Say, Mister!

You know that the value of city lots are increasing fast. The best locations are being bought by persons who intend to build. This will increase prices. If you intend to build sometime or wish to double your money in speculation give this matter your attention. I have choice lots in north, west and east portion of town that I will sell right. I require only a small payment down.—T. V. Golden. 333

While it is often impossible to prevent an accident, it is never impossible to be prepared—it is not beyond any one's purse. Invest 25 cents in a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and you are prepared for sprains, bruises and like injuries. Sold by all dealers.

Scott's Emulsion

is a wonderful food-medicine for all ages of mankind. It will make the delicate, sickly baby strong and well—will give the pale, anemic girl rosy cheeks and rich, red blood. It will put flesh on the bones of the tired, overworked, thin man, and will keep the aged man or woman in condition to resist colds or pneumonia in the winter.

Bill. William? Willie? Will? No Bill! Bill coming soon.

The press says Bill is one of the best of the season.

Bill at the K. C. Opera house next Saturday.

Wm. McDermid of the McDermid Bros. was in town last Saturday and reports a good business and well-pleased crowds, wherever their play, "Bill" has been presented. Come and see Bill at the K. C. Opera House.

Bill the western military drama with its strong dramatic climaxes and strong characters will please you.

Mr D. McDermid who will play the title role in Bill is not a stranger to the theatre goers of O'Neill. Having played here several times, his last visit was last Summer with Elvin Strong Co. You will remember him as Tommy Swift in Thorns and Orange Blossoms and Uncle Obediah in A Prince of Liars.

Mr. McDermid has made many friends in O'Neill, so come out and welcome him with a packed house on next Saturday night.

A few minutes delay in treating some cases of croup, even the length of time it takes to go for a doctor often proves dangerous. The safest way is to keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and at the first indication of croup give the child a dose. Pleasant to take and always cures. Sold by all dealers.

Inman Items.

Mr. Anthony Ruddy, one of the oldest settlers of this community, is seriously ill this week at his home east of this place.

George Reeves, who returned from Omaha, where he has been in the hospital, is able to be around on crutches, his many friends hope he will soon be well again.

Earl, the little son of Wm. Gore is ill, this week with lagrippe.

Courtney Wilcox, the son of E. W., is sick this week.

Henry Towler was sick this week with lagrippe.

Mrs. D. A. Gore, is in Norfolk this week visiting friends and relatives. Hugh Bittner, returned from Ainsworth, this week.

Mr. Cleve Rowe, returned from Ainsworth, this week, he has moved his family to their old residence.

John Bessie, our efficient blacksmith moved into the Ed Pond residence.

Mr. Byron Mossman, and family have moved to the Ralf Clark residence.

Mr. Wilson Bittner, had business at Ewing, this week.

Mr. Ernest Gore, with his hounds, captured a wolf, just west of town.

Do you know that croup can be prevented? Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the croupy cough appears and it will prevent the attack. It is also a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Sold by all dealers.

To Herman Russell and wife, Mary Russell (real name unknown) Agnes Allen and Darrow Investment Company (a corporation) non-resident defendants:

You and each of you will take notice that Martha Maltby has commenced an action in the District Court of Holt County, Nebraska, against you and each of you, the object and prayer of said action being to obtain a decree of the District Court of Holt County, Nebraska, decreeing the plaintiff to be the absolute owner of and entitled to the possession of, the following described real estate, situated in Holt County, Nebraska, to-wit: The south half of the southwest quarter of section twenty two, and the north half of the northwest quarter of section twenty-seven, both in township twenty-eight, north of range thirteen, west of the six principal meridian, plaintiff alleging in said petition that the defendant Herman Russell holds the title to said real estate in trust for and for her use and benefit and that he refused to convey the title of the same to her, the plaintiff in this action, on her request so to do. That the claimed interest of the defendant, Herman Russell, cast a cloud upon the plaintiff's title to said real estate, which ought to be removed by decree of this court and he be decreed to hold the title to said property in trust for the plaintiff.

Plaintiff prays in said petition that she be decreed to be the absolute owner of said real estate, entitled to the possession thereof and that title and her right of possession be quieted and confirmed in her and that the defendants and each of all of them be restrained and perpetually enjoined from asserting any interest in and to said real estate or any part thereof and for other equitable relief.

You are requested to answer said petition on or before the 13th day of February, 1911.

R. R. DICKSON,
Attorney for plaintiff.

In the matter of the estate of Mary Ann May, deceased. Order to Show Cause.

This cause came on for hearing upon the petition of R. R. Dickson, as administrator of the estate of Mary Ann May, deceased praying for license to sell the northwest quarter of section five township twenty-eight range nine west of 6th p. m. in Holt county, Nebraska, for the payment of debts allowed against said estate, and the costs of administering said estate, there not being sufficient personal property to pay said debts and expenses.

It is therefore ordered that all persons interested in said estate appear before me in the district court room in the court house at O'Neill, Holt county, Nebraska, on the 18th day of March A. D. 1911, at the hour of ten o'clock a. m. of said day, to show cause why a license should not be granted to said administrator to sell said real estate above described to pay said debts and expenses.

It is further ordered that all parties interested in said estate should be given notice of this application for license by a publication of this order for four consecutive weeks prior to the 18th day of March A. D. 1911, in The Frontier, a weekly newspaper published at O'Neill, Holt county, Nebraska.

Dated this 1st day of February A. D. 1911.

J. J. HARRINGTON,
Judge of the District Court.
