Nebraska will roll up her old-time republican majority this fall.

C. O. Whedon of Lincoln cut about as much 'ice' in the senatorial race as Beeman did in the congressional race.

Judging from the primary election returns the democratic party has about succeeded in swallowing the populist party.

Bryan has announced that he will give his active and enthusiastic support to G. M. Hitchcock in the senatorial race. In a few days we can look for a further announcement that he will support Mayor Jim and his platform.

Lee Henry, who was a candidate for the democratic senatorial nomination in the district comprising Madison, Pierce, Stanton and Wayne counties, was defeated by Phil Kohl of Wayne by about fifty votes. As the district is about 600 republican, Lee did not loose much when he lost the nomination.

W. R. Jackson, formerly county superintendent of this county and later state superintendent, ran like a scared jack rabbit in the primary election and won the democratic nomination for state superintendent by about 4,000 votes. But he will be "crabbed" for the election by the republican nominee, J. W. Crabtree of Peru.

The nomination of Dahlman is such a bitter dose to some O'Neill democrats that they refuse to accept him and swear by the shades of democracy's departed glory that they will never vote for him. One democrat is so bitter in his denunciation that he says Aldrich will carry Holt county by at least 500 majority. Of course republicans have always believed that the republican ticket would carry the county by a good safe majority, but hardly looked for the election to be made so unanimous.

Although upon the face of the returns from the recent primary Dahlman is nominated by the democrats for governor Shalldnberger refuses to give up and asks for a recount of the ballots in all the counties carried by the Omaha man, alleging that in each county votes were counted for Dahlman that should have been thrown out, as the governor claims that the name of the Omaha mayor was written upon republican ballots in these counties and that they were counted for him, when according to law these ballots should have been thrown out. To keep in the lead of the precession Dahlman goes the governor a few better and announces that he will ask for a recount in twenty-two counties, alleging that in these counties populists votes were counted and credited to Shalldnberger as a democrat. Holt is among the counties that Dahlman will ask for a recount in.

John Allen in Politics.

Citizens of this city and county will be interested in the following from the State Journal concerning "Windy" John Allen who was a resident of this county about twenty years ago and who lived here about two years ago when he filled the position of cook in Wolverson restaurant:

J. H. Allen, Dem. candidate for legislature, is proud of his political record. He declares he was for the initiative and referendum before some democrats who are now howling loudest about it had the slightest idea what it meant. "I am an old trade unionist" he says, and you never knew a trade unionist in your life who wasn't for the initiative and referendum.

"I was in the political harness away back. Twelve to twenty years ago I did a few turns for men in this county that had not been forgotten I made a sort of a gumshoe campaign for the nomination and now I am going through the election on a bicycle. I'll show some politicians a few tricks before it is over with.

"Back in 1896 I was working for the Daily Post and starving because of poor business. I got to Grand Island from the west and was fortunate enough to collect four or five dollars. I took on a few bowls, foam and all. Then I discovered a political convention was on and that the crowds in the streets were all political experts. I mounted a hack in the center of the big crowd and gave them a political speech that caught on. I told about the way the poor man is oppressed by Wall street and said a few things about ratios and values.

"After the speech a fellow said to me: 'Good speaker, eh?' 'Yes,' I replied, 'but a dinged sight better cook.' That pleased him. He was proprietor of the Koehler hotel and wanted a cook. He offered me $75 a month. 'You are the fellow I have been looking for the past ten months,' I told him. The next morning I was cooking breakfast for hungry delegates.

"I homesteaded in Holt county in 1886 and got acquainted with some of the live democratic wires up that way then. Then I came to Lincoln and in the free silver days I got so popular that they used to take me off the street and threaten to put me in jail because I talked too much. Then I lobbied around the legislature awhile. 'Organized the First ward and several times took control of the caucuses and took it away from some of the men who wanted to do things, they tried to get me fired from a little dollar a day job as a cook at a restaurant. If you don't believe I've been a party worker just ask Bill Schwind and Tom Allen about it. They knew me back twenty years ago when I was really active.

"Will I be elected. I should say I will. The people of this county will just fall over themselves to vote for me on election day. I'll put up a campaign that will convince them. If I don't someone will want a good cook."

The State Fair.

Two hundred harness horses are named to appear in the races at the State Fair Sept. 5th to 9th, and the program announced excels any race meet heretofore held in Nebraska. The ten mile running relay race, two miles each day, will give added interest in that it takes the full five days to complete. The Wright Bros. three aeroplanes are promised to make four flights each day.

The great Lombardo Symphony Band of 44 instruments and Grand Opera Concert Company of 24 vocalists will give four concerts each day. The great Paterson Shows and Vaudiville attractions will please the pleasure loving public. Twenty-two counties have entered agricultural exhibits, more entries in the horse, cattle and sheep departments than ever before and about the same number of swine. Season admission tickets at $2 each are placed on sale for the first time. Let's all go, it's too good to miss.

Asks a Divorce.

Laura E. Davis has filed suit in the district court praying for a divorce from Charles W. Davis. They were married in O'Neill in November, 1902, and plaintiff alleges that ever since the defendant has been guilty of extreme cruelty to plaintiff by absenting himself from home for months at a time without just cause leaving plaintiff and her child without food or clothing for herself or child, and that he is now away from home and has been for nearly a year. She asks for an absolute divorce, the custody of their child, Leela O. Davis, and such other relief as may be just and equitable.

Methodist Items.

Why were you not at the Class meeting last Sunday morning? Yes, it was warm, but we had a good time and were benefited by the service. Come out at 10 a. m. next Sunday and thus begin the day right.

At the Methodist Church, next Sunday, the pastor will preach at 10:30 a. m. and at 8 o'clock p. m. The subject of our morning discourse will be, "Jesus Shall Reign," evening subject, "Modern Jesus." To these, as to all services of our Church, we most cordially invite everybody. Strangers always welcome.

Sunday School every Sunday at the close of our morning service. We have an interesting school and are always glad to have our friends tarry with us for the study of God's Word.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, to which our neighbors and friends are all invited.

The Ladies Aid Society will meet in the Class room on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A full attendance is especially desired at this time.

The Live Stock Market

South Omaha, Neb., July 29.--Special market letter from Standard Live Stock Commission Co.

The market on corn fed heeves was very satisfactory during the past week. The receipts were just fair on this kind and prices steadily firmed up right along and the advance might be quoted 10 to 25 higher. Butcher stock has also scored an advance of 15 to 25 cents and this in the face of the largest receipts of the year. Stockers and feeders are also from 10 to 25 higher with a very active trade all the week inspired largely, no doubt, by the recent rains.

We quote:
Fair to choice heeves..... 7.25@ 7.90
Others down to..... 4.75
Corned cows and heifers up to 5.50
Fair to good..... 3.50@ 4.25
Canners and cutters..... 2.25@ 3.25
Veal calves..... 4.00@ 6.50
Bulls, stags, etc..... 3.25@ 5.50
Good to choice feeders..... 4.40@ 5.65
Others down to..... 3.00
Stock heifers..... 2.85@ 4.00

The hog market seems to be on the up grade again and is $1.00 higher than the low time. The advance for the past week has been 40 to 50 cents. Bulk $8.50 to $8.75, top $9.00

There has been a broad inquiry for feeder sheep during the past week with the market steadily on the advance and making again of 30 to 35 cents. Fat lambs steady, sheep 10 to 15 higher. Receipts heavy.
