SENATOR DOLLIVER DIES SUDDENLY AT HIS HOME SATURDAY

Iowa's Senior Senator Succumbs to Heart Failure After Short Illness.

Fort Dodge, Ia., Oct. 18 .- Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver died at his esidence here at 7:30 o'clock Saturday night, while one of his attending physicians, Dr. E. M. Van Patten, was examining the distinguished statesman's heart with a stethoscope. His death followed an acute attack of stomach trouble, which affected his heart. His physicians announced last night that his death was directly due to dilation Senator Dolliver had so far recovered his strength as to be able to work about his lawn. He had been up all day and Saturday night entered his sitting room for the daily consultation with his physician.

The senator informed Dr. Van Pat-ten that he was feeling much improved, and that he believed he had about re-covered his normal strength. Dr. Van Patten cautioned him about becoming too anxious to again resume his work and then began the examination of the heart.

The senator was sitting in a large Morris chair when the physician began the examination of his patient's heart. Ill for Some Time.

Senator Dolliver's illness dates back over a year and a half ago. Before going to Washington for the last session of congress he had been slightly ill, but it was not regarded as especial-

Last spring he had trouble with one Last spring he had trouble with one of his eyes and submitted to an operation. A few weeks later word was received in Fort Dodge that he was confined to his bed on account of illness, the exact nature of which was not made known. It was given out here by his intimate friends that he was threatened with a general physical collapse.

At the close of congress, Senator Dolliver announced that he would take a long rest and that he would go to New Mexico to recuperate his health. He spent a few weeks in that state and returned to Iowa, declaring that the loward climate was good enough for him. Iowa climate was good enough for him, lowa climate was good enough for him, and that he would remain in this state until congress convened again.

Senator Dolliver announced before the republican state convention in Iowa that he was in the best of health and that his rest had restored his normal health. He was chosen permanent chairman of the convention.

Overwork Affected Health.

At the beginning of Senator La Follette's campaign in Wisconsin, Senator Dolliver announced his intention of entering that state to assist his candidate. didacy. In the meantime, however, he had gone into Ohio and Indiana to investigate some records relative to the international rubber international rubber trust. He worked hard gathering his data, and this added work seemed again to affect his health.

Senator Dolliver made several speeches in Wisconsin in the interest of Senator La Follette's candidacy. At Milwaukee he was taken ill and returned to his home at Fort Dodge. His illness was not regarded as serious, however. About two weeks ago he went to tay layer. to Jewell Junction, Ia., on business, and while there he contracted a heavy cold. It was feared for a time that he had contracted pneumonia. He was unable to shake off his illness, and a week ago, on the advice of physicians, he took to his bed.

Physicians diagnosed his case as stomach trouble, which interfered with his heart action.

The funeral will be held Thursday.

UNITARIAN DELEGATES

ELECT STATE OFFICERS Davenport, Ia., Oct. 18.—"Unitarian Insurgency" was the subject of an address by Rev. John W. Day, of St. Louis, to the annual conference of the Louis, to the annual conference of the here yesterday afternoon. Rev. Lewis G. Wilson, of Boston, spoke of the mission of the free church.

The conference elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, Granville B. Healy, Sioux City; vice president, Rev. Robert E. Ramsay, Davenport; secretary, Rev. Eleanor E. Gordon, Hamilton, Ill.; treasurer, Henry H. Griffiths, Des Moines; trustees, Rev. Mary A. Safford, Des Moines; Mrs. Mary Emsley A. Adams, Mason City; Rev. Manley B. Townsend, Sioux City; Johnson Brigham, Des Moines; Rev. Robert S. Lohring, Iowa City. Rev. Robert S. Lohring, Iowa City.

HASTY MARRIAGE DISCLOSED.

Ida Grove, Ia., Oct. 18.—A romance culminated in the district court in this culminated in the district court in this city today before Judge Z. A. Church, in which the participants are both past the half century mark in age, when Robert Huston was granted a divorce from his wife, Rose Huston. Mr. Huston is one of the pioneer and wealthy citizens of Ida county and about a year ago met the woman who became Mrs. Huston No. 2 in Ingersoll park, Chicago, and in less than 24 hours she became his wife. They took up their residence in Ida Grove and lived together about nine months, when they together about nine months, when they parted and the wife brought suit for alimony and divorce. After entering suit the attorneys got together and effected settlement on a monetary basis and together with her daughter she has gone back to Chicago to live.

MAN ESCAPES INJURY WHEN

TRAIN PASSES OVER HIM Chatsworth, Ia., Oct. 18.—Fred Koch narrowly escaped being killed by getting off the evening train at the back end, over the bar where the door was locked. The train backed up, knocked him down and two cars passed over him. He escaped with a few bruises.

L. R. Crowell, the banker of this place, while hunting in the Bears Ears country of California Park, Colorado, killed a 400-pound bear and two cubs.

MORE MONEY WANTED

FOR HISTORICAL LIBRARY Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 18.—The board of curators of the state historical society has placed its 28th annual report in the hands of Governor Carroll and among other things asks for $6,000 additional for the annual support of the

NORTHERN IOWA TEACHERS

Mason City, Ia., Oct. 18 .- The Northern Iowa Teachers' association adjourned at noon today. The time of holding a future meeting will be left to the executive committee, so as not to conflict with the state meeting. Officers were elected as follows:

President, J. J. McConnell, Coon Rapids; vice president, Sarah F. Rice, Coon Rapids; secretary, Mary A. Faint, Allison; treasurer, Thos. Irish, Dubuque; chairman of executice committee, S. W. Chamberlain, Waterloo.

WELLMAN STARTS ACROSS ATLANTIC IN HIS DIRIGIBLE

Ventures in Doubt as Whether First Trip Will Be a Trial One or the Real Struggle.

New York, Oct. 15.—The New York Times received several dispatches from Wellman during the early afternoon. They were all dated "on board the airship America, at sea, crossing the Atlantic," and were as follows:

"11:00 A. M.—Stopping motor to work wireless. Now going east, northeast. Everything fine."

"11:05 A. M.—I am sending and receiving messages by the Marconi wireless, while the motor is running. We are going 20 knots an hour. Freshnorthwest winds. Fog still thick."

The next to be received was a message addressed to Mrs. Wellman and Mrs. Vaniman. It was timed on board the airship at 11:30 a. m., and said:

"All going fine, headed east northeast. Goodbye.

"Wellman-Vaniman."

This is taken to indicate that Wellman intends to head the

This is taken to indicate that Well-man intends to head the America straight for Europe.

Now York, Oct. 15.—The airship America, with Walter Wellman and his men on board was making favorable progress over the Atlantic in a northeasterly direction at 1:45 this afternoon. This information was contained in a dispatch received by the Associated Press at 2 p. m. It was dated "on board the airship America, crossing the Atlantic, 1:45 p. m., October 15," and read:
"The sea is smooth. We are not tober 15," and read:

"The sea is smooth. We are not crowding the motor hard. Averaging about 15 knots an hour. All going well.
"Wellman."

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 15.—At 11:05 the first wireless dispatch from the American was received here, "Headed northeast," It said. "All well on board; machinery working fine. Goodbye. J. Irwin."

Goodbye. J. Irwin."

Another message received here at 12 o'clock brought the news from Wellman that the start has been made for Europe. The American is making 20 knots an hour, according to Wellman, with the course laid east by northeast. "All well on board. Fog lifting at 11:15 and every bit of machinery working smoothly," says the message. The first message from Wellman and his crew to the local men who backed his enterprise arrived at 1 p. m. It was directed to Joseph W. Salus, president of the local syndicate which has supported the project. It says:
"All did nobly. We are doing our best to repay your loyal support.
"Wellman."

"Wellman."
Wireless Operator Miller, just before noon had again spoken to the America through a vessel between the airship and the shore. While the message was not entirely plain, its purport was that Wellman and his crew had decided to make the daring attempt to reach Europe.

make the daring attempt to reach Europe.

"We are headed due northeast, but have taken no observations and will not know our exact location until noon," it read.

The American wireless apparatus has a radius of about 100 miles.

Word was received here this afternoon from the weather bureau at Washington that the West Indian hurricane is coming up the coast.

An attempt is being made by Wellman's friends to reach him and warn him to clear from the track of the storm.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 15 .- The ong deferred attempt of Walter Wellman, journalist, aerenaut and explorer, to cross the Atlantic from the United States to Europe in a dirigible airship was begun this morning at an early hour, when his balloon, the America, left the hanger here and disappeared to the eastward in a heavy fog.

After weeks of delay, which had aroused doubt in the minds of all but aroused doubt in the minds of all but the staunchest of his supporters that any real attempt would be made to start the flight, news was flashed at 4 o'clock a. m. today that a start would be made this morning. Melvin Vaniman, chief engineer, and F. Murry Simons, navigator, had paced the balloon shed throughout the night, halting their work of examination of every part of the baloon only to look out doors at the weather. loors at the weather.

Partner Wildly Delighted.

Shortly after midnight the wind dropped to a slow southeast breeze, followed by a settling of one of the heaviest fogs known on the coast. Friends of Vaniman, who had stood by him and declared their belief that he would try either with or without his partner, Wellman, were overjoyed when at 4 o'clock Vaniman declared the America would leave the ground within America would leave the ground within the next few hours. It took more than two hours to get

It took more than two hours to get the airship out of the hanger, with the assistance of policemen and firemen, and it was 8:03 when the craft left the ground. It floated into the fog off shore and within five minutes was lost to sight. About 1,000 persons, who had not lost faith in the expedition, saw the start. the start.

When the airship left the ground, Mr. Wellman did not know whether only a test would be made or whether the trip to Europe would be started at once. It depended on how he found things when he got into the air, he when he left here, it was his intention to go north, following the New Jersey coast as far as New York. If he found the airship working to his satisfaction and conditions remained right, he intended to follow the route of steamers up to Nantucket and then turn eastward and follow the tracks of the trans-Atlantic liners across the ocean. He expected to make every effort to NAMED FOR JUDGE.

St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 18.-H. C. Timmonds, of Kansas City, was nomiballoon in case a return is made and balloon in case a return is made and wireless operators on pier stations are being besieged with inquiries in the hope some word of the progress of the America in case the trip to Europe is attempted.

Colonel Potter's small motor yacht towed the airship the few hundred feet necessary to reach the water's edge. There are six men on the airship. They There are six men on the airship. They are provided with provisions sufficient to last a month. The only means of cooking is a small oil stove, but this, Mr. Wellman says, will do all they require. When the airship had sailed about 400 feet from shore it disappeared in the fog. It was estimated that the two engines, which were working perfectly, were pushing the balloon through the air at the rate of 26 miles an hour.

With Europe 3,000 miles away it can readily be calculated how long it will take to reach the other side of the Atlantic ocean.

Crew of the Dirigible.

Crew of the Dirigible.

Crew of the Dirigible.

The crew aboard the America when she left the ground included Walter Wellman, Melvin Vaniman, chief engineer; F. Murray Simons, navigator of the expedition; J. K. Irwin, wireless operator, and Albert Louis Loud and John Aubert, assistant engineers. The America is a larger craft than the one in which Wellman started for the north pole. The airship's gas bag is shaped like a cigar and is 228 feet long. Its width is about 52 feet and, is said to be capable of lifting nearly 12 tons.

ly 12 tons. The passenger car is 156 feet long, the floor of which is a flat tank in which the gasoline is stored. The America carries three gasoline engines. One is a donkey and the other two are for motive power. They are in the center and are of about 80 horsepower. Beneath the car hangs a life boat 27 feet long to be used if the balloon is wrecked.

Strung beneath the car is a 330-foot equilibrator, which takes the place of Strung beneath the car is a 330-foot equilibrator, which takes the place of a drag rope used on balloons. The equilibrator consists of a strong steel cable to which is attached 30 small steel tanks, each carrying 75 pounds of gasoline and 40 wooden blocks. The blocks are about 20 inches long. The equilibrator makes it necessary to carry ballast. It is intended that the balloon shall sail along at a height of about shall sail along at a height of about 200 feet.

If it settles close to the water the wood blocks and the tanks would float and relieve it of some of its weight. As the gasoline is required the steel cable will be pulled up into the car of the balloon and a tank emptied. The America carries 9,000 pounds of gaso-

The America is as thoroughly equipped with sextants, compasses and other instruments for locating positions or the big ocen liners.

Last Glimpse of Expedition.

The captain of the yacht Olive, when it returned to the inlet, said when he had the last glimpse of the airship her engineers were not working. A member of the crew shouted that the balloon would be kept in the air and every effort, would be made to keen the engineers. effort would be made to keep the en-gines in good shape for a trip across the ocean. The captain did not know whether the engines had not yet been started or whether there was difficulty in making them run.

After the airship rose and went cut.
of sight it developed that one member of the crew had been left behind. He is Jean Jacon, the French motor ex-pert. It is not known whether he was at the hanger when the balloon was brought out. Jacon is said to have had some differences with Mr. Wellman over wages.

* WOMEN APPEAL TO POLICE TO PREVENT MASQUERADING

Pittsburg, Oct. 18.—The Allegheny County Women's Christian Temperance union has started an active campaign to enlist the aid of the police to prohibit the masquerading of young women and girls in men's clothing on Hallowe'en.

Mrs. S. L. McCullough was named chairman of a committee which will call on Mayor Magee, and ask him to issue an order and ask him to issue an order restraining the "disgraceful"

"The fact that girls go into places dressed in men's clothes that they would not dare enter in their own attire, seems to be sufficient reason for our protest," said Mrs. McCullough.

"They go into cafes and saloons and conduct themselves in a significant manner."

vicious manner.' *******

EPISCOPALIANS REFUSE TO CHANGE CHURCH NAME

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 18 .- The proposal to change the name of the church was lost by one vote in the house of deputies of the Episcopal convention

Arguments for and against revision of the title to the book of common prayer by dropping the word "Protestant" and inserting the words "Holy Catholic church" had been made by some of the ablest speakers in the house of deputies some of the ablest speakers in the house of deputies.

The resumption of the debate on the proposed change of name was marked by tense interest. Rev. Carl E. Grammer, rector of St. Stephens church, Philadelphia, was the first speaker in opposition to the change.

Mr. Grammer declared that the prayer book was the Episcopal church's own, not that of the Catholic church, and should not be labeled as

NEW YORKERS CARRY OFF HONORS AT NEW ORLEANS

New Orleans, La., Oct. 18.—The Irish-American Athletic club of New York rolled up 51 points in the junior cham-pionship meet of the Amateur Athletic union at Tulane university stadium yesterday, three times as many as their nearest competitors. They promise to trans-Atlantic liners across the ocean. He expected to make every effort to keep in the steamship tracks so in case he met with accident he would be close to steamers with wireless, with which the airship is also equipped, and could be quickly rescued if the crew was compelled to take to the life boat attached to the America.

Just before starting, Chief Engineer Vaniman informed Mrs. Vaniman and friends that there is every reason to believe the weather conditions will warrant the effort to cross the ocean. Thousands of people are on the beach and board walk watching for the big SEWARD, ALASKA. - The famous Bogoslov volcano in the Aleutian islands is in more violent eruption than monds, of Kansas City, was nominated by the democratic state committee today for judge of the supreme court of Missouri, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of J. S. Fox.

GUILTY OF MURDER.

Ardmore, Okla., Oct. 18.—The jury in the case of A. Washmood, charged with the murder of Ben Collins, a United States deputy marshal near Emet in 1996, returned a verdict today giving him a death sentence.

AFFINITY AFFAIR OF IOWA HUSBAND IS AIRED IN COURT

Leaves His Wife at Denison and Takes His Stenographer to Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 17.—The legal spotlight has been turned on the shame of W. D. Faus and Erma A. Morgan, revealing a husband's neglect of his wife and children and the hold another woman has had on him. Until about four years ago the Faus family of four lived happily. The man was a good husband, father and provider. Then "the other woman" entered.

E. J. Fleming, a lawyer who has volunteered to help the free legal aid bureau, recently received a letter from Mrs. W. D. Faus, now in Denison, Ia., telling of her troubles, and asking that the bureau do semething with her husband. J. J. McGraw, a detective, arrested Faus yesterday on a charge of non-support. Later the woman, who gave the name of Morgan, was arrested at the house where she and Faus have been living. at the house where she and Faus have been living.

In the North Side municipal court this morning, it developed that Faus first met the woman while he and his family lived in Omaha, four years ago, family lived in Omaha, four years ago, When Faus moved to Corwith, Ia., the woman followed and became his book-keeper. He was a contractor. From Corwith Faus moved to Great Bend, Kan., the woman again following. She worked for him until last November, when she left and came to Kansas City. About seven months ago Faus came to Kansas City, leaving his family at Great Bend. He established himself in Great Bend. He established himself in the concrete contracting business here, and went with the woman to live at the place on Forty-seventh street. They kept two boarders to help pay the rent—an old man and his daughter. Faus said he and his wife had been separated a number of times the last separated a number of times the last four years and that they could not get along together.

"Wasn't it because of this other woman?" Judge Burney asked.

Faus made no denial. He said he sent his wife money about a month ago and that he expected to send more. and that he expected to send more

Husband and Letters Kind. Husband and Letters Kind.

Mrs. Faus, in her letter, said he had sent her $15 in the last eight weeks. She spoke of "the other woman" as Miss Morley, who, she said, followed her husband wherever he went. The husband wrote kind and sympathetic letters, Mrs. Faus said, and she believed he would do right by her and the children if it were not for the Morley woman. The two children are 6 and 13 years old.

The only explanation Faus and the 6 and 13 years old.

The only explanation Faus and the woman would make for their relations was that Mrs. Faus had full cognizance all the time. "Miss Morley admitted was that Mrs. Faus had the committed to the court that Mrs. Faus once had written her to "please let her husband alone." She gave her age as 31 years. Faus was fined $200 and sent to the workhouse. He may be paroled later if he can give proof that he will support his family.

or this family.

The woman was turned over to the public welfare board, which ordered Detective McGraw to take her to the Union depot and put her on the train for Des Moines. She had only 10 cents in her possession, she said. The welling her possession, she said. in her possession she said. T

EMMET PIONEER DEAD. Estherville, Ia., Oct. 17.—The funeral of George F. Schaad, sr., was held from the Baptist church Tuesday. Mr. from the Baptist church Tuesday. Mr. Schaad, who was 86 years of age at death, was a pioneer settler of Emmet county. He was born in Lanbach, Germany, June 25, 1824, and moved to New York in 1847. In 1849 he was married to Miss Lillian Hoy, and in 1856 they moved to Waterloo, In 1859 they moved to Algona. In 1864 Mr. Schaad joined the state militia and served through the civil war. In 1865 he homesteaded in Emmet county, where he has lived continuously since.

continuously since.

··· AGED HUSBAND AND WIFE DIE SAME DAY

Storm Lake, Ia., Oct. 17.—Yesterday morning occurred the death of S. D. Eadle, aged 89 years, and during the afternoon his aged wife also passed away. This couple was among the earliest settlers in this part of the state and they were widely known and respected. Nearly 20 years ago they celebrated their years ago they celebrated their golden wedding. "In life they were united, and in death not divided." The funerals of both will be held on Saturday at the Presbyterian church.

DETECTIVE ACCUSED OF MALICIOUS THREATS

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 17.—C. P. Browning, head of the Browning Detective agency, of Des Moines, was arrested this afternoon on an indictarrested this afternoon on an indictment returned today, accusing him of malicious threats to extort money from persons captured by himself and associates in alleged raids. Browning was a star witness against Chief of Police Yeager in recent ouster proceedings against the official. It was upon evidence given by Browning that the indictment was based. Other indictments will follow.

A STATE HOME FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 17.—A movement for a state home for crippled children of Iowa was launched today at the state convention of King's Daughters. The old officers of Mary Dickinson chapter were re-elected for the ensuing year as follows: Chairman, Dr. Jennie McCowen, of Davenport; secretary, Mrs. Reading; treasurer, Emelie M. Witting.

DECEMBER AND NOVEMBER WED Marshalltown, Ia., Oct. 17.—At the assembly hall of the Iowa Soldiers' assembly hall of the lowa Soldiers Home last evening was held the marriage of Exekial Grandon, aged 80 years, of Renwick, Humboldt county, and Mrs. Anna M. Hughes, aged 70, of Colfax. Both are inmates of the soldiers' home. Both will take their discharges from the home at once.

INSANE MAN MAY BE ONE WHO STARTED FIRES Oskaloosa, Ia., Oct. 17.-Jess Montgomery, aged 35, supposed to be insane, was caught yesterday by detectives after a surveillance of over two weeks, in the act of setting fire to a large field of corn. Damage to the extent of $5,000 dollars has been sustained in this community recently, supposedly by an incendity. Detectives posedly by an incendiary. Detectives Palek and Parmenter, of Des Moines, watched Montgomery as a suspect with the foregoing result. He is in jail awaiting the action of the grand jury on the charge of arson.

STANLEY KETCHEL IS KILLED IN A FIGHT

Champion Middleweight Pugilist Gets Into Quarrel and Death Is Result.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 18 .- Stanley Ketchel died here Saturday night in a local hospital as the result of his wounds.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 15 -Stanley Ketchel, middleweight champion pugilist, whose real name is Stanislaus Klecal, was shot and perhaps fatally wounded on a ranch five miles out of Conway, Mo., where he was recuperating, at 6:30 o'clock this morning by Walter A. Hurtz, a quarrelsome ranch hand. Early this morning Ketchel was unconscious, and was believed to be in unconscious, and was believed to be in a dangerous condition.

The bullet entered Ketchel's right lung and so far no effort has been made, because of the patient's low condition, to probe for it. Three surgeons brought in from Springfield, Mo., are attending the wounded man. Hurtz escaped to the woods and is being chased by men and bloodhounds.

No Witness to Shooting.

No Witness to Shooting. The shooting took place while Ketchel was eating breakfast at 6:30. There were no witnesses, and as Ketchel almost immediately lapsed into unconsciousness, the exact events leading up to the shooting could not be

The man who did the shooting was a farm hand recently employed by Mr. Dickerson and about whom little is known. Hurtz and Ketchel exchanged known. Hurtz and Ketchel exchanged words last night. Hurtz retired in an ugly mood, but nothing especially was thought of the matter. This morning Ketchel was seated at the breakfast table alone, when Hurtz the breakfast table alone, when Hurtz entered the ranch house and, pointing his rifle at the fighter, demanded, "throw up your hands." Ketchel apparently remained cool. Instead of complying, he arose. His back was helf turned toward his assailant when Hurtz, but a few feet away, fired.

Bullet Enters Lung.

Bullet Enters Lung.

The bullet struck Ketchel below the right shoulder blade and, as it developed later, ranged upward and entered the right lung.

Ketchel fell to the floor. A moment Mater Charles Bailey, superintendent of the ranch, rushed in from another part of the building. Hurtz was just appearing through the doorway.

"He shot me," said the prostrate fighter as he feebly pointed in the diection taken by Hurtz.

After relating the brief details of the January 1 and constitutes the chief con-

After relating the brief details of the January 1 and constitutes the chief conunconsciousness. When Balley realized the situation Hurtz was out of sight speeding for the heavy timber along the Osage river bottoms.

It was 45 minutes before medical aid reached Ketchel. Then a physician arrived from Conway, five miles away. Little could be done for Ketchel, who in the meantime had been removed to an upstairs room. an upstairs room.

PUGILIST KILLED IN FIGHT IN OKLAHOMA

Many Women and Children See Mill, Which Has Fatal Termination.

Enid, Okla., Oct. 18.—A prize fighter known as "Kid" Fisher was killed in the 10th round of a fight at Meno. Okla., near here, last night. Fisher died at 3 o'clock this morning of a broken neck, The fighter who dealt the blow was Frank Hall, of Lahoma. The fight was Frank Hall, of Lahoma. The fight was held at Meno, 15 miles west of Enid, The 11th round of the fight opened with Fisher exhausted, but his manager urged him not to throw up the sponge. Hall struck his opponent apparently at will, delivering a left to the stomach and a right to the jaw with strange regularity. Finally Fisher staggered and as he fell Hall planted a right on his neck. Fisher collapsed and never regained consciousness.

Immediately after the fighter's death the coroner's jury met and returned a

Immediately after the fighter's death the coroner's jury met and returned a verdict that Fisher had met death from the effect of blows delivered by Hall, who has disappeared. It is believed he will be arrested before night. The fight was witnessed by 400 persons, including many women and children.

FAITH HEALING FAILS TO SAVE BURNT CHILD

Mother, a Christian Scientist, Refuses to Permit Doctors in House.

St. Louis, Oct. 18.—Catherine Green 4 years old, is dead of burns, which were dressed temporarily in the ab-sence of the child's mother, by phy-sicians who were dismissed when Mrs. McRee Green, a Christian Scientist be-liever returned home from shopping. Despite the warning of three phy sicians that the child was in a critica condition Mrs. Green said she professe the Christian science faith and intended to depend on healers of her faith to cure the wounded girl. A woman healer first called upon refused to attend the child until morning. Dr. F. D. Johns, a faith healer, consented to call. Catherine Green died before he arrived at the house.

at the house. NEW YORK.—Two New York brokerage houses failed yesterday, with liabilities aggregating nearly $2,000,000. One is the stock exchange firm of Charles Minzesheimer & Co., the other the firm of Thomas G. Gaylord, who was engaged in business under the name of Latham Alexander & Co., cotton and stock brokers. In each case an assignment for the benefit of creditors was made. Bainbridge Colby, attorney for the firm, was named as assignee by the Minzesheimer company.

CHICAGO.-In accordance with the provisions of the Aldrich-Vreeland currency law, Chicago bankers yesterday formed a currency association sim-ilar to the organization in New York. George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National bank, was chosen president.

PUEBLO, COLO.-Two men were burned to death and 13 were seriously injured at the Minnequa plant of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company yes-terday afternoon, when a pot of molten metal was overturned.

GAYNOR IS ROASTED BY HIS UNDERSTUDY

John Purroy Mitchel, Former Acting Mayor, Writes Tart Letter on Gambling.

New York, Oct. 17 .- "The way to eliminate gambling in New York is not write letters to Sister Mary, Little Dog Spot and James Creelman, but to investigate and take action."

This is John Purroy Mitchel's tart statement made last night in reply to a letter sent by Mayor Gaynor to Police Commissioner Baker, in which the mayor deplores the anti-vice crusade recently undertaken by Mitchel as act-ing mayor, during Mr. Gaynor's conval-

A list of alleged disreputable resorts sent by Mitchel to Police Commissioner Baker has come to the mayor's attention, and he brands the list in his letter as similar to a list "made up in a wholly untrustworthy newspaper of fice for scandal and sensation," and too inacurate to be made the basis of official action.

too inacurate to be made the basis of official action.

As proof of inaccuracies the mayor cited that five of the addresses mentioned are on the site of the new Pennsylvania station, and ordered Baker to apologize to the owners of certain houses stigmatized.

Mr. Mitchel, when shown the mayor's letter, did not mince words in explaining his position. He had sent two lists to Commissioner Baker, he said one containing addresses which had been verified as undesirable, the other with addresses made in complaints which were submitted for verification

BARNEY STATUE HAS DRAPERY ON IT NOW

Clothes Are Placed on the Fig. ure Which Created a Sensation at Washington.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The life-sized narble figure of Miss Natalie Barney, ying on the lawn of the family man-lion at fashionable Sheridan circle, has been draped. Henceforth it will be hid-been draped. Henceforth it will be hidden from the eyes of the curious and prying. The throngs of cosmopolitar visitors will pass by and crane their necks, but chiseled outlines of the form will be invisible.

Two pieces of thick linen cloth have been carefully thrown over the recumbent effigy. They are so dense in fiber as to prevent an analysis of the artistic skill beneath their folds. It is not known who rendered this service Through a greater portion of several days the figure was exposed, but suddenly the change came and draperies appeared where before was nothingness.

The situation was thus explained by The situation was thus explained by an orator on a sightseeing wagon:
"On your left, ladies and gentlemen, lies an undraped figure; it is not human; it just looks that way. It is the statue of Miss Natalie Barney, one of our most fashionable residents. She is a daughter of Mrs. Albert Clifford Barney, Miss Natalie's sister, Miss Laura Alice Barney, made it and shipped it here from Paris.
"The statue was too big to get in the doorway. The Barneys were away and the drayman didn't know what to do with it, so he dumped it on the lawn."

SPANISH REPUBLICANS ARE WITHOUT CHANCE

So Declares Premier, Who Says His Program Has Disarmed Them.

Paris, Oct. 17.-The Madrid corre Faris, Oct. 17.—The Madrid correspondent of the Matin sends his paper an interview with Premier Canalekas, in which the minister says there is no chance for a republic in Spain, as the republicans have no great leaders and their ranks are hopelessly divided.

Moreover, the radical nature of his program, involving a struggle with the vatican, the premier says, is disarming the republicans, as anti-clericalism, is one of their strongest principles. is one of their strongest principles.

Madrid, Oct. 14.—Largely attended meetings in memory of Francisco Ferrer, the alleged revolutionist who was shot by the government on October 13, 1909, were held in this city yesterday and addresses made by republicans and socialist deputies. The proceedings passed off quietly.

GOTHAM POLITICIAN ACCUSED OF BRIBERY

Frank J. Gardner, Former State Senator, Is Indicted by the Grand Jury.

New York, Oct. 17.—Frank J. Gardner, of Brooklyn, a former state senator, who was arrested in Scranton last night charged with attempted brietry of Congressman Otto G. Foelker, also a former state senator, to vote against the anti-race track bill in Albany in 1908, was today indicted by the New York county grand jury on the charge of an attempt to bribe a public official.

Scranton, Pa., Oct. 17 .- Former State Senator Frank J. Gardner, of Brook-lyn, N. Y., who was arrested here last night in connection with the bribery night in connection with the bribery charges under investigation by the legislative committee today applied to Judge Newcomb, in the Lackawanna county court, for his release on a writ of habeas corpus. The case was continued until tomorrow morning and Gardner was remanded.

Charitable associations in Frankfort, Germany, operate lodging houses, restaurants, eating rooms, canteens, etc., for the benefit of the poor. They are conducted on strictly business methods. Dinner—soup, meat, vegetables—is provided for a fraction more than 8 cents. Until the recent increase of prices for foodstuffs the meal was given for less than 8 cents. Lodging is provided at from 38 to 60 cents a week.

Fireboats, owned by several of the larger cities, are now supplied with masts to elevate the discharge nozzles, on the same principle that water towers are used by land firemen.