holds aloft in her left hand a pole, surmounted by a tiny Liberty cap, while the right hand is placed on the hilt of a sword, the point of which rests upon the ground. Directly behind the figure is an aggressive looking eagle, with partly opened wings, in an attitude of protection. The head of the figure is a series of radiations, between them being the motto "In God We Trust." Below the figure of Liberty is a fasces placed in a horizontal position. The edge of the gold pattern coin con-

Fish Hooks of Oceania. From Harper's Weekly. Modern fishing tackle, as displayed in the window of the sporting goods store, contains an immense variety of patent appliances, each warranted to be infallible for attracting and ensnaring some particular member of the fish tribe; but the hook that simple, though important feature, is absolutely essential and has remained practically unchanged from during many centuries. Probably the earliest example of a metal hook is one that was found in Switzerland, and dates back to the bronze age. There is no essential difference between this ancient hook and the finest ones of steel that are produced today.

To go back as far as the stone age, we have only to turn to the inhabitants of Oceania, because these natives have never progressed any further in the art of capturing fish than did their ancestors centuries ago. Their hooks are of two main classes, those to be baited and those to be used without a bait. The former are of wood or turtle shell, fashioned either from a single piece or having the point fastened to the shank. Most of these are intended to penetrate the mouth of the fish although there are others that act as gorges and catch at the mouth or gullet, and thus enable the fish to be drawn up. The largest types are used in New Guinea and Micronesia for the capture of sharks, while the Solomon Islanders have tiny shell hooks for taking mullet.

The Polynesian hooks are generally barbed and some curious specimens have been collected in New Zealand. One of these is made from a section of a dog's jaw-bone, a single tooth, which has been filed to a sharp point, being left for the barb. In this same country a hook that has been pointed with human bone is regarded as possessing exceptionally fine qualities for attracting the fish.

The best workmanship is exhibited in the hooks which are used without bait and which correspond to our spoons. Pearl or other iridescent shell furnishes the part which attracts the fish, and frequently the shank consists of the ribbed part of a shell, near the hinge of the valve, thereby giving the hook a spinning motion as it is drawn through the water. More elaborate designs have a wooden shank, neatly curved and inlaid with a silver of hallois shell, while the barb is of sharpened bone. The extreme delicacy required in accurately piecing together one of these composite hooks may be imagined, and a great expenditure of time and labor is necessary. Hence they have been preserved very carefully and only used on lines of heavy vegetable fibre which seldom break except under extraordinary strain.

THE REASON. Mr. Brown—Did you enjoy yourself at the afternoon tea? Mrs. Brown—Yes; I was the only woman there who had a new hat.

A NURSE'S EXPERIENCE Is a Good Guide for Any Person Who Does Not Understand Kidney Troubles. A nurse has to know just what to do for common ailments, and those who suffer backache, languor and other common signs of kidney trouble, should heed the example of Mrs. Judson Ellis, 414 Francis St., Jackson, Mich. Known for many years prior to her marriage as "Nurse Baker."

"My back ached a good deal and was lame and weak, so that I had difficulty in straightening up or turning in bed," said she. "Doan's Kidney Pills benefited me wonderfully, and since using them I have been able to do my own work again."

Remember the name—Doan's. Sold by all dealers. 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

ANOTHER DOUBLE EAGLE. Little Known Pattern Piece Made in 1896 by the Chief Mint Engraver. In the interest excited by the Saint Gaudens designs for coins (the existence of an entirely different double eagle made by the chief engraver of the United States mint in 1896 seems to have entirely escaped the notice not only of the general public but even of coin collectors, who usually keep in close touch with everything pertaining to the coinage of this country.

Charles E. Barber, chief engraver of the mint, who executed the designs for the present nickel five cent piece, the dime, the quarter and the half dollar, engraved the dies for a new $20 gold piece when a change in certain United States coin designs was proposed a few years ago. From these dies two specimens were struck, one in gold and the other in silver metal, gilded, to show the obverse design. The two pieces were placed in the coin cabinet at the Philadelphia mint, but even the coin experts have overlooked them.

The obverse shows a large head of Liberty of original design. Around the borders are 13 stars and below is the date, "1906." The reverse is distinctly different from many other United States coin designs.

A standing female figure fills the center of the field. She holds aloft in her left hand a pole, surmounted by a tiny Liberty cap, while the right hand is placed on the hilt of a sword, the point of which rests upon the ground. Directly behind the figure is an aggressive looking eagle, with partly opened wings, in an attitude of protection. The head of the figure is a series of radiations, between them being the motto "In God We Trust." Below the figure of Liberty is a fasces placed in a horizontal position. The edge of the gold pattern coin con-

900 DROPS
CASTORIA
ALCOHOL 3 PER CENT.
Vegetable Preparation for Assimilating the Food and Regulating the Stomach and Bowels of INFANTS & CHILDREN
Promotes Digestion, Cheerfulness and Rest. Contains neither Opium, Morphine nor Meacral. NOT NARCOTIC.
Recipe of DR. J. C. WELLS, FITZGERALD
Painful Stool—
Aches, Spasms—
Bilious Colic—
Acid Stool—
Painful Urination—
Diarrhoea—
Hemorrhoids—
Constipation—
Worms—
Indigestion—
Flatulence—
Headache—
Nervousness—
Feverishness—
Loss of Sleep—
A Perfect Remedy for Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, Worms, Convulsions, Feverishness and Loss of Sleep.
Facsimile Signature of
Dr. J. C. Wells
NEW YORK.
35 DROPS—35 CENTS
Guaranteed under the Food and Drug Act.
Exact Copy of Wrapper.

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

The Kind You Have Always Bought Bears the Signature of

Wm. A. Ritchie

In Use For Over Thirty Years

CASTORIA

THE CASTORIA COMPANY, NEW YORK CITY.

tains a series of stars in rather high relief instead of the usual reeded edge, while the edges of the piece struck in base metal is smooth.

The cabinet at the mint contains other pattern pieces of which little is known. The reverse design of this double eagle was used by Engraver Barber as the obverse of a half dollar pattern piece struck in 1891, a specimen of which is in an exhibition. On the reverse of the 1891 fifty cent piece was a small spread eagle, with wreath, stars and a band of clouds above, similar to the reverse designs of the silver and gold pieces issued during the early part of the 19th century.

Another half dollar pattern piece of 1891 has been pronounced unusually handsome. It shows the same kind of central device as the first half dollar, but without the wreath, thus permitting the design to stand forth prominently.

These patterns and others were executed in anticipation of the change in design which took place in 1892, when the well known device of a seated figure of Liberty, used since 1840, gave way to the bust of Liberty new familiar.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury. as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is grievous to the eyes; you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price, 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

A Quite Natural Hesitancy. From Success Magazine. Mr. Brown, looking for his wife, asked the cook: "Bridget, can you tell me of my wife's whereabouts?" Bridget, evidently embarrassed, hesitated before replying, "I think they are in the wash, sir."

Whether you can eat your cake and have it too, depends upon how completely it may be able to withstand the processes of digestion.

THE SOURCE OF TROUBLE must be reached before it can be cured. Allen's Lung Balsam goes to the root of your cough, and cures it harmless and sure. At all druggists.

Aids Nature

The great success of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in curing weak stomachs, wasted bodies, weak lungs, and obstinate and lingering coughs, is based on the recognition of the fundamental truth that "Golden Medical Discovery" supplies Nature with body-building, tissue-repairing, muscle-making materials, in condensed and concentrated form. With this help Nature supplies the necessary strength to the stomach to digest food, build up the body and thereby throw off lingering obstinate coughs. The "Discovery" re-establishes the digestive and nutritive organs in sound health, purifies and enriches the blood, and nourishes the nerves—in short establishes sound vigorous health.

If your dealer offers something "just as good," it is probably better FOR HIM... just as good. But you are thinking of the cure not the profit, so there's nothing "just as good" for you. Say so.

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in Plain English; or, Medical Simplified, 1008 pages, over 700 illustrations, newly revised up-to-date Edition, paper-bound, sent for 21 one-cent stamps, to cover cost of mailing only. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

When You're Hoarse Use

PISO'S CURE

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR COUGHS AND COLDS

Gives immediate relief. The first dose relieves your aching throat and allays the irritation. Guaranteed to contain no opiates. Very palatable.

All Druggists, 25c.

A Skin of Beauty is a Joy Forever.

DR. T. Felix Goussard's Oriental Cream or Magical Beautifier.

Removes Tan, Pimples, Freckles, Moth Patches, Rash, and Skin Diseases, and every blemish on beauty, and does its best in the least time. It has stood the test of 50 years, and is as highly recommended as it is properly made. It is so gentle that it is safe for the most delicate skin. As you ladies will see when you use it, it is the most perfect of all the skin preparations. For sale by all druggists and Fancy Goods in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Prepared by T. HOPKINS, Prop., 37 Grand Street, New York.

Song.

Give me back my heart, fair child; To you as yet 'twere worth but little; Half beguiled, half beguiled, Be you warned, your own is brittle. I know it by your redd'ning cheeks, I know it by those two black streaks Arching up your peary brows In a momentary laughter, Stretched in long and dark repose With a sigh the moment after.

"Hill it dropt it on the moors! Let it, and you cannot find it!" My own heart! I want, not yours; You have bound and must unbind it. Set it free then from your net, We will love, sweet—but not yet! Fling it from you—we are strong; Love is trouble, love is folly; Love, that makes an old heart young, Makes a young heart melancholy.

—Aubrey De Vere.

Cheers and Laughter. From the Kansas City Journal. Friend—Where there laughter and cheer during your speech? Young Statesman—Well, there weren't any cheers, but now and then people in the audience looked at one another and laughed.

The Sick Are Made Well

And the Weak Are Restored to Full Vigor and Strength at the Hands of the Greatest Specialists of Modern Times.

Are you a perfectly strong, active, vigorous, healthy, happy man or woman? If not, you should not delay one day before you consult a specialist, one to whom the human body is an open book, and who understands every phase of human weakness and disease and to whom the proper treatment for a cure is as simple as the adding of a column of figures.

The Leading Specialists

For over 25 years Dr. Hathaway & Co. have been the leading specialists of this country. Their practice has been for years larger than that of other specialists. Their cures of all sorts of diseased conditions have been the marvel of the medical profession and the people generally. Their fame has spread into every town and every hamlet. Those afflicted with all manner of diseases have sought their services in order that they might be made whole by the administering of their wonderful system of treatment. Wrecks of humanity have come to them for consultation and medicines who, a few months later, have returned to them in most vigorous health to give them their thanks.

All Chronic Diseases Cured

Dr. Hathaway & Co. treat all chronic diseases—those peculiar to men and those peculiar to women—Vital Weakness, Debility, Female Troubles, Varicose Veins, Erysipelas, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Complaints, Skin Diseases, etc., etc.

Every Case Specially Treated

Every case taken by Dr. Hathaway & Co. is specially treated according to its nature, all under their general personal supervision, and all remedies used by them are prepared from the purest and best drugs in their own laboratories under their personal oversight, and all from special prescriptions of their own.

Dr. Hathaway & Co. make no charge for consultation or advice, either at their office or by mail.

DR. HATHAWAY & CO. 205 BOLTON BLOCK, SIOUX CITY, IOWA

PURAM FADELESS DYES

Color more goods brighter and faster colors than any other dye. One 10c package colors all fabrics. They dye in cold water better than any other dye. You can dye any garment without dipping agent. Write for free booklet—How to Dye, Bleach and Mix Colors. MONROE DRUG CO., Quincy, Illinois.