Word was received the first of the week that the doctors in charge of Walter Martin at Omaha had given up hopes of his recovery and his mother and sisters were sent for here, they now being with Walter at the hospital. Emma Obershaw has begun suit in district court for divorce from her husband, Henry Obershaw. Desertion is alleged. They were married at North Bend in 1900 and have one child, the custody of which, together with divorce and alimony, the wife asks. (The petition states defendant has $5,000 worth of real estate in Lyman county, South Dakota, where he now is, and also some personal property.)

The next meeting will be at Mrs. Bright's February 1st.

Atkinson Pair Skip.

Warrants were issued in county court Monday for the arrest of Levert J. Bacon and Jennie Bolles, both of Atkinson. The woman's brother, John Bolles, swears to the warrant for the arrest of his sister for a statutory offense and Bacon's wife swears to the other warrant for the arrest of her husband.

It seems, according to the complaint, that the pair have been unduly familiar for some time and Saturday or Sunday left Atkinson together and are over somewhere in the vicinity of Alliance. Bacon's wife was in O'Neill Monday enlisting the aid of the county authorities to apprehend her fleeing husband and his affinity, who is a young unmarried woman. She will have him arrested if caught on the grounds of desertion, while the formal charge against the Bolles woman is of a statutory nature.

They were traced to Crawford and thence down to Alliance but have not been arrested yet.

County Wins Suit.

An echo of the Slattery murder trial is heard again in a late decision of the supreme court. Rafe Shaw brought suit against Holt county for services as a special bailiff during that trial and secured judgment in the district court for $208.60. The supreme court reverses the judgment of the district court of this county and dismisses the case, holding that there is no authority in law for a district judge to appoint a special bailiff to hold a witness for an indefinite period.

In this case, James J. Thompson, a witness for the state, failed to furnish bond for $1,000 to appear at the trial and Shaw was appointed a special bailiff and had Thompson in custody for a period of eighty-eight days. He filed a claim for the services and the same was not allowed when suit was brought in district court. The plaintiff in this case is a son of the murdered man, Henry Shaw, and the witness Thompson was working for the Shaws.

County Attorney Whelan received notice yesterday from the clerk of the supreme court of the reversal of judgment and dismissal of the case.

The Live Stock Market.

South Omaha, January 24, 1911.—The cattle market has been holding remarkably steady for the past ten days. There has been a good demand for all desirable cattle. The outlet for cows and butcher stock has been broad and all offerings have been readily taken at prices that were generally firm. The feeder demand is also keeping up and the values, we think, are relatively much too high as compared with the present price of fat cattle. However there seems to be plenty of buyers at these prices.

We quote:
Fair to choice heaves..... 5.85@ 6.60
Others down to..... 4.90
Cornfed cows and heifers up to 5.25
Fair to good..... 3.75@ 4.40
Canners and cutters..... 3.00@ 3.50
Veal calves..... 4.00@ 8.25
Bulls, stags, etc..... 3.30@ 4.90
Good to choice feeders..... 5.00@ 5.90
Others down to..... 3.50
Stock heifers..... 3.50@ 4.50

The hog market is 25 to 30c lower than it was on the 19th inst.

Receipts have been showing up a little more liberal, but we do not think will be sufficient to put prices down much more. Bulk $7.55 to 7.65, top 7.70.

The past week has shown declining values at the sheep barn. Our prices are relatively high compared with other markets. We do not look for much of a change this week.

Wrestler Tosses Three.

The handicap at the opera house last Thursday night was easily won by the professional wrestler, C. A. Temple, known as Young Gotch. The agreement stipulated that Temple was to throw the three local men, Charley Peterson, Tom Donlon and Tom Coyne, which he accomplished in considerably less than the allotted time. The exhibition drew a large crowd, many coming in from the country and also from adjacent towns. Temple met his match at Fremont Tuesday night when he failed to put Tom Gately, champion of the state, down in one hour.
