NUMBER 20

FOUR REPS., TWO DEMOS

Tuesday's Election Favorable for Most of Republican Ticket.

FUSION BOODLE FAILS TO WIN

Hard Fight Made On Grady and Malone but Without Avail.—Harnish Leads the Ticket.

J. C. HARNISH, Treasurer.
S. F. McNICHOLS, Clerk.
HENRY D. GRADY, Sheriff.
C. J. MALONE, County Judge.
MINNIE B. MILLER, Superintendent.
M. E. NORTON, Surveyor.
DR. E. T. WILSON, Coroner.

The above is the result on county officers at Tuesday's election. Drawing the political line, republicans get four officers and democrats two, Mr. Norton being the nominee of both parties.

In some respects republicans feel that a remarkable victory was won. Much money was put into the campaign by the democratic leaders to defeat Grady and Malone, but both came under the wire with good majorities, Grady having about 260 and Malone 112. Harnish leads the ticket with a majority of about 380. McNichols was elected over Simar by 75 or 80 and Miss Miller defeated Miss Zink by something less than 200.

Joe Hunter, republican, was elected supervisor in the Second district by the narrow margin of three votes; Th D. Sievers, nominated by the democrats and endorsed by republicans, in the Fourth district, and Anton Pruss, democrat, by a small majority in the Sixth.

The Live Stock Market

South Omaha, Neb., Nov. 2.—Special market letter from Standard Live Stock Commission Co.

The large run at the beginning of this week was somewhat of a surprise as it was generally predicted that receipts would be light. Values held up fairly well and are about steady on desirable kinds. The heavy weight feeders and the common light kinds seem to be suffering the most decline, while the fair to good medium weights are in quite active demand at steady prices. Corned cattle are still very scarce and are full steady. The cows and butcher stock are selling a shade lower than last week.

We quote:
Choice range beef.....$5.25@5.25
Others down to.....4.00
Good range cows and heifers 3.75@4.25
Choice corn fed beef.....7.00@8.00
Common to fair.....5.00@6.00
Corned cows and heifers up to.....5.00
Fair to good.....3.25@4.00
Canners and cutters.....2.25@3.25
Veal calves.....4.50@7.00
Bulls, stags, etc.....2.75@4.50
Prime feeding steers.....4.40@5.50
Others down to.....3.00
Stock heifers.....2.90@3.75

The price of hogs moved up another notch and the light weights are bringing more money on this market than anywhere else. Bulk $7.60 to $7.70, top $7.75.

There is a good liberal run of sheep again this week and killers are slow and decidedly weak. The demand still keeps up for feeders and they are selling around steady prices.

Sale of Herefords.

The attention of our readers is called to the public sale of the Brookmont Herefords at O'Neill, Neb., Thursday, Nov. 18, 1909. There will be 40 head of Hereford cattle in this sale. The best of blood lines are represented and cattle of pronounced individual merit. Those of our readers that have followed Hereford history for the past 20 years are familiar with this herd of cattle. Some of the best sires of the breed have been used in building up this herd and it is conceded that Brookmont Farm has one of the greatest collections of Hereford cattle in the U. S.

They are making this sale at O'Neill on account of having a surplus of cattle on hand with a desire to get acquainted with and extend their trade among the breeders and farmers of Nebraska. This will undoubtedly be the most desirable bunch of Hereford cattle sold in the state of Nebraska this fall. Cows, heifers and bulls. Ask for a catalog which can be had by addressing either Cooks Brookmont Farm, Odebolt, Ia. or R. W. Barclay, Mason City, Ia., the auctioneer in charge of the sale.

Recollections of O'Neill.

When I call up to see you, John, I know my heart a pain will feel To see no more the old time friends That once I knew around O'Neill. They fought life's battle long and well—

What joy 'twould be to meet them all When I come back to see you, John, When harvest days are done some fall!

I hope God's mercy has been shown To those who bade adieu to earth— Those sturdy, patient pioneers, What pen can tell their noble worth!

Not all the heroes die in war: I claim the bravest in the fight Have helped reclaim the stubborn soil. Such men are heroes in God's sight. How oft I wish for old time sake That we a little time might steal And live again the happy lives Which we once knew in dear O'Neill.

State Ticket in Doubt.

The returns from the state indicate the election of the republican candidates for supreme judges by a small majority, although the democrats claim the election of Sullivan.

Chairman Hayward of the republican state committee Thursday morning claimed the three judges by 3,000 to 4,000.

Twenty-two of these were to residents of the state at $1 each and four to non-residents at $10 each. Only two licenses were issued to local sportsmen.

Mrs. John Colbert, one of the pioneer residents of this county, died at her home nine miles northwest of this city Wednesday morning. Mrs. Colbert was about 70 years of age and had been ailing for several months. The funeral will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock, from the Presbyterian church.

ROBT MUELLER SUICIDES

Lone Bachelor Found Dead in His Home Last Sunday.

BULLET HOLE THROUGH HEAD

Thought to Have Left Considerable Wealth, But Hiding Place of Fortune Not Known.

Robert Mueller, an eccentric bachelor and pioneer of the county committed suicide at his home five miles northwest of O'Neill it is believed last Saturday. The dead man was found by a near neighbor, Mrs. Hillard, Sunday forenoon. The body reclined in a rocking chair. A bullet hole through his head and a 38 revolver lying with one empty chamber by the chair indicated that the man had placed the gun to his right temple and fired. The bullet passed clear through his head, struck the wall and dropped to the floor.

Mueller, who was past sixty years of age, had been a resident of this county for twenty-eight or thirty years. He was a native of Germany, where he has relatives, but none here. He had had irrational spells for several years and the people living near him kept watch of his movements, fearing something might happen any time. He had not been well for several weeks and when he was not seen out around the place Sunday morning, Mrs. Hillard, who lives near by, went over to the bachelor's lonely home and found him dead.

The sheriff and coroner and undertaker went out from O'Neill. The body was taken care of by Mr. Biglin while an inquest was held by Dr. Wilson and Sheriff Hall searched the premises for papers and valuables it is believed the dead man left in hiding somewhere. The inquest resulted in a verdict of suicide. The only money found was $4 in silver and a few cents. It is thought he has several thousand dollars in money, notes and bonds secreted away. His total property, including the farm, is estimated at $15,000.

The remains were brought to town and the funeral held Monday at the Biglin undertaking establishment, conducted by Rev. T. S. Watson.

A Good Show.

Recently in the Morning Telegraph, a New York newspaper considered an authority on matters theatrical, there appeared a review of America's most popular plays. Of course, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" headed the list, and then came mention of such old time favorites as "The Old Homestead," "Way Down East," "A Trip to Chinatown," "Shore Acres," "M'liss," "The Danites," and "My Sweetheart." Coming down to the last decade the Morning Telegraph's expert selected "The Music Master," "Ben Hur," "Paid in Full" and "The Farmer's Daughters" as the plays most likely to attain greatest longevity.

"The Farmer's Daughter," which is probably one of the most successful of the present day rural plays, will be the attraction at the Opera House on Wednesday, Nov. 10.

Loses a Hand.

Chambers Bugle: Paul Roth, who lives about twelve miles southwest of Chambers, accidentally shot himself Saturday afternoon. The young man was going after a load of hay and had a shotgun with him. In some manner the gun slipped through the rack and was discharged, the charge of shot entering his left hand.

Mr. Roth was brought to Chambers and Dr. Coleman amputated his hand at the wrist. While the accident is a deplorable one, yet the young man is fortunate that he escaped with his life since several of the shot grazed his face. Mrs. Roth, his mother, was summoned from Columbus, Neb., and is now caring for her son at the Waterman Hotel.

The Ed Butler house that has stood for many years near the old mill race is being moved to the lots west of M. H. McCarthy's residence. The house belongs to Roy Smith's father who has bought two lots up town to move the house onto.

George Davies was up from Deloit today explaining "how it happened." George, a republican, was elected assessor in a democratic precinct by a majority of nine votes. Deloit also gave Grady one vote to the good.

Pat Shea arrived this morning from Buffalo, S. D., and will spend a few days with old friends. Pat says the O'Neill boys in that section are all prospering.

Miles Welch returned to Omaha Monday after a few days visit with friends here.
