The Chicago Cubs seem to be in the Jeffries class—they can't come back.

The Dahiman wave is receding and indications are now that Aldrich will have an overwhelming majority in the state.

Would the Senator Hitchcock has probably decided that Edgar Howard had more than a bob tush when he asked for his resignation from the democratic ticket.

It is admitted by many local democrats that Edgar Howard's exposure of Congressman Hitchcock's connection with the Bartley defalcation, has sounded the death-knell of his political ambitions.

W. A. Gobie, the republican candidate for state senator from this district, is an attorney in the active practice of this profession at Butte and is well qualified to ably represent the people of this district at Lincoln next winter.

It should not be overlooked by republicans that we have a splendid state ticket in the field this year. It is very important that the state offices be filled by able efficient men, and the republican party takes pride in the type of men that have been elected for these positions.

The death of Senator Dolliver of Iowa, which occurred at his home in Ft. Dodge last Saturday, removes from the United States senate its greatest orator and from the ranks of the progressives one of its ablest and most powerful champions. His death is a loss to his country.

Atkinson Graphic: D. H. Cronin and H. A. Allen, the republican candidate for the legislature from this county, are old-time residents of the county and are well known to a large majority of the voters in the district, who know who they are, where they live and what they stand for.

It was announced in Wednesday's State Journal that Governor Shallenberger would appoint Arthur F.
 Mullen attorney general to fill out the unexpired term of Attorney General Thompson, provided the latter resigns. Mr. Thompson is now filling an important position in the legal department of the government at Washington, to which he was appointed by President Taft, and his resignation as attorney general is expected about the first of the month.

Bartley and Hitchcock.

Lincoln Journal, Oct. 12th, 1910—In response to a demand for proof of his charge that G. M. Hitchcock, candidate for the U. S. Senatorship, was connected with the Bartley state treasury scandal of 15 years ago, Edgar Howard publishes in his paper, The Columbus Telegram, a startling facsimile letter written on World Herald stationery and signed by G. M.
 Hitchcock. It is addressed to "Hon.
 Joseph S. Bartley, state treasurer," not to J. S. Bartley personally. It reads as follows:
 Personal.

Omaha, Nebraska, May 30, 1895, Hon. Joseph S. Bartley, state treasurer, Lincoln, Neb.
 Dear Sir:—Referring to (blank) conversation with you I beg to say that I would like to make out notes as follows:
 One due September 1,.....$200
 One due October 1,.....100 One due November 1,.....100 One due December 1,.....100 One due January 1, 1896.....500

The latter I might ask to have extended in part. The others would be paid at maturity with interest. Will of course pay the interest on present note. Will this be satisfactory?
 Yours truly,

G. M. Hitchcock."

This is the most extraordinary ex-posure yet made in connection with the Bartley defalcation. Only once before has anything like it appeared in print. Nine years ago almost to a day the World Herald drove Regent Gould from the republican state ticket because his bank had borrowed a thousand dollars of state money.
 When the facts became known through the blackest of World Herald headlines, Mr. Gould tendered his resignation to the republican state central committee.

Mr. Howard has exceeded all expectations in the suddenness and dumfounding nature of his evidence. The state will now await action by Mr.
 Hitchcock with lively interest. The proper course for him to take, unless he is able to prove this letter to be a forgery, was outlined by his own paper in October 1901.
