FRANK E. BEEMAN
Republican Candidate For Congress

I am a candidate for the republican nomination for Congress from the sixth district. I believe in good government, a square deal, and that the Roosevelt policies should be put into operation. I have always been opposed to boss rule and machine politics. I believe in representative government; in government by the people and not by the corporations. I believe in loyalty to republican principles and the protective tariff but do not believe that downward revision has been fully accomplished, particularly with reference to woolen, cotton, lumber and wire schedules.

I believe a congressman should have convictions and courage enough to vote them; that he should not dodge, sidestep and vote "present;" that he should not insurge at home and stand pat in Washington. That he should keep his ante-election promises and vote against Mr. Cannon for speaker after having promised the people to do so; and he should not vote to tax barbed wire at $15.00 per ton after publicly announcing that it should be placed on the free list. A congressman is elected by the public and paid by the public to serve the public and not to serve himself. He should be satisfied to render public service for the public salary and not to seek to further enrich himself at the expense of the public by acquiring coal lands in Alaska belonging to the public domain. His duty is to conserve the public resources and not to absorb them unto himself and Mr. Ballinger's assistance in acquiring a coal claim in Alaska is not sufficient proof of either the regularity or the ethics of the transaction.

FRANK E. BEEMAN.

MINOR MENTION

When you hear a man sneering at the local paper because it is not big, cheap and newsy as the city papers, you can safely bet he does not squander any of his wealth in assisting to make it better and that generally the paper has done more for him than he has for it. The man who cannot see the benefits arising from a local newspaper is about as much value to a town as a delinquent tax list.

The annual value of poultry and eggs sold is more than that of the silver, gold and pig iron produced. There is millions of money in poultry and eggs, and but small capital required. The annual import of eggs in England approximates 100,000,000 dozen, and into the United States 17,000,000 dozen a year. Here is an industry in which the demand is greater than our home supply. Look well to the poultry, and they will assist you to find "golden egg."

The following candidates have filed for the primary election: F. O. Hamberger, republican candidate for supervisor in the First district; Otto Nilson, democrat candidate for supervisor in the First; W. P. Simar, republican candidate for supervisor in the Seventh; D. J. Grimes, democratic and Peoples Independent candidate for supervisor in the Fifth; M. P. Sullivan, democrat candidate for supervisor in the Third. For representative, H. A. Allen, republican, is the only candidate filed up to date.

At the celebration at Red Bird July 4th, the old cannon owned by "Back" Berry (and which has been used in firing the national salute at all celebrations in the north country the past twenty-five years, exploded and scattered pieces to the four winds of heaven. Parts of the cannon were picked up over a quarter of a mile from where the piece had rested and, although the old gun was surrounded by people when the explosion occurred no one was injured. The cannon was one that was given to the Indians stationed near Niobrara some forty years ago to protect themselves from hostile tribes and was given by the Indians to Mr. Lamont, an old timer who lived near Niobrara some twenty years ago and was given to Mr. Berry by Mr. Lamont shortly before his death. The old cannon had a great history but it had outlived its usefulness.

A Frontier reader who has observed the trend of the times clips these pertinent questions from a paper and submits them for some other readers to answer:—"Who? Who sympathized with you when your little girl was sick? Was it Sears & Roebuck? Who carried you last winter when you were out of a job and had no money? Was it Montgomery, Ward & Co., or was it your home merchant? When you want to raise money for your neighbor who has lost his house by fire or some needy person in town, do you write to the Fair store in Chicago, or do you go to your home merchant? How much does Seigel, Cooper & Co. give toward keeping up the sidewalks or paying the minister's salary? When you were sick how many nights did the Larkin Soap Company sit up with you? When your loved ones were buried was it your home merchant who dropped the tears of sympathy and uttered the cheering word, or was it Marshall Field & Co? Patronize home merchants."

The remnants of the once proud and populous populist party held a convention in the office of the county attorney at the court house last Wednesday afternoon. The convention was composed of J. A. Robertson, Wm. Lell, W. B. Cooper, L. A. Jillson and four from O'Neill. Time was when a little 12x14 room was not big enough to hold all the believers in that faith that were won't to assemble at the call of duty, but that day has passed and they are now in the hopeless minority, being used merely as a democratic aid society to boost aspiring democrats into office. The convention selected a chairman and central committee for the ensuing year and selected delegates to the state convention. They did not adopt any platform, evidently being content to accept the one furnished them by the bourbonites. There was no enthusiasm evident at the gathering, the delegates evidently realizing that the day of their power had passed into the great beyond.

The democratic county convention was held in the court room last Wednesday afternoon and was the poorest attended and least exciting convention held by democracy since their return to life after the death of populism. Outside of seven delegates from O'Neill there were but six democrats present: Felix Hale, J. M. Morgan, T. J. Wilburn of Atkinson, E. W. Wilcox of Inman, S. A. Hickman of Sheridan, Ed. Tighe of Willowdale. Frank Campbell presided as a chairman and G. W. Miles as secretary. Resolutions were adopted commending in extravagant language the administration of Governor Shallenberger; denounced the republicans for not revising the tariff downward; commended the last legislature for the work performed and praised Senator Donohoe and Representative Henry for their legislative record; took a crack at the peerless leader, W. J. Bryan, for his stand upon the county option measure by stating that because a man was not an advocate of that measure that it did not necessarily mean that he was not a democrat; favored an income tax; was opposed to a plank in the state platform in favor of county option and instructed the delegates to the state convention to vote against such a plank; in favor of the initiative and referendum and instructed the delegates to the county convention to vote for the insertion of such a plank in the state platform. The following delegates were elected to the state convention: M. F. Harrington, A. F. Mullen, E. H. Whelan, Sheridan Simmons, C. B. Scott, O. F. Biglin, J. F. O'Donnell, J. P. McNichols, F. J. Hale, R. M. Johnson, E. W. Wilcox, T. J. Wilburn.

Young Galloway Bulls.

M. W. Spry, 6 miles northeast of O'Neill, has a few fair young bulls for sale at farmers prices. They are big, fine, rugged, growthy Galloways, that are so popular in the feed yard every where. Get one of these young bulls and improve your herd.—Write or call on M. W. Spry, O'Neill, Nebr. 3-2.

madam: Don't be misled Cheap and Big Can Baking Powder is Only Big in Size - Not in Satisfaction - Not in Economy

A large can and a small cost does not make baking powder cheap— or even less expensive than Calumet—the high-quality, moderate-price kind. It certainly cannot make it as good. Don't judge baking powder in this way—the real test—the proof of raising power, of evenness, uniformity, wholesomeness and deliciousness will be found only in the baking.

CALUMET

the Happy Medium

is a better baking powder than you have ever used before. And we will leave it to your good judgment for proof. Buy a can today. Try it for any baking purpose. If the results are not better—if the baking is not lighter, more delicious, take it back and get your money. Calumet is medium in price—but great in satisfaction. Free—large handsome recipe book, illustrated in colors. Send 4c and slip found in pound can.

$1 EACH MANUFACTURED & FOR SALE BY THE FRONTIER $1 EACH

The following animals are for service this season at my place just north of O'Neill:

- Two Black Percherons, Graden and Norman.
- One Hambletonian, Starlight.
- Two Large Spanish Jacks.

NORMAN is a three year-old and is a handsome horse in every way while GRADEN is well known to the breeders of this community. In addition to my old I also have the Mandeville Jack. He is a black, five years old and as good as the best. The fee is $10, to insure. If mare is sold or removed from the county fee becomes due at once. This will be enforced. Best of care will be taken to prevent accidents, but will not be responsible should any occur.
