RURAL WRITINGS

Items from the country are solicited for this department. Mail or send them in as early in the week as possible; items received later than Wednesday can not be used at all and it is preferred that they be in not later than Tuesday. Always send your name with items, that we may know who they are from. Name of sender not for publication. See that your writing is legible, especially names and places, leaving plenty of space between the lines for correction. Be careful that what you tell about actually occurred.

Starbeams.

Corn shucking has begun with a few.

A giant motor car passed through this vicinity last week.

Miss Gertrude Wells returned home from Newport last week.

Miss Ruth Meredith visited with the Hunter family Saturday and Sunday.

E. E. Cole has the lumber hauled for his new barn but is unable to get a carpenter so far.

Henry Thierolf has purchased property in Creighton, where he will move in the near future.

Mr. Jacobson bought a team at the Sarchett sale Saturday. They are beauties. Al Thierolf and J. P. Newman were also persuaded to stock up in the horse line.

Neptune.

Kola Items.

V. Howarth is expected home from Norfolk this week for a short vacation.

I. L. Shaw and family have left Holt county for their future home in Leach, Tennessee.

William Pfund is helping Riley Bros. this week take cattle to Abion where they have another ranch.

The parents of George and Walter Shermer of Plainview were out here last week visiting their children.

The scholars of district 247 gave a basket social at Kola on Oct. 30th. The children gave a neat little program and after the program the baskets were auctioned off to the highest bidder and netted the school $17.55, which the teacher and pupils handed over to the treasurer for the purpose of having a well dug, as they are very much in need of one.

Disney Items.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hubbard were the guests of Colmer Simonson last Friday evening.

Some of the boys were out and committed their usual hallowe'en pranks last Saturday night, but so far as I on Friday, Oct. 29, a bouncing baby girl.

Louis Schwink went to Wisner on business last Saturday and returned Sunday.

Tuesday was an ideal day and election went off here quiet and smooth as usual.

George Line's father, Levi Lines is here from Keya Paha county visiting relatives.

N. Van Avery is having his house repaired to some extent this fall by building on a large porch.

B. Roe of Ainsworth came down Friday for a short visit with his son Cleave Roe but has returned.

Mrs. Anna Townsend and children were down from O'Neill Saturday visiting with Mrs. William Kelley.

Miss Eggleston, the teacher of the intermediate grades went to Ewing, her home, to visit relatives Saturday, returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coleman of Norfolk, former residents of this place have moved here, where they will make their future home.

A fine line of millinery belonging to Mrs. Fitzsimmons of O'Neill, was displayed at C. A. Van Valkenberg's store last Saturday. We expect them down again next Saturday.

The pupils of the Inman high school will give a program Friday, Nov. 5th at the Clark hall. A basket social will follow the program. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Admission for adults 15 cents, children 10 cents.

Cure Your Dandruff

Why? Because it is annoying, untidy. And mostly, because it almost invariably leads to baldness. Cure it, and save your hair. Get more, too, at the same time. All easily done with Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula. Stop this formation of dandruff!

Formula with each bottle. Show it to your doctor. Ask him about it, then do as he says.

The new Ayer's Hair Vigor will certainly do this work, because, first of all, it destroys the germs which are the original cause of dandruff. Having given this aid, nature completes the cure. The scalp is restored to a perfectly healthy condition.

Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

MINOR MENTION

George Gaughenbaugh had business at Atkinson Tuesday.

Miss Martha Smith spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in Norfolk.

The O'Neill foot ball team went to Atkinson today where they play a game this afternoon.

Dr. Perrigo, registered Optometrist of Omaha, will be here again, Evans Hotel, Nov. 15 only.

Miss Grace O'Sullivan departed last Saturday or Nenzel, where she has a position in the school there.

T. P. Mullen arrived in the city Tuesday from Butte, Mont., and will remain here two or three weeks.

Wm. Spangler came up from Ewing this morning. Will says they have a fine boy at their place, born Monday.

Skillful, honest treatment and moderate prices are guaranteed by Dr. Ferrigo of Omaha. At Evans Hotel, Nov. 15.

Miss Sade Skirving arrived home Saturday after several months spent at Berkley, Cal., and various other Pacific coast points.

Arrange to attend the public sale of registered Hereford cattle to be held at O'Neill, Neb., Thursday Nov. 18, 1909. Read the local write up in another part of this paper regarding the sale.

Aristhiou.

In a small village in Switzerland is a comfortable old inn much frequented by English, and the menu generally includes one dish supposed to be specially British. Though the orthography is peculiar, the meaning is generally obvious—as, for example, "rost bif rotli." "rumsteeck" but "aristhiou de nou-ton a l'Anglois" was puzzling. The first word has a distinctly classical appearance, which suggested a Greek origin. But when the dish appeared the meaning flashed into the guests' minds. "Aristhiou" was the Swiss chef's attempt to render phonetically the words "Irish stew."—Manchester Guardian.

Calumet Baking Powder

A Money Making Scheme. "Yes, I'm working on a money making scheme to remove weeds." "Aha! Gardening?" "No, I'm hoping to marry a rich widow."—New York Telegram.

Think Is Cheap. "I think I shall go to Europe." "How the deuce can you afford to go to Europe?" "I can't, but I can afford to think."—

TO introduce fine materials, clean methods, scientific equipment into the making of soda crackers was one triumph—

To actually bake into them a subtle goodness, a real individuality, never before known, was another triumph—

But to effectually protect them so that the fullest benefit of these fine materials, this careful, cleanly baking, this unique goodness comes to you unaltered, was the crowning triumph that gave the world
