J. H. McPharlin was up from his ranch in Swan township Monday. Jim says things are prosperous in his section of the county and several of the Kinkaiders have been offered good prices for their farms.
W. J. Driscoll, Paul T. Sturges and Charles Gardner, of the engineering corps of the Burlington railroad, were in the city first of the week, getting things in shape for the extension to the gravel pit northwest of town.
Religious services will be held in the school house in district 194, next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Sermon by Rev. T. S. Watson, of O'Neill. Sunday school will be given at 2 o'clock. Everybody is cordially invited.
A good-sized delegation of fans and fannettes were down from Atkinson Sunday to see the O'Neill team get cleaned by the "coons". In the crowd at the park were also noticed several residents of the hustling village of Inman.
Guy Green was up from his ranch the first of the week with a load of "spuds" for the local market. Guy raised some of the finest potatoes it has been our good fortune to eat and he found a ready market for those he brought to the city.
Edward Larson was in from Meek Tuesday and called at this office to extend his subscription. Mr. Larson and his brother, Charlie, shipped a carload of corn fed steers to Omaha Tuesday that were the finest looking beef steers seen in this city for many days.
Last Monday Mr. and Mrs. Dan Harrington sold their residence northeast of town to James Cameron who has taken possession. Consideration $1050. Mr. Harrington will build a residence on two acres he owns in the eastern part of town, south of the Mann residence.
Thomas and Michael Flannery arrived in the city Monday evening from County Sligo, Ireland, and will make their future home with their aunt, Mrs. D. A. Doyle. The trip across the water was made in six days and two days from New York to O'Neill.
There is nothing more terrifying nor where people are more utterly helpless to protect themselves than during a thunder storm. Let me protect your lives and property at a small cost by rodding your buildings with Shinn's Pure Copper rods.—Frank Campbell. 45-2
Alleging cruel treatment Mary Roseler has filed a petition in the district court asking for a divorce from Henry Roseler. They were married in this city in 1904. Plaintiff alleges that defendant has property valued at $11,000 and she prays for a divorce and reasonable alimony.
For Sale—I offer for sale my residence in O'Neill. The house contains eleven rooms, with two good cellars under it, furnace and all modern conveniences, three lots, with bearing fruit trees, small fruit, shrubbery and flowers. Will give some one a good bargain if taken at once.—E. P. Hicks. 43-1f
J. A. Donohoe, Rev. O'Sullivan, T. J. Coyne, J. W. Hiber and Frank Campbell, jr., went to Creighton last Sunday morning in Senator Donohoe's automobile to attend a K. O. initiation. The trip over was made in two hours and fifteen minutes, the boys returning home Monday forenoon.
An old newspaper man who has lately gone into the photographing business says: "I find that photographers rarely advertise, but I'm to old a newspaper man not to believe in it for everything. I'd advertise if I were running a cemetery—quiet rooms, clean beds and plenty of free heat.
A force of men and teams are at work on the roadbed between the Burlington station and their gravel pit northwest of town. They expect to have the work completed and the track laid in about four weeks. As soon as the track is laid to the gravel pit they will commence ballasting the road between here and Sioux City and will lay heavy steel thereon, making this branch as good a piece of roadbed as they have in any portion of the state.

Postmaster Josiah Coombs and Dr. H. A. Skelton of Spencer were in the city Tuesday as witnesses in the Hunt will contest case. They started over in an automobile but broke a rear axle when about eight miles from town. They issued a distress call and a machine went out from town and brought them in.
F. J. Manchester of Turner was in this city last Friday on his return from Omaha where he had been with a carload of fat cattle. His cattle topped the market the day they were on sale, he receiving $84 per head for two year old steers. A few carloads of that quality of stock would put a man on easy street.
Underneath the balcony he played his light guitar. The moon was aloft like a silver boat in the sea-blue depths ajar, but no one from the lattice peeped to answer to his ardent wishes. His love, his adored one, where was she? Why, back there just where she ought to be—in the kitchen washing dishes!
Dan D. Harrington went down to Elgin Tuesday morning to spend a few days visiting his sister. He returned this afternoon and leaves this evening for Valentine where he has accepted a position in the grocery department of a large store. His many O'Neill friends wish him success and happiness in his new home.
F. J. Biglin, H. D. Grady, P. J. O'Malley, Lawrence O'Malley, William Armstrong, W. J. Hartly and Harry Campbell, went over to Creighton last Sunday to attend the Knights of Columbus meeting at which fifty candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the order. They returned home Monday evening.
Little Billy was listening to his father telling of Rockefeller and his millions, and said: "I've seen him lots of times." "Why no you haven't, Billy," said his mother. "He's the great Standard Oil millionaire." "Yep, I know it," said Billy. "I see him go by our house often drivin' his oil wagon what has his name on it."
John McBride, who has been teaching art in the public schools of Superior, Wisconsin, the past year has been re-elected to the position for the ensuing year at a good sized increase in salary. This is proof of the fact that John has made good in his chosen profession and is entitled to the congratulations of his friends on his success.
The Swine department of the 1910 State Fair, Sept. 5th to 9th, will contain a fine showing of Poland China, Berkshire, Duroc, Chester White, Hampshire, Large Horshire and Tamworth hogs. The prices now obtained for swine will make this show one of extreme value, and Superintendent G. A. Leonard of Pawnee City is busy assigning pens to those making early applications.
State oil inspector Mullen was in town again last week. Many people believe that the office of oil inspector is the biggest "easy thing" in the state. Mr. Mullen is able to spend about half of his time looking after his law business in this city while he draws a salary of $2,000 per annum from the state of Nebraska. Besides his salary he gets about $300 per annum for expenses. Most people would call this a snap.
The heavy frost that visited this section last week was quite general, from Wisconsin on the north down to southern Missouri, and press reports state that the loss to the fruit crop will run into millions. In Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, South Dakota, Wisconsin and Michigan the entire fruit crop has been wiped out and in Missouri and Indiana about half the crop was caught by the frost. The man who does not have to depend on a fruit crop for a living is fortunate this year.
P. F. Ward, J. F. Hanley, J. J. Boyle and Hugh Boyle are former O'Neill boys who are members of the Creighton law school graduating class who receive their diplomas next Friday night. Hugh Boyle was a member of the O'Neill ball team two years ago and if he follows the law business with the same energy that he tackled difficult ones around the third base corner is sure to make a success of it. The other boys are old time O'Neillites and their many friends here hope that they will be successful in their chosen vocation.
Peter Greeley of Phenix was in the city Tuesday, being called here as a witness in the Hunt will contest case. While in the city Mr. Greeley was a caller at these headquarters and extended his subscription to the Frontier. Mr. Greeley has the largest orchard in Holt county, having, during the past five years, yearly sold several hundred bushel of apples. The frost the past two weeks has killed the most promising crop he ever had as the trees were loaded down with blossoms. He will probably have a few this year but the amount will hardly worth speaking about.

The securing of reversals in the supreme court is getting to be a weekly occurrence with Attorney Dickson. His latest victory in the supreme court was the divorce case of Mary McNamara vs. W. F. McNamara, tried in Dakota county in the summer of 1908, which has been reversed and remanded back for trial. After a bitterly contested suit Mrs. McNamara was granted a divorce, the custody of their children and alimony. Mr. Dickson was not in the case during the trial in the district court but was afterwards employed to carry the case to the supreme court with the above result.
Arthur Ryan and Jack McKenna returned from Omaha Sunday evening where they went last Friday in order to get a view of Jack Johnson the colored heavyweight fighter. The boys seen Jeffries when he was in Omaha a couple of months ago and in order to get the right "dope" on the big fight they thought it advisable to go to Omaha to see the coon. The "nigger" evidently impressed the boys very favorably as Ryan is of the opinion that there will be nothing to the big fight on July Fourth but the colored man. He says he is very fast on his feet and a very clever boxer and the showing he made in Omaha impressed the lovers of the fist game much more favorably than Jeffries did when he appeared in Omaha.
Mrs. Sarah Gallagher, aged 70 years, died at her home in this city Wednesday afternoon, after an illness of several years. Deceased was one of the pioneers of this county, having moved here with her husband, Edward Gallagher, about 34 years ago and settled upon a home east northwest of O'Neill, where they resided until they moved to this city a few years ago. She leaves an aged husband and four children to mourn her demise. The children are: Andrew, of Laurel, Neb.; Mrs. Bates of Denver, Mrs. Chausse of South Dakota, and Mrs. James Crowley of this city, all of whom were present when the end came. The funeral will be held at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning, from the Catholic church.
A delegation of Atkinson business men were before the county board yesterday afternoon urging them to have reinstalled in the court house the telephones removed on April 1. The petitioners urged the great accommodation to the people in the various parts of the county, away from the county seat, the court house phones were. The board were finally appointed as a committee to meet with the manager of the Holt County Telephone Company to see if satisfactory arrangements could be made to have the telephones installed until the next regular meeting of the board when the matter would be settled. The delegation from Atkinson consisted of: Dell Akin, F. H. Swingley, Mose Campbell, E. J. Mack, J. E. Brooks and J. J. Stilson.
O'Neill is to have a modern up-to-date brick depot on the Northwestern to replace the one destroyed by fire a couple of weeks ago. This information was conveyed in a letter to Mayor O. F. Biglin from F. Walter, general manager of the Northwestern system. Immediately after the fire a petition from the business men of the city was sent to Mr. Walters urging the company to build a brick or cement station here when they rebuild. On Friday Mr. Biglin received a letter from Mr. Walters, in which he says: "We are agreeable to your suggestion, and expect to get started at an early date." The Northwestern has only frame stations at points along the line and O'Neill will be the first town on the line to have a brick building, and the action of the railroad officials in agreeing to put up a good substantial structure here in the place of the one destroyed will be appreciated by the citizens of this city.
"Bill" Bunton, who has occupied a room in the hotel Grady the past month, awaiting trial for having appropriated the property of several Holt county citizens without first obtaining permission, escaped from the county jail early Friday morning. John Horrisky has been sleeping in the jail the past month or so, looking after the prisoners. When he retired to his slumbers last Friday night Bill was secure in his cell, but when he awoke in the morning the honorable William had taken his departure, and so far has not been heard from. In some manner Bill got a hold of John's pants, abstracted the key to the cell, unlocked the door and walked away. John is very fortunate that Bill left his trousers. While sheriff Grady has so far failed to get any word as to the whereabouts of the escaped prisoner it is only a question of a few days until he is apprehended as Bill has acquired some habits that will not allow him to stay in obscurity very long.

The board of supervisors met in special session last Tuesday for the purpose of trying to settle the claim of George Miles for publishing the scavenger tax list. As the case is still in court, Miles not having dismissed his case against the county, the board were of the opinion that they did not have jurisdiction in the matter, although some of them thought it might be settled without having another trial. Attorney Harrington appeared before the board in behalf of Miles while County Attorney Whelan and R. R. Dickson appeared in behalf of the county. Mr. Harrington thought that Miles should receive about eighty per cent of the amount of the claim he filed, which would be about $3,200. The attorneys for the county contended that under the decision of the supreme court that Miles was entitled to only the ACTUAL expense sustained by him in having said notice set up in Sioux City and the expense of his trip there. This view of the matter was evidently taken by the board and they asked Miles to file an itemized statement of the expense of said notice, which he refused to do. Instead of filing the information sought by the board he addressed them a letter that has no bearing on the matter in controversy and is as amusing a document as ever went before the county board. The board finally instructed the county attorney to take depositions from the parties who performed the work in Sioux City and ascertain the actual cost, and the matter will be taken up again at the next meeting on June 10.

I am agent for the Jones pit or pitless scales, 3 to 5 ton or over, wood or steel frame, as you desire. The scales are set up and can be seen and inspected in front of Biglin's coal yard. Every scale sold by Jones is guaranteed to give satisfaction if set up according to instructions. If you don't know me ask for Paddy, Patsy or P. J. Biglin, the coal man. 45-1f
The comet is now visible to those who get up early enough.

THE RATS WIN.
An interesting and exciting ball game was played at the ball park last Sunday afternoon between the O'Neill team and the The Tennessee Rats, a colored aggregation that is touring the state. The crowd was the largest seen on the O'Neill diamond in over a year, notwithstanding the heavy wind and the chilly air. The strong chilly wind made it almost impossible to play good ball and errors were numerous on both sides, those of the local team proving the more costly. On account of the absence of Jack Foreman, who was slated to do the twirling for the locals, Kirkland of Atkinson, mounted the rubber. He performed fairly good until the fourth inning when a few errors were followed by three hits and the colored gentlemen were able to score three runs. This seemed to discourage Kirkland and the rest of the team as they were only able to score one run in their half of the fourth, the score then standing six to two against them. In the fifth inning the boys started a batting rally and four good clean hits followed by a couple of errors netted them four runs and the game was a tie. Hugh Coyne mounted the rubber in the fifth and, except in the seventh, was not scored against. In the fifth a couple of dumb plays allowed the "coons" to score twice and win the game as the locals were unable to score after the fifth. The colored men play a good game, being especially good on team work and were able to "nab" a few of the boys on second and with favorable weather should put up a swell game. The locals were affected by the wind and cold being unable to judge a fly ball and apparently unable to handle the ball when they got their hands on it. The coons are coming back next Sunday and a good fast game can be looked for, providing the weather conditions are favorable. The score: O'Neill.....1 0 0 1 4 0 0 0—6. Rats.....0 2 1 3 0 2 0 0—8. Hits: O'Neill 8, Rats 9. Batteries: O'Neill, Kirkland, Coyne and Alberts. Rats: Jackson and Wilson.
