T. B. Harrison purchased lots in the Third ward, east of the residence of C. E. Hall, and has commenced the erection of a modern bungalow cottage thereon. The building will be 24x28 feet, and when completed will be one of the neatest residences in that section of the city.

Arthur Ryan is enjoying a visit from his father, W. J. Ryan, of St. Joseph Mo., this week. Mr. Ryan brought a carload of apples with him which he disposed of on the O'Neill market. The apples were picked from his own orchard and was the finest car of fruit ever brought to this city.

For Sale—The Sullivan farm half mile north of O'Neill. This is one of the best farms in the county and its location, in the shadow of O'Neill's splendid schools, makes it one of the most desirable places in the county. If you want a fine farm with the benefits of the city, look this up.—Jack Sullivan, O'Neill. 16-1f.

Dan McClellan, of Joy, who has been a constant reader of The Frontier for the past thirty years, was a caller at these headquarters last Monday and left three cart wheels on subscription. Dan says that the "old reliable" has been coming to his home for so long that it would be impossible now to get along without it.

Mrs. Lettie Hemmover has filed a petition in the district court praying for a divorce from L. H. Hemmover. She alleges in the petition that they were married at Columbia, Michigan, on September 25, 1884, and has been a resident of Holt county, since June 27, 1909. The couple had three children all of whom are over 21 years of age. She alleges that since July 27, 1909, defendant has failed to contribute to her support, although able to do so. She asks for an absolute divorce and such other relief as the court may deem equitable.

Marriage of Lieutenant Meredith.

Worcester Daily Telegram—The largest and most brilliant military wedding in Worcester for years was that of Miss Marion Olive Willard daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hudson Willard, 41 Edward street, to Lieut. Owen Riggs Meredith, 27th U. S. Infantry, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Meredith, of O'Neill, Neb.

The ceremony was in All Saints' church last night at 7 o'clock and was performed before a large assemblage of guests from West Point, Boston, Worcester, New York and Whitinsville.

Decorations in the church were simple, consisting of palms and Easter lilies.

Rev. Arthur Wheelock Moulton, of Lawrence, a cousin of the bride, performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Thomas F. Davies, rector of the church.

The bride, in a gown of white duchess satin, cut with an elaborate court train, trimmed with duchess and point lace, with full veil of white tulle fastened with orange blossoms, made a beautiful picture. The gown was an exquisite creation of lace and satin, showing a draped bodice with bertha yoke and girle of the lace which was worn by her grandmother and mother on their wedding day. At the right side of the skirt a panel of the lace extended from the girle to the foot of the gown, and the full sweep of the long train was extenuated by the folds of the veil which fell over it.

Mr. Willard presented his daughter for the ceremony.

Mrs. Heuston Burke, of Brookline, was matron of honor and Miss Frances M. Sme was maid of honor. Both gowns were semi empire models of gold crepe meteor, decorated with bands of gold and pearl embroidered net.

The bridesmaids, Miss Eugenie W. Root, of Detroit, and Miss Olive Parks Savin, of Newark, wore light blue crepe de chine with bandings of oriental embroidery in tones of blue. All four gowns were decolet, with close trains and extremely short sleeves. Gloves and shoes were to match. The toilets were completed with chaplets of gold leaves in the coiffure.

The bridal bouquet was a shower of the valley lilies.

Before the services, organist Arthur W. Smith presided at the organ and gave a recital of wedding music while the guests were shown to their pews by the ushers, Lieut. Rodney H. Smith, of Fort Adams, R. I.; Lieut. Clair M. Baird, of Fort Wadsworth, N. Y.; Lieut. Arthur D. Minnick, of the Springfield arsenal; Lieut. James W. Lyons, Fort Banks; Edward Wright, Jr., Boston, and Charles T. Willard, brother of the bride.

The officers all wore full dress uniforms and the color scheme introduced in the gowns of the attendants was to carry out the infantry colors.

The groom was attended by a classmate, Lieut. Robert E. O'Brien, of Fort Sheridan, Ill.

Mr. Smith played the processional from Wagner's "Lohengrin" and Mendelssohn's wedding march from "A midsummer night's dream" as the recessional.

The reception which followed at the Willard home was largely attended. Lieut. and Mrs. Meredith received, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Willard. The drawing-room was elaborately decorated in greenery and white lilies. The receiving alcove was a solid bank of palms and ferns, while the window recesses and mantels contained quantities of the lilies. The library decorations were of maiden-hair ferns with salvia to give the color. Frappe was served in an attractive bower of greenery from a table laden with red roses.

The diningroom surpassed in beauty the other rooms of the home, for the soft pink and white of the blossoms were most inviting. A large basket of pink roses formed the center piece of the table, while from the chandelier sprays of asparagus ferns intertwined with the roses fell in festoons. Pink killarney roses with asparagus ferns decorated the buffet.

Harry N. Davis' string orchestra hidden behind a screen of ferns and palms in the hall played selections during the evening. Profusions of asparagus, maiden-hair ferns and palms were used everywhere about the house. The decorations were by Mackie; Rebboli catered.

The bride's gift to her attendants were topaz and pearl pendants, and the groom gave the best man cuff links and the ushers scarf pins.

The wedding cake was cut by the bride, with the groom's sword, shortly before they left for their wedding trip to the White mountains.

Lieut. and Mrs. Meredith will attend the wedding of Mrs. Meredith's brother to Miss Olive Parks Savin, in Newark, Wednesday. They will be at home at Fort Sheridan, Ill., after Nov. 1.

The bride is widely known in Worcester society and is a member of Col. Timothy Bigelow chapter, D. A. R.

Lieut. Meredith is a graduate of West Point, class of 1908, and all army officers in the wedding were classmates.

Wedding gifts, which were numerous and of value, were displayed in the library.

To organize a Dahlman Club.

All supporters of James C. Dahlman are requested to meet at Golden's hall Friday evening, October 7, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of organizing a Dahlman club. As officers will be elected at this meeting a large attendance is desired.

Notice.

Those knowing themselves indebted to the Holt County Telephone Company, please call and settle, as there will be a change of management after the 15th of October, and we wish to have all accounts closed by that date.

J. FRANK KEIRNAN,
15-3. Vice Manager.

Advertised Letters.

The following letters remain uncalled for in the O'Neill postoffice for week ending Oct. 5th 1910.

Mr. H. J. Snyder, Mr. Marnis Petersen, C. F. Maban, Mr. J. N. Jolly, Lloyd C. Boyle, Mr. E. O. Simanton, Miss Minnie Becket, M. Clara, E. F. Dimmick.

CARDS

Miss Mary Phillippi, Miss Anna E. Nichols, Frank E. Bechtel, Mr. C. R. Hughes, Mr. Ben George, Vie Hunter, W. B. Gordon, J. I. Ingram, E. F. Dimmick, Albert W. Smith, Ion Smith, Mr. I. S. Renfro, Mr. George Murry, Horace Jones, Mr. W. S. Loucas Jas. Youngerman.

In calling for the above please say "advertised." If not called for within fifteen days they will be sent to the dead letter office.

R. J. Marsh, P. M.

P. M. Hughes, Dan Boyd and George Krillenbrink, of Casey, Iowa, arrived in the city Wednesday evening for the purpose of buying a few carload of feeders to take with them to their Iowa home, and to spend a few days visiting their old Iowa neighbors, J. F. McMahon and James Dolan.

Do you want a good 2 1/2 horse gasoline engine for $48.50? I have it. I have now in stock seven Canton self-feed hay balers. These balers are strong and durable and a perfect self-feed, and price low. My stock of buggies and wagons is large and well assorted. White Sewing machines, pianos and organs; pumps and windmills.—Frank Campbell. 15-2.

Last Monday afternoon Justice John J. McCafferty performed the ceremony that united in marriage Henry Kranig and Miss Gladys Oliver both of Lynch. While he has not had as much experience in tying matrimonial knots as some of the other officials of this vicinity, John J. says that he tied it good and tight and sent the happy young couple away rejoicing.

W. L. Shoemaker returned last Tuesday from a three weeks' trip through the Black Hills with White Wings, his little gray trotter, which he campaigned through the western circuit. He had White Wings entered in five races and succeeded in taking second money in each race. Bill says he had a good time and won enough "mazuma" to more than pay expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Wald, who left here last winter for Ianthe, Mo., returned last Friday evening with their household goods and will again make their home in old Holt. Mr. Wald says that the climate of that country does not agree with him and that he was forced to return for his health. His father, F. M. Wald, still resides there and he says that the climate seems to agree with him as he has had splendid health since moving to that state.

T. T. Wald has rented his farm for the coming year and will have a public sale on Wednesday, October 12, when he will dispose of all his personal property. About November 15 he will leave for a visit with relatives in Iowa, Illinois and Missouri and will then go to California, where he expects to spend the next year enjoying himself. T. T. does not intend to leave the county permanently, as he says he has looked around considerable and that this country suits him better than any he has ever been in. His many Holt county friends will wish him and his estimable wife a pleasant visit and hope to see them return in a year better satisfied than ever with old Holt.

Jack Sullivan Matched.

Arthur Ryan and Jack McKenna went down to Norfolk last Friday morning to interview a local boxer regarding a bout with Jack Sullivan, of this city. The boys were successful in their mission and signed articles for a contest on October 20th. The Norfolk News has the following to say regarding the contest:

"After an entire day of discussion, interested parties and promoters of 'Kid' West, of Omaha, and Jack (Twin) Sullivan, of O'Neill, completed arrangements and signed up articles for a boxing contest between these two fighters. Each side puts up $200 as a side bet, which is forfeited should either of the fighters fail to appear at the ringside at 9 o'clock Thursday night, October 20, the date set for the battle. The gate receipts are to be divided 60 per cent for the winner and 40 for the loser.

"Sullivan, who is said to weigh over 170 pounds, will forfeit his $200 deposit unless he can lower his weight to 162 pounds or less. Kid West, who now weighs about 148 pounds, will probably weigh about 140 pounds when he enters the ring.

"A feature of the evening's contest will be the appearance of George Ford, Patsey Magner or James Dougherty, who are to be asked to referee the bout. According to the articles signed by Kid West, his supporters and the promoters of Jack Sullivan have agreed to make the fight twenty rounds. The ten round proposition was not favorable to young Denney and other supporters of West, who believe the fight fans would rather witness a battle of longer duration.

"Arthur Ryan and Jack McKinney are Sullivan promoters and declared that at least seventy-five fight fans from O'Neill alone will come to Norfolk to see the bout.

"Young Denney has declared he will train West and should the Omaha fighters so desire he will go him a five-round fight for blood to give him first-class training. West commenced his training immediately after the articles were signed up Friday afternoon by using the sledge hammer on the concrete crossings on Norfolk avenue.

"The skating rink has been secured for the place to pull the boxing contest off."

For Sale or Rent.

My ranch of 640 acres for this and the coming year. Seventy acres of corn in the field; hay put up for 150 head of stock, good range, good well, five room frame house and good barn. Call and see me, 11 miles south of Chambers, or write me at Francis, Nebraska. 10-4. Clark Hough.

Jacob Beaver, of Leonie, was a caller at these headquarters Tuesday and contributed to the larder of the editor's family a half-dozen red Westerfield onions that tipped the scales at one pound each. Mr. Beaver planted a little plot of ground, seven feet wide and sixty feet long, with onions last spring and says that he harvested eleven bushels of onions therefrom, nearly half of which weighed as much as those he brought to town. Who can beat it?

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Fleener returned home Monday evening from an extended visit with relatives and friends in Kansas, Oklahoma and Missouri. Mr. Fleener says that they had a most enjoyable time and while they seen lots of country he did not find any place where a man could make more money investing in real estate than right here at home. He says that a man will have a lot better opinion of this country after he travels around and views some of the land in the much bragged of southern country.

While feeding his mules at the livery barn of Mellor & Quilty in this city last Sunday morning J. P. Newman was kicked in the head from the effects of which he died in a hospital at Omaha last Monday noon. Mr. Newman had watered and fed his team and was leaving the stall after having given them their feed when he received his injuries. The mule landed with both feet, crushing in the side of his head, and driving part of the skull into the brain. He was taken to Omaha on Sunday morning's passenger, accompanied by Dr. Wilson but died without regaining consciousness. Deceased was about 60 years of age and had been a resident of the Mineola country for about eight years. The remains were shipped to Indiana, where he has a daughter living, for interment.

The Lincoln Commercial Club, which will visit O'Neill, October 13th is traveling by special train, the long trip of 1,387 miles requiring unusual accommodations for the convenience of the big crowd of Lincoln boosters. "Lincoln delivers the goods," is the slogan chosen for this trip and the representatives of the seventy-five firms included in the trip are ready to prove this statement. The train will consist of two standard twelve-section sleepers, one sixteen-section tourist and a dynamo baggage car. The entire train will be electric lighted and will be as finely equipped as any tourist train in the west. Although the Lincoln Commercial Club is the sponsor of the trip all of the members will wear ribbons with this inscription—"Jobbers and Manufacturers Association—Lincoln."
