

WINTER GOODS

Men's Underwear, double-breasted front and back, 50c

The season has arrived for the sale of Winter Goods, and I have a store full to dispose of; everything the season requires. The prices and goods are right, and if you doubt my veracity come and inspect my stock, and the prices and quality will verify my statements.

Mens 1 b. and 4 b. overshoes.
Mens "Perfection" all rubber overshoe, leggins and sheep lined shoes.
Mens duck coats, fur coats, sheep lined coats, lined corduroy coats, caps, mittens and sweater coats.

Ladies scarfs and sweaters, leggins, overshoes, gaiters, mittens and furs.
Childrens coats, caps and stocking caps.
Ladies skirts, un- der skirts, underwear of all kinds, J. C. corsets, fleeced and wool hose.

See my fine line of dress goods in all the new shades and colors. All prices, down to 15c yd. Let me show you my $1 line of dress goods. I defy any competition on this line.

Silk waists, Ecu net waists, white net waists, silk patterns, combs, bags, collars and ties.
In underwear I can furnish all sizes and kinds, quality unexcelled.

Chinaware
I have a good line of fancy and hand painted china.

Many things I have not mentioned for want of space, but come in and see my stock and ask for what you don't see

J. P. GALLAGHER

LOCAL MATTERS

Farm Loans, R. H. Parker, O'Neill.
Claude Hancock was at Inman Sunday.
Hides bought at Davidson's harness shop.
James Shanner was up from Page Monday.
Up-to-date job printing at The Frontier.
Elmer Adams was up from Chambers Tuesday.
Try The Frontier for merchants' counter pads.
Subscribe for The Frontier, only $1.50 per year.
M. M. Sullivan had business at Clearwater Sunday.
Highest cash price paid for poultry at McGinnis cream station.
You will find Rock Springs nut coal at P. J. Biglin's coal yard.
Frank Lorge of Randolph spent Sunday in the city visiting relatives.
I have eastern Money to Loan on farms and ranches. See R. H. Parker, O'Neill.
Will pay the highest market price for hides and poultry.—The New Meat Market.
The Misses Cecilia Holland and Nellie Ryan visited relatives in Omaha the first of the week.
The masons have the cement work done and foundation laid of C. B. Scott's new house on First and Everett streets.
M. J. Hyde came down from Wood Lake Monday morning to visit the "boys" and incidently look after some business matters.
A. F. Mullen managed to take enough time from his onerous duties as state oil inspector to make his weekly visit to O'Neill last Sunday.
Judge Malone issued marriage licenses yesterday to Vern S. Nichols of Neligh and Estella M. Prosser of Ewing and to Floyd E. Cole of Brunswick and Hattie M. Dawson of Ewing.

A violin for Christmas will bring joy in your old age, buy them at Graves.
Evangelical Lutheran church services at Golden's Hall, Sunday Dec. 5, at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Geo. H. Tiefel.
The smile of a rose should bring joy to the saddest heart, buy your wedding ring of Graves.
A handsome one-eighth plus one-sixteenth diamond ring given away New Years day. Enquire about it at Graves' jewelry store.
T. W. Donahoe, one of the pioneers of Creighton, Neb., was an O'Neill visitor Monday last renewing acquaintances made here some twenty-five years ago.
The Royal Highlanders will hold their regular meeting on Monday evening, December 6. Election of officers and initiation class. Members are requested to attend the meeting.—Mrs. Fanny Gallagher, Secretary.
W. C. McNamara of Long Pine, who has gained considerable notoriety in Nebraska and Iowa the past year on account of a divorce petition filed by his wife and the fight he has made thereon, was in the city last Saturday.
The station price for cream all over this part of the county is 27 cents but the McGinnis Creamery Co is paying 28 cents and have made the price one cent better all summer. Every cream patron should patronize this home creamery.
The Kirksmith Sisters company is one of the most interesting and unique organizations in the United States. It is composed of four finished and artistic musicians, all sisters. They have been playing together since childhood. Hear them at the opera house, December 4.
Among the list of prize winners in the Nebraska Board of Agriculture boys' acre corn contest the name of David Adams of Dustin is noted, who was twelfth in the list with 60 bushels and 19 pounds to the acre. The first prize was won by Wm. A. Wiese of West Point who made a showing of 113 bushels and 58 pounds to the acre.

A kodak for a Christmas present will win you a home, Graves sells them.
"The Christmas gift that you alone can give." There can be nothing better than a photo. See Phelps for the special Xmas styles.
Competent dramatic critics have declared that of the two shows the Missouri Girl and Old Arkansaw, both written by the same author, it is difficult to decide which of the two characters, Zeke of the Missouri Girl or Jeremiah Snodgrass of Old Arkansaw, is the more laughable.
George L. Van Dyke of Des Moines, Iowa, assistant superintendent of the division of salaries and allowances of the postoffice department, was in the city Monday to view the new post office building. Mr. Van Dyke expressed himself as highly gratified with the building and equipment and accepted the same on behalf of the government.
The "tough" days seem not to be all over at Valentine yet. Cherry county will probably have a big murder case on at the next term of court as the result of a quarrel which terminated in a tragedy Tuesday of last week. Ed Bell shot and killed Charles McArthur at the side door of a saloon from which they had just emerged. Both men belonged to a railroad construction crew working near Valentine.
Spencer Advocate: John Dailey and family left this week for Tripp county, South Dakota. They will make their residence on a claim near Lamro. Mr. Dailey was formerly in business in Spencer and while a member of the firm of Coffey & Dailey, held a prominent place in the business circle of our little city. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dailey regret to see them leave here, but wish them success and happiness in their new home.
Elgin Review: O. W. Baker and family of O'Neill came down Wednesday on a visit at the home of F. E. DeWitt and family, and with the Baker boys southwest of town. Mr. Baker was a former resident of Antelope county, but for several years has resided in Holt, and is now engaged in the real estate business. He says that like many other places, real estate and especially farm land is advancing rapidly in the O'Neill neighborhood.
This world renowned Kirksmith Sisters will present the first program of the Tuesday Club entertainment series, on Saturday evening, December 4, at the K. C. opera house. These young ladies present a program as varied as it is excellent. Their ensemble work possesses an amount of harmony and volume that would mark as a great success a musical organization with two or three times as many players. Besides, there are violin and flute solos, viola and flute duets, and vocal solos and duets. This company was one of the features of the Pawnee City chautauqua, and the Pawnee City Chief says this of them: "This is one of the best companies which has ever visited Pawnee City and the chautauqua cannot do better than secure their services for next season." At the opera house, Saturday, December 4.

Old Arkansaw is a pretty play, filled with rollicking, humorous characters. There is not a dull moment in the play. To descend to slang, "There's something doin' all the while."
Monday last O. W. Baker made a deal by which he becomes local manager for the Standard Oil company, Mr. Waldron, who has had charge of the business since last spring, retiring. Mr. Baker will continue to devote his time to the real estate business and will have Frank Smith run the oil wagon.
The university of Nebraska is taking many honors at the International Live Stock show at Chicago. Its students were fifth in the students' judging contest. The state university of California won the championship in Galloways. Nebraska university cattle took first in junior 2-year-old grades and cross breeds, second in Aberdeen Angus, class 150; first for Hereford steer or heifer, 1 year and under 2.
The postoffice was moved to the new quarters last Sunday and the mail delivered there for the first time after the arrival of the 4:05 train. It is about as fine a layout in the postoffice line as can be found anywhere and as far as it goes is as good as the government buildings in large cities. The building is nicely finished and the bright, new fixtures make it an attractive as well as comfortable and commodious office.
Governor Shallenberger has appointed the following delegates to attend the National Conference on Union Legislation at Washington, D. C., January 5, 6 and 7: Chief Justice M. B. Reese, Lincoln; W. G. Hastings, Lincoln; John L. Webster, Omaha; Ralph W. Breckenridge, Omaha; C. S. Montgomery, Omaha; George W. Tibbets, Hastings; M. F. Harrington, O'Neill; Charles G. Ryan, Grand Island; J. L. McIntosh, Sidney; Alfred Hazlett, Beatrice; F. M. Hall, Lincoln.
Maud Kirksmith is a wonderful violin player, besides being a most successful contralto singer. Gertrude Kirksmith is a genius of unusual versatility. She is a great violinist and has a wonderful soprano voice. Lillian Kirksmith is recognized as the greatest lady flute player in the world. Agnes Kirksmith, pianist and accompanist, fills her part of the program with a skill that would do credit to a finished musician of many years longer experience than she has had. At the opera house, Saturday, December 4.
Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Halloran came up from Inman Monday, remaining over night. Mr. and Mrs. Halloran returned last week to their home at Inman after several weeks of travel and visiting with their daughters in this state and Colorado and they say they had a fine time. They have leased their farm and have settled down in town now and will take things easy in the future. Mr. and Mrs. Halloran were among the pioneers of the county and The Frontier is glad to know of them being able to settle down in ease and comfort to pass their declining years.

Rodell Root was down from Amelita Tuesday.
Taken up at my place 8 miles north and 1 mile west of O'Neill, about Nov 10, a white face cow, dulap has gash cut out.—J. E. Harding.
A better Old Arkansaw, a funnier Jeremiah, a gawker Mary Slocum, a cutter Jim and a more winsome Sue than ever with Old Arkansaw this season.
Chas H. Head of McAllister, Oklahoma, was in the city Monday looking after business matters and visiting at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Finnegan.
To those who have laughed at and with Zeke and Daisy of The Missouri Girl, we will say that another treat is in store for you when Old Arkansaw comes to the opera house on December 6th.
Dave Thomas of Sturgis, S. D., one of the leading attorneys in that portion of the state, was in the city the first of the week visiting his brother, J. J. Thomas. Mr. Thomas was for some three years U. S. Land commissioner located at Wasta, S. D., and he says that the best indication of the prosperity of western South Dakota is in the fact that relinquishments to desirable farms in that portion of the state will cost about $20 per acre when they could have been bought two years ago for about $200 per quarter.

I will give $1 to the person that brings me the two largest ears of corn. R. H. Parker, Land Agent, O'Neill.
Mrs. Leavitt, Mr. Bryan's daughter, was greeted by a fair-sized audience at the court-house Thanksgiving evening and her lecture was well received by O'Neill people.
F. J. Pratt, editor of the Humphreys Democrat and who holds a job as deputy revenue collector under Arthur F. and Governor Shallenberger, was in the city last Friday on business and managed to find time enough to make a fraternal call at these headquarters.
William Hunter of Rock Port Mo., and son W. V. Hunter were callers at The Frontier this morning previous to their departure for home on the 10:05 Northwestern. Mr. Hunter has bought the Cronin ranch eight miles north of town. His son will move here some time during the winter and take charge of the ranch, which is one of the best places in the county. Mr. Hunter and his son are pleasant gentlemen to meet, republicans politically, and we are glad they have become interested in Holt county real estate.

Christmas Gifts

We are unquestionably the best equipped we ever have been for the holiday season. It is impossible to tell you through the newspapers all of the splendid display of Christmas goods we have this year; it is equally impossible for you to fail to find just what you want for presents if you look over our magnificent assortments, and if you don't know what you want it is our business to assist you in making selections.

We call special attention to the fact that we have the largest assortment of China and Cut Glass in the city. Silverware, fancy novelties, toys, books, post cards, etc.

The RACKET STORE

Remember we always sell at the lowest price. F. BOWEN

A Nice, Neat and Complete

LINE OF

Holiday Goods

Toys, Dolls and all the holiday attractions for the little folks.

MAGNIFICENT LINE OF Holiday Stationery, Books, China and Fancy Novelties.

B. A. HARDING