Let's see, next fall is the congressional campaign. About time to organize some new sort of government ownership clubs.

A man may become superannuated, but he is in trim for new matrimonial experiences most any time. John L.
Sullivan, having divorced the wife of his youth, has just taken a bride.

There are some five or six democratic aspirants for the Nebraska senatorial toga. It remains to be seen whether the democratic preachments of a fair field for all or the machine tactics will prevail.

The publisher of the World-Herald has not shown any indications of retiring from the contest for the senate because his paper opposes the further existence of the "American house of lords," or for other reasons.

Commenting on a new appointment on the board of management of the state schools for the blind and deaf, lately made by Governor Shallenberger, the Bee notes it was a democrat, and adds: "The cry of nonpartisan-ship emanates from democratic sources only when it can be used to get a place occupied by a republican vacated in favor of a democrat."

President Diaz of Mexico has come into momentary prominence through his somewhat sensational order to his men to blow up their vessel with all on board if Americans attempted to take from them the notorious Zeyala who is to find refuge in the Mexican capitol. This may be the Mexican idea of heroism, but it sounds more like an order from the king to commit suicide.

For some sufficient reason the railroads have not attempted in this state to knock out the 2-cent passenger law enacted by the last republican legislature, although in nearly all other states where similar laws were enacted the law has been either declared unconstitutional or tied up in court, the last to enter the list being Oklahoma. Is the Nebraska law so framed that railroads believe that an attack upon it would be futile?

The date on the calendar does not matter. The earth starts every morning on its year-long journey round the sun as truly as on the first day of January, says the Youth's Companion, and each new dawn is therefore a fresh opportunity to begin right. It is for us to determine what the year shall be. The demand upon us is not that we shall succeed, but only that we try; and to try manfully every day and all day long is inevitably to attain in the end supreme success.

Internationally perhaps the most important gathering of recent years was held the past week at Baltimore, Md., when there was organized the American Society for the Settlement of International disputes. The society proposes to conduct a campaign of education throughout the world and show that the peace of the world may be maintained by an international court where points of dispute between nations shall be amenable to judicial review the same as differences between individuals. The movement has the support of leading men of this country, including President Taft and members of his cabinet. No doubt a vast majority of the inhabitants of the earth would prefer no more wars, but the power of arms has been the court of last resort throughout the ages and no adequate substitute has yet been found, largely because it is an inherent principle of human nature for a man to fight for what he considers his rights. If an international court should develop from the present movement, it should be made a part of the agreement that the armies of all nations be mustered out of service and the navies turned into merchant fleets.

The Brown County Democrat is opposed to the "special agent" syst m now in vogue in the government land service and thinks homesteaders are being harassed beyond reason. The picture the democrat draws may be a little exaggerated, but there is considerable truth in it just the same. In speaking of the homesteader making final proof after five years' residence, the Democrat continues: "Then appears upon the scene that wonderful creation of the interior department, a special agent. The latter 'investigates' the case, nine times out of ten seeking out the known enemies of the homesteader and collects 'evidence' of them. The homesteader and his friends are not sought. When the contest is heard those present get a life sized view of 'justice' as dealt out by the special envoy of this great and glorious government. The man whose claim is contested, must stand all the expense of his defense while Uncle Sam pays the expense of the contestant. A few minutes in the court room will convince the most skeptical that the whole thing resembles a farce. The agent devotes his time bulldozing and badgering the homesteader and his witnesses. In a recent contest held here the man whose claim was in question was kept on the witness stand for eight hours, while the special agent ranted and roared, raged, swore and otherwise conducted himself like a bully. To listen to his rantings one would be led to think the homesteader had committed murder. Thus does Uncle Sam tender a square deal to men who seek to make homes for themselves. The government is certainly in big business when it takes up one side of a neighborhood quarrel, as it has done on innumerable occasions in Brown county, and the sooner it ties a can to some of its special agents the sooner conditions will be bettered."

Methodist Church Items.
At the Methodist church next Sunday the usual services will be held.
At 10 a. m. class meeting, led by Mrs.
O. O. Snyder. If you wish to begin the Sabbath day right, come out to this service.

At 10:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., sermon by the pastor. We will take for the subject of our morning discourse, "The Transfiguration of Christ", and for our evening theme, "A Reliable Witness." To these services we most cordially invite everybody. We are always glad to welcome the strangers who come to worship with us.

Sunday school at the close of our morning service. Our school is both interesting and helpful and everybody is invited to tarry for the study of God's Word. We have just the place for you, my friend.

Junior League service Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. We most cordially invite all boys and girls to this service.

Epworth League service Sunday evening at 7:45, led by Miss Fanny Millard. We are having most excellent League services now and extend a cordial invitation to all young people to attend and take part in this service.
While this is a young peoples' meeting yet we are pleased to have any others, who wish to do so, come in with us.

Prayer meeting every Thursday evening at 7:30. We endeavor to make this an interesting and a helpful service, and are always glad to have our friends come in and worship with us.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet every Tuesday afternoon, in the class room, all ladies of the church and congregation are invited to meet with them.

T. S. Watson, Pastor.

Charles Berger made a flying trip to town last Thursday.

F. A. Hatch and J. R. Thomas went to town on business last Wednesday.

We are having some splendid weather now. Everybody will rejoice to see the snow go off.

Mrs. Grace Berger arrived home from Omaha a week ago last Sunday, where she had been on a visit to her folks.

Halley's comet is due to appear visible to the naked eye about Feb. 21, and will be observed till May according to the daily papers.

Guy Young paid seventy cart wheels for a new buggy. Guy always has a proper regard for the pleasure of the girls and he thinks a bran new buggy is none to good to take them out riding in. If you doubt that, just keep your eye on his trail on Sunday and you will be convinced.

Mrs. Leeper arrived at the home of Colmer Simonson a week ago last Friday night to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Gertie Simonson. Ironsides

The annual township meeting will be held a month earlier this year.
The last legislature changed the date from the first Tuesday in April to the first Tuesday in March. On account of the scarcity of the new statutes this fact is not generally known to the public and is published for the information of township officers and electors. The new law requires the same notice as to the time and place of meeting as formerly.

E. H. Whelan,
County Attorney.

Colds on the Chest

Ask your doctor the medical name for a cold on the chest.
He will say, "Bronchitis."
Ask him if it is ever serious.
Lastly, ask him if he prescribes Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for this disease. Keep in close touch with your family physician.

When you tell your doctor about the bad taste in your mouth, loss of appetite for breakfast, and frequent headaches, and when he sees your coated tongue, he will say, "You are bilious." Ayer's Pills work well in such cases.
Made by the J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.
