

THE FRONTIER.

VOLUME XXXI.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JULY 28, 1910

NUMBER 6

RACES AT O'NEILL

August 10-11-12

Every day the big day as we have arranged the classes so evenly there can be no difference. We not only expect to have as good races as last year but beyond any question they will be better and larger as we are receiving entries at this early date from some of the fast ones.

Savidge Brothers Amusement Company

AUGUST 9th to 13th

In addition to the three days races we have secured the Savidge Bros. Carnival Company for the week. Five Big Free acts Daily, band concerts, electric theatre, Ferris Wheel carry-us-all. Animal show, and the big attraction for the old as well as the young

The Elwin Strong Company

This company needs no recommendation from the Fair Committee as they are well known as one of the best theatre companies on the circuit.

MINOR MENTION.

"Phelps Finishes Film's." Farm Loans. See R. H. Parker. Up-to-date job printing at The Frontier. Mrs. Frank Pixley returned from Omaha Monday night. Subscribe for The Frontier, only $1.50 per year. Some bargains in real estate, close in. —Hall & Co. 50-tf
Mike O'Sullivan is up from Columbus visiting relatives. Large list of town property for sale. —Hall & Co. 50-tf
W. W. Whitman of Missouri, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Stanley. When in doubt buy your shoes at Alberts'. Ours are guaranteed. 43-
Jess Miller was out with his auto on Sunday evening giving some ladies a fast ride. Dr. Corbett's next visit to O'Neill will be August 29, 30, 31 and September 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Winterstin returned last Friday from a three weeks trip to Colorado points. Second hand dollar's exchanged for Jewelry, at Grave's Jewelry Store. 46-tf
Miss Lily Golden came up from Lincoln Monday, for a short visit with relatives and friends. List your farms with me to sell. I sold four places in one week.—R. H. Parker, Land Agent, O'Neill. Dr. Wilson sold his residence between Fifth and Sixth on Benton St., last week to Richard Koch. Money to loan on improved farms. No waiting, money paid when you sign the papers.—Hall & Co. 50-tf
Most of the politicians are away this week attending the two conventions at Grand Island and Lincoln. R. H. Parker of O'Neill has some Eastern Money to Loan on farms and ranches in Holt county. See him. 31-26
Joe Meredith is making a strenuous campaign and from all appearances will be elected by a large majority. When you wish to purchase a watch or jewelry of any kind go to Graves, his prices are always right. 4-tf
E. R. Townsend and C. L. Davis was out to Whipples Lake fishing on Tuesday. They report a fine catch. Judge Harrington sold the John Phalin farm last week for $7,600. This place sold last year for $3,600. This is an increase in value of over 100 per cent. Can you beat it?

"Phelps Finishes Film's." R. H. Madison commenced the erection of a fine dwelling in the western part of town this week. Still we grow. John Skirving has opened a stock of groceries and gents furniture goods in Emmet this week. Success to you John Lost—Last Thursday or Friday evening a plain ladies' gold bracelet. Finder please leave same at this office.
Pat McGinnis left for his home at Cody, Wyoming Tuesday night, after a two weeks visit with relatives and friends.
Strayed—From my slaughter house on Monday, July 11, one red heifer branded on left side.—W. L. Shoemaker, O'Neill.
John Jonas of Francis township was in the city Monday transacting business. John is still strong in the populist faith.
Graves handles jewelry of all kinds and does jewelry repairing. All work guaranteed. Handles kodaks and kodak supplies. 4-tf
Miss Carroll of Chicago, and Miss Patten of Appleton, Wis., are in the city visiting their aunt, Mrs. William Lavolette.
William Cooper was in Monday with hogs from the Chambers country, and he reports crops of all kind in an excellent condition.
Clark Hough was in Saturday from the south country. Clark says that they have plenty of moisture and that crops are simply fine.
Why pay rent when you can get money to build on small payments. Call at the office of C. E. Hall for full particulars.—C. E. Downey. 52-tf
Andrew Schmidt was in Monday with nine hogs that netted him the handsome price of $232.05. That's going some for one trip.
E. H. Whelan, J. F. O'Donnel and Sheridan Simmons left for Grand Island Monday morning to attend the democratic state convention.
The editor went to Lincoln Tuesday morning to attend the republican state convention and The Frontier is one day late this week as a result.
H. C. Henning and F. O. Hammerburg of Cella were callers at this office last Saturday and renewed their subscription to this household necessity.
The Editor is absent this week attending the state convention, and in his absence the "devil" is running the shop; so if you don't see it in this paper there is nothing doing.

"Phelps Finishes Film's." Found, on the streets of O'Neill Wednesday afternoon a package containing red mosquito netting. Owner can have same by calling at this office and paying for this notice.
I want a man for all round work in Hotel; middle aged man preferred. Could use man and wife. Good wages to right party. Reference required.—Hotel Evans, O'Neill, Neb. 5-2p
Geo. Smith, an old soldier and a companion of John Skirving who served in the same regiment with him during the war of the Rebellion, is visiting with him this week.
Some O'Neill parents should pay more attention to their children. It does not look right to say the least to see girls of sixteen and seventeen on the streets at twelve or one o'clock at night.
Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets gently stimulate the liver and bowels to expel poisonous matter cleanse the system, cure constipation and sick headache. Sold by All Dealers. 3-4.
The O'Neill Juniors went down to play Royal Friday. They succeeded in getting three scores. What Royal got is not definitely known but ranges somewhere between thirteen and twenty.
M. McMahon, of Atlantic Iowa, who was in the city visiting at the home of his son, J. F. McMahon, left for his Iowa home Monday morning. Mr. McMahon is very favorably impressed with the looks of this county.
Fred Barclay was down from Stuart Monday. Mr. Barclay says that land prices are steadily advancing in the vicinity of Stuart. Ward Brayton, who owns a farm adjoining Stuart, refused $90 an acre for his farm last week.
A very delightful party was given by Mrs. Lavolette in honor of her nieces, at their home on Everett St., Wednesday evening, and a fine luncheon was served to those present, consisting of about thirty young people of O'Neill.
The State Fair management certainly pulled off a good stunt when they secured the Wright brothers for exhibitions in aerial navigation each day of the fair, Sept. 5 to 9. There is nothing which is interesting the people of the country at the present time so much as the air ship problem, and there are very few people but will be intensely interested in seeing the flights of the Wright's at the State Fair.

"Phelps Finishes Film's." Henry Martfeldt was in the city last Saturday visiting old time friends. Mr. Martfeldt is now a resident of Kirkwood, Rock county, and he ordered the Frontier sent to him there so that he could keep posted upon the affairs of old Holt.
Herb Hammond is loosing sleep these nice cool evenings, trying to find out what the attractions are on the Corner of Fremont and First streets. It looks to a man from this distance Herb, that it is a case of too much Johnson.
Mrs. John McHugh and daughter, Miss Dorothy, of Sioux City, came up last Thursday evening for a few days visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. F. Gallagher. Mr. McHugh came up Saturday evening and accompanied them home Monday morning.
Jacob Kraft was down from Stuart last Saturday attending the republican county convention. About a month ago Mr. Kraft sold his farm near Stuart to a gentleman from Iowa for $85 per acre. This shows that Holt county real estate is climbing.
Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is quickly relieved by the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment is equally valuable for muscular rheumatism, and always affords quick relief. Sold by All Dealers. 3-4.
John A. Robertson left for Grand Island Monday morning to attend the populist state convention. John is liable to be a little lonesome there as the populists are apt to be rather scarce, but he can take in the show in the big tent and have a chance to enjoy himself.
J. F. Shoemaker, an old resident of this county, living eight miles south of town, had the misfortune of having a team run away with him on Tuesday while driving the mower, he suffered a broken rib, and his many friends will be pleased to learn that he was not seriously hurt.
Among those who sold hogs on the O'Neill market Monday and Tuesday are the following, whom the reporter seen: M. Hubbard, E. Beaver, Chas. Ketster, Geo. Larson, Roy Hull, Roy Spindler, A. Vollinger, G. L. Connolly, G. Jennings, Wm. Gannon, Geo. Shoemaker, Jacob Erb and A. Welsh.
The world's most successful medicine for bowel complaints is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It has relieved more pain and suffering, and saved more lives than any other medicine in use. Invaluable for children and adults. Sold by All Dealers. 3-4.

Humphrey Democrat: Peter Noonan accompanied his oldest daughter to O'Neill Saturday where she will take a course in St. Mary's Academy. Mr. Noonan took advantage of the opportunity to take a well deserved vacation and went from O'Neill to Goose Lake in Cherry county for a few days fishing.
Clyde King arrived from Moline, Ill., last Saturday evening and will spend a few weeks visiting with relatives and friends in this city. Clyde says that the present dry season has not affected the implement trade any so far, that the orders for next seasons delivery are greater than ever.
The County Attorney should get busy with those parties who are making such inroads on the hen roosts in the western part of town. We have or should have no place in our community for thieves, and especially chicken thieves, there being no call for any person to steal in these prosperous times.
A correspondent wants to know when to use "shall" and "should." Never use "shall" when you should use "should" and never use "should" when you should use "shall." In short we should always say "should" when ever we should and never should say "shall" when we should say "should." Is that plain enough.
Last week E. P. Hicks sold his residence in this city to Chris Kennel and as soon as he can close up his business affairs will leave for Canada where he will make his future home. Mr. Hicks regrets to leave O'Neill but the move is made necessary on account of the health of Mrs. Hicks. Mr. Kennel will take possession of his home as soon as Mr. Hicks vacates. This is one of the nicest homes in the city and Mr. Kennel was fortunate in securing so desirable a residence.

Alleging non-support Mrs. Sadie A. Nicola has filed a petition in district court praying for a divorce from Louis Nicola, to whom she was married at Leonie on November 25, 1902. She alleges that he has failed to provide for her since October 23, 1908, although well able to do so. She also asks the custody of their only child, Beatrice Nicola, aged six years.
Teething children have more of less diarrhoea, which can be controlled by giving Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. All that is necessary is to give the prescribed dose after each operation of the bowels more than natural and then castor oil to cleanse the system. It is safe and sure. Sold by All Dealers. 3-4.
A. E. Evans, editor of the Naper Advertiser, was an O'Neill visitor last Saturday. Mr. Evans is a son of C. S. Evans who ran the Alliance Tribune in this city about twenty years ago when the populist party owned and controlled the political destinies of this county. This was Mr. Evans first visit to O'Neill since he moved from here some eighteen years ago and he was agreeably surprised at the wonderful growth of this city and the indications of prosperity apparent upon every hand. Since leaving here Mr. Evans has been engaged in the newspaper business in the south and for the past year with his brother, has published the Bristow Enterprise and the Naper Advertiser. Both papers are good money makers and the boys will soon be on easy street financially.

FOR ONE DAY ONLY
Saturday, July 30th

We will sell flour at the following price, quantity limited to 200 pounds:

Golden Crescent, high patent, per sack	$1 35
Snow White, straight grade, per sack	1 30
Corn meal, 9½ pound sack, at	20
Graham, 9½ pound sack, at	30
Advo Pastry flour at	20

J. P. MANN & CO.