Obituary.
 Mrs. Catherine Cook, one of the pioneer residents of this county died last Monday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Cassie Kennedy, at Jersey City, N. J., where she has resided the past year.
 Deceased was about 90 years of age and had been in poor health the past four or five years.
 About twenty five years ago the family moved to this county from Pennsylvania and located upon a farm eight miles north of this city where deceased resided until she moved into town about two years ago. About a year ago she went to New Jersey to make her home with her eldest daughter. The remains were shipped to this city arriving here last evening and the funeral will be held from the Catholic church tomorrow morning. Deceased leaves the following children to mourn her demise, all of whom will be present at the funeral: John, Mike and Henry of this city, Mrs. Kennedy of Jersey City, Mrs. Margaret Lewis of Meadow Grove, Mrs. Nellie McHugh of Aspen, Colo., and Mrs. Thomas Donohoe of this city.
