

ANNUAL JANUARY CLEARING SALE

Monday, January 10, 1910.

10 Per Cent Discount on
Rubbers

J. P. Mann & Co.

10 Per Cent Discount on
Fur Coats

We cannot give the closing date of this sale but would advise early purchases in all lines as the quantities are limited. 20 per cent discount will be given on all lines not otherwise mentioned.

LADIES' COATS

We have some very choice coats in black and fancies, fitted and semi-fitted, that will be sold at prices within the reach of any purse.

LADIES' SWEATERS

Three quarter length all wool $2.75, sale price $2.20

MEN'S AND BOY'S CLOTHING.

If you need a suit or overcoat don't fail to see what we have as we can save you not only 20 per cent that we give but from $3 to $5 in values over any line of clothing carried in the county.

BLANKETS AND COMFORTERS

Good wool blankets, in grey and white $3 to $7.98. Hand made, yarn tied, white batting comforters sale price $1.75 to $3.98. Machine sewed, unbleached batting comforters 90c to $1.40.

KNIT SKIRTS.

Black and colors in a good quality, three quarter length $2, now $1.60.

BABY COATS

What we have left in this line will go at greatly reduced prices.

UNDERWEAR

We have underwear for every member of the family and while the line is now unbroken this is one of the lines that is sure to be the first to go at these prices during this sale. Men's underwear from $1 to $3.20. Ladies' 52c to $2.10. Misses 24 to 87c. Boy's 52c to $1.20.

LADIES' SKIRTS.

Now is the time to get a skirt for the early spring wear as our late shipments will give you a chance to get the very latest styles in both goods and make.

50 Per Cent Discount.

We have about 20 skirts in heavy materials and odd sizes that we will sell at the above discount.

GROCERIES are not included in this sale.

LOCAL MATTERS

Write it 1910.
Happy New Year.
Farm Loans, R. H. Parker, O'Neill.
Hides bought at Davidson's harness shop. 23f
Up-to-date job printing at The Frontier.
H. A. Allen was down from Atkinson Monday.
W. P. O'Brien of Atkinson was in the city Tuesday.
Don't forget the New Year's ball at the K. C. hall on January 3.
Try my Barrington Hall coffee at 30c a lb.—J. P. Gallagher. 25-
I sell Barrington Hall coffee for 30c per lb. Try it.—J. P. Gallagher. 25-
Romaine Saunders left yesterday morning on a business trip to Wheeler county.
I have eastern Money to Loan on farms and ranches. See R. H. Parker, O'Neill. 23-6
The December apportionment for the Hole county schools amounts to $3,490.83.
Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Ryan of Stuart spent Sunday in the city visiting relatives.
Iva Lorge came up from Randolph Monday night for a few days visit with relatives.
The smile of a rose should bring joy to the saddest heart, buy your wedding ring of Graves. 29-5
Mrs. M. V. Nicholson of Valentine is in the city, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Dr. P. J. Flynn.
Miss Foster, of the public schools, went to her home at Lincoln last Friday to spend the holidays.
Dr. Corbett Dentist, in O'Neill every Monday (except the fourth one in each month) four days each trip. 14f
List your places with me to sell; I sold four places in one week. R. H. Parker, Land Agent, O'Neill. 23-6
I will give $1 to the person that brings me the two largest ears of corn.—R. H. Parker, Land Agent, O'Neill.
Edward Gallagher and Hugh Birmingham went to Neligh Tuesday afternoon to spend a few days visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Mullen and children came up from Lincoln last week to spend Christmas with relatives here.
M. S. Canover, one of The Frontier readers from Dustin, was a pleasant caller at these headquarters Monday afternoon.
Ed Gallagher, Hugh Birmingham and John Mullen, who are attending the state university, are home for the holidays.
Tom Nolan came up from Fremont last Thursday, where he has been attending Normal, to spend Christmas with his parents.
William Geilish left Monday afternoon for Burlington, Iowa, where he will spend a few days visiting at the home of his mother.
Mike O'Sullivan came up from Omaha last week to spend a few days visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. D. P. O'Sullivan.
John Dwyer, who is studying medicine at Creighton University came home last Friday to spend Christmas with his parents.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ryan were called to St. Joseph, Mo., last Friday by a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mrs. Ryan's mother.
Mrs. John Daley left for Spencer Monday morning where she expects to spend the winter visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. J. Coffey.
Peter, Brownie and Ferd Ward, who are studying law at Creighton University came up Christmas to spend the holidays with relatives.
Miss Swanson, one of the teachers in the public schools, left for her home at Oakdale last Friday morning to spend Christmas with her parents.
Miss C. A. Gorby, superintendent of the public schools, left for Lincoln last Friday morning to spend the Christmas vacation with relatives.
For Sale—A certificate calling for four weeks' tuition in the Wayne Normal. Will sell cheap. Further particulars can be obtained at this office.
Prof. Patrick Barrett, principal of the Greeley schools, arrived in the city last Friday to spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Barrett, south of the city.

Rev. Father Bernard Harrington of Swanzil, Wales, was here last week visiting at the home of his cousin, T. D. Harrington, northeast of this city.
Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Coffey and children of Spencer spent Christmas in the city visiting at the homes of Mr. Coffey's parents and Mrs. Coffey's mother.
Dr. John Gallagher of St. Louis arrived in the city last Thursday evening to eat Christmas dinner at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Gallagher.
Arthur Duffy, who is now holding down a lucrative position in an Omaha drug store, came up last Friday evening to spend a few days visiting old-time friends.
Bryan Cosgriff of Grand Island, Nebr., arrived in the city last Friday evening to spend the Christmas holidays at the home of his brother-in-law, L. L. Mandeville.
Charles Reka and Daniel O'Connor came home last Friday from Omaha, where they are attending Creighton university, to spend the holiday vacation with their parents.
For sale cheap and on reasonable terms, a comfortable six room house and two acres of splendid land, good well, numerous out buildings, an ideal home for a retired farmer.—C. M. Daly, O'Neill, Neb. 27-3
P. A. Grass, one of The Frontier's old-time readers from Page, was a caller at these headquarters last Tuesday and extended his subscription to this household necessity another year.
Julia Mandeville, who is teaching school at Grand Island, Nebr., arrived home last Friday evening to spend the Christmas vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Mandeville, northeast of this city.
J. F. Handley, who is studying law in Creighton University, came up last Friday to spend the Christmas holidays at home. J. F. will finish his studies next spring and as soon as he receives his sheepskin will at once enter upon the practice of his chosen profession, and that he will meet with unlimited success is the wish of his many O'Neill friends.

JANUARY Clearing Sale

Commencing Saturday, January 1, and continuing for two weeks, I will give the following Discounts:

Men's Clothing	20 per cent Off
Men's Overcoats	20 per cent off
Boy's Clothing	20 per cent off
Boy's Overcoats	20 per cent off
Men's and Boy's Shoes	20 per cent off
Ladies Cloaks	20 to 50 per cent off
Misses and Children's cloaks	20 to 50 per cent off
Ladies' Cravenettes	20 to 50 per cent off
Dress Goods	20 to 33 1-3 per cent off
Prints, Percales and Outings	20 per cent off
Rugs and Door Mats	20 per cent off
My Entire Stock of Underwear	20 per cent off
Tailored Suits	20 per cent off
Comforters and Blankets	20 per cent off
Night Robes	20 per cent off

P. J. McManus