El Paso, Tex., Nov. 26 .- While it is admitted that, with the tightening of the censorship established by the Mexican government, only such in-formation as is favorable to the gov-ernment is being allowed to come through, it is the general belief that the situation is now pretty well under control. control.

Sympathizers of the revolutionists here, however, claim that the present full merely marks the strengthening of the insurgent organization, and that the real force of the uprising will be felt within a few days. Minneapolis In Dry Belt. There are 2,200,000 people in Minne-sota, a comparatively small portion of whom are Indians. The national pro-hibitory laws, which Secretary Bal-linger has determined to enforce apply even to the city of Minneapolis with a population of almost 300,000. St. Paul, ncross the Mississippi river, is outside of the "Indian country," and therefore exempt from national supervision. In all, almost 2,000,000 people will be in "dry" territory. Although the prohi-bition movement has gained great head-way in the state—in the neighborhood of 1,200 towns have stopped the sale of liquor—the action of the interior de-partment will give it a decided impetus toward the goal it desires to react. The Indian treatles which will be the sause of the saloon man's woe are six in number. They were executed between 1850 and 1865 and by their terms cede to the United States lands comprising about three-fourths of the total area of the state of Minnecota. It regards it as highly probable that congress will be called upon by some Minnesota cit-izens to take action, since it is in with-in the province of congress to abrogate the prohibitory provisions by declaring a region no longer Indian country. The same result, it has been suggest-ed, might be secured by endeavoring to have congress neglet to make any appropriation for the prevention of the introduction of liquor into the Indian, country. The latter course, however, would not prevent prosecutions in the country. The latter course, however, would not prevent prosecutions in the ourts.
