Governor Shallenberger was like Jim Jeffries; he couldn't come back.

The official count from the several counties give Dahlman a majority of 305 over Shallenberger.

If Governor Shallenberger had it to do over again the open primary law would receive the official veto.

The Dahlmanites are unanimous in the belief that Shallenberger is a "tin horn" sport. Tin horns are poor losers.

George is about as peeved over the nomination of Dahlman as he was when the county board refused to allow him to grab $4,500 for publishing the scavenger tax list.

Judge Dean received the democratic nomination for congress in this district, defeating W. J. Taylor by four votes. Taylor won the nomination on the populist ticket by about 200 and announces that he will make the race on that ticket.

Recounts seem to be very popular with would-be democratic office holders.
The latest to enter the lists is W. J. Taylor, who lost the democratic congressional nomination in this district by four votes. He asks a recount of the democratic ballots cast in this district.

Recount of the ballots in all the counties asked for by Governor Shallenberger, except Douglas, has been completed and Dahlman gains nine votes on the recount. It begins to look as if the governor would have to retire to his farm in Harlan county after January 1st, and the chief oil inspector will probably be coming back to this city to take up the practice of law.

The recount of the votes cast at the recent primary in Douglas county was stopped by an injunction after the votes in one precinct had been recounted. The successful democratic candidate for county commissioner in Douglas county had a lead of but five votes over his nearest competitor, and the latter had asked for and been granted a recount. In the precinct counted the contestant gained two votes and the man who was nominated on the face of the returns stopped further canvass of the ballots by injunction. Now that the case has reached the courts it is hard to tell when the case will be decided or what the outcome will be. The recount of this precinct did not make any change in the vote as returned on governor.

Why Farmers are Republicans.

Forced to face the fact of the great benefit which comes to the American farmer by reason of Republican tariff legislation, the Democratic United States Senators who recently submitted their minority report on the question of wages and prices; seek to deceive that prosperous element in our population into the belief that it is free trade and not protection that this country should have.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of farm products, the farmer, they say, "has realized a small net return on his labor and investment."

The time has gone by, however, when shifty gentlemen can make the American farmer believe that sort of nonsense. The farmer has come into his own and Republicans are glad of it. He knows that conditions were never before better for him than right now and he will not take kindly to the suggestion which the democrats make in this campaign that he help put them back into power. Many of them are old enough to remember the last democratic administration which put into force free trade ideas in this country and compelled farmers to endure four years of awful adversity. Things are different now. Now he is prosperous and he knows the reason why. To quote a leading authority:

"To-day there is not a farmer in the country who for a given quantity of his products can not buy and lay down at his door more of the necessities of life, more of clothing, more of everything that goes to make up the comforts of a home, notwithstanding the high prices, than ever before in the history of our country."

Under these circumstances the democratic doctrine of discontent and disaster appeals to the American farmer only as some to be spurned.

A Hair Dressing

If you wish a high-class hair dressing, we are sure Ayer's Hair Vigor, new improved formula, will greatly please you.
It keeps the hair soft and smooth, makes it look rich and luxuriant, prevents splitting at the ends. And it keeps the scalp free from dandruff.

Does not change the color of the hair.
Formula with each bottle Show it to your doctor
Ask him about it, then do as he says

At the same time the new Ayer's Hair Vigor is a strong hair tonic, promoting the growth of the hair, keeping all the tissues of the hair and scalp in a healthy condition. The hair stops falling, dandruff disappears. A splendid dressing.
