 What's the matter with a few of the old-timers of '07 and '08 getting together and organizing a ball team and putting the town upon the baseball map again this year.
 John P. Gray of Des Moines, Iowa, representing the Chamberlain Medicine company of Des Moines Iowa, was a business caller at these headquarters last Tuesday.
 Ed. McBride is building a substantial addition to his residence on Benton street and when completed Mr. McBride will have one of the most imposing residences on this street of handsome homes.
 John Rush of Omaha, national bank examiner, was in the city Tuesday checking up the O'Neill National and the First National. It is needless to say that he found these institutions in splendid condition.
 Splendid rains visited this county last Thursday night, Friday, Friday night and Saturday. About two inches of water fell and it placed the crops in splendid condition and prospects are very bright now.
 Wesley W. Conrad of Inman and Miss Elena Trowbridge of Page were united in marriage by Judge Malone at the county court room yesterday afternoon. The young people will make their home at Inman.
 Henry Lorge was up from Randolph last Sunday looking after his real estate interests in this county. Mr. Lorge is making arrangements to commence the erection of a residence upon his farm north of this city.
 Services will be held in the United Evangelical Church five miles northwest of O'Neill, next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Sermon by Rev. T. S. Watson. All neighbors and friends are invited to meet with us.
 The Junior Normal opened in this city last Monday and will run eight weeks. The attendance is good, about 150 teachers being registered to date and the indications are that the registration will be at least 200 during the session.
 John Enright left Saturday morning for South Omaha where he will visit at the home of his son for a few weeks and will then go to Dixon county for a visit at the home of his brother. He expects to be absent about six weeks.
 John Hanley was up from Omaha the first of the week visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Hanley, north of town. Mr. Hanley graduated from Creighton law school a few weeks ago and has taken up the practice of his profession in the metropolitan city and is meeting with flattering success. His many old O'Neill friends hope that he will be able to reach the topmost ladder of success in his chosen profession.

H. R. Roseler gave up carrying the mail on route one and the contract has been taken by Dan Kennel, who commenced operations Tuesday morning. It would seem that our Uncle Samuel would have to raise the pay of his rural carriers if he desires to have them "stick."
 Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Biglin returned from their eastern visit last Thursday evening. Mr. Biglin says crops are very backward in Iowa and Illinois and that many farmers were compelled to plant their corn over on account of the poor seed, the cold weather assisting in rotting the corn.
 All citizens interested in the Holt County Fair are requested to meet at the office of M. H. McCarthy next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. Matters concerning the coming race meet and carnival will occupy the attention of the meeting and it is desired that all citizens be present.—C. E. Hall, president.
 The O'Neill post office drops from the second to the third class on July 1st and the salary of the postmaster will be $1,800, instead of $2,000 which it has been the past year. The registration a year ago last fall was responsible for the great increase in receipts in 1908 which raised the class of the office.
 John Horisky, who was elected police judge last spring, failed to qualify for the office and at the regular meeting of the city council last Monday evening Mayor Biglin presented the name of J. J. McCafferty for the position and he was promptly confirmed. So that John J. now wears the honored title of Judge.
 But few of our citizens know that the Agricultural Exhibit at the Nebraska State Fair is the largest exhibit of its kind shown in the United States, but such is the fact. Superintendent Wm. James of Dorchester reports active preparations for a record-breaking exhibit for the coming Fair, Sept. 5th to 9th.
 E. W. and T. F. Cokerill of Ponca will open a pool hall and bowling alley in the Weingartner building, formerly occupied by Gielsh's meat market. A permit to operate same was granted by the city council, at their regular meeting last Monday night, and they expect to have their hall in operation in about two weeks.
 Phil Primley pitched a game for Fremont in the state league last week and won. He did not go in until another pitcher had been knocked out of the box, but he stopped the hitting and won out. "Prim" is doing great work with the wagon tongue for Fremont, being the most consistent hitter on the team.
 Valentine Gerber, for many years a resident of this county, living six miles northwest of this city, but now of Reading, Minn., was a caller at these headquarters last Friday. Mr. Gerber left old Holt about ten years ago and he said he was surprised at the great change for the better in the town and country since his removal. He returned home Saturday.
 Patricia, a Roman drama, which was presented by the students of St. Mary's Academy at the opera house last Tuesday evening, was one of the most successful entertainments ever presented to the theatre going people of this city. Each and every part was well played, the actresses showing a splendid interpretation of the parts they essayed, and the manner in which the play was rendered demonstrated to the audience the ability and careful training of their instructors. The play was presented to a crowded house and was liberally applauded throughout.

O'Neill sets the pace and our sister town of Atkinson then attempts to follow. They are now agitating a sewer system for that city, saying that financially they are able to bear the burden. The Graphic is urging the citizens to get together on the subject and take the preliminary steps. It is a good thing for any town. Push it along.
 Lewis G. Coburn and wife of Orchard were in the city last Friday on their way overland to Wyoming. They left Saturday afternoon and will go by the way of Phoenix where they will spend a few days visiting relatives. Mr. Coburn expects to spend all summer in the journey to Wyoming and return and it will give him a splendid opportunity to see the country.
 Mrs. Dan O'Donnell of Stafford, one of the pioneers of this county, died at a hospital at Hot Springs, S. D., last Saturday afternoon where she had been receiving treatment for dropsy for several months. The remains were shipped to the home of the deceased at Stafford Sunday morning and brought to this city on Monday morning and interred in the Catholic cemetery at this place. The many friends of the husband and children extend their sympathy in the hour of their bereavement.
 The contract for the addition to St. Mary's Academy was let last Saturday to B. J. Jobst of Omaha. According to the contract the building is to be completed by April 1, 1911. The work of excavating for the foundation was commenced last Monday morning and as soon as it is completed the contractor will commence work upon the building. When the addition is completed O'Neill will have one of the finest school buildings in the state, a credit to the city, county, state and the order of the Sisters of St. Francis, who own the building.

 The "lure of the wild" was too much for John Donovan, Lee Henry and F. Cochrane, of the Carpenter Paper company, and they broke away from the editorial association meeting last Saturday afternoon and went out to James Earley's place on the Eagle on a trout fishing expedition. The boys were very successful and returned Sunday evening with a good-sized string of speckled beauties. Fishing has not been very good this spring and the boys made about the best catch that has been made in this neighborhood this year.
 The summer term of the Wayne Normal will open June 20th. This term continues eight weeks. Preparation is made to care for 1,000 students nicely. More than 150 daily classes will be organized, including beginning, advanced and review in all common and higher branches, with special classes for those preparing to teach, for experienced teachers, for country teachers, for grade teachers, for high school teachers and principals. We have the best equipped Manual Training school in the state. For catalog and further particulars, write, President Fred M. Pile, Wayne, Nebraska.

In speaking of cold weather and backward springs J. F. McMahon says the following, clipped from the Anita (Iowa) Tribune, has this country skinned several blocks: "Tommy Rogers is authority for the statement that thirty-five years ago last Thursday, Levi Huff, who at that time owned and occupied the Crandall farm a short distance north of Anita, came to town in a sled, and took the late Edwin Cate, who was then the pioneer merchant of Anita, out for a sleigh ride. Mr. Rogers says there was a great storm at that time and garden truck and crops were frozen stiff". Either Iowa weather or the editor of the Tribune has us cleaned and we give them the belt.
 Everybodys Magazine: Wendell Phillips was, on one occasion, lecturing in Ohio and while on a railroad journey going to keep one of his appointments, he met in the car a crowd of clergy, returning from some sort of convention. One of the ministers felt called upon to approach Mr. Phillips and asked him: "Are you Mr. Phillips?" "I am, sir." "Are you trying to free the niggers?" "Yes, sir, I am an abolitionist." "Well, why do you preach your doctrine up here, why don't you go over into Kentucky?" "Excuse me, sir, are you a preacher?" "I am sir." "Are you trying to save souls from hell?" "Yes sir, that's my business." "Well, why don't you go there?" The assailant hurried into the smoker amid a roar of unsanctified laughter.
