ANCIENT EMBALMERS.

Motives Which Impelled the Egyptians to Preserve the Dead.
 To appreciate the motives which impelled the ancient Egyptians to invent the art of embalming it is necessary to throw our minds back nearly sixty centuries. Then Egyptians were in the habit of burying their dead in shallow holes scraped in the soil immediately beyond the limits of the narrow strip of cultivated land. As the result of placing the body in hot dry sand it frequently happened that, instead of undergoing a process of decay, it became desiccated and preserved in an incorruptible form for an indefinite time. The burial of valuable and useful objects with the dead naturally led to grave robbing, which was already common in the earliest known prehistoric times in Egypt. This plundering of graves must have taught the people at large that the forces of nature were often sufficient to preserve a dead body. In this way it became a part of the religion of the Egyptians to regard the preservation of the body as the condition of the attainment of immortality. The early Egyptians learned that the body when placed in a coffin or buried in a rock tomb usually underwent decomposition. It was a widespread belief that the stone "ate the flesh"—hence the word "sarcophagus." Artificial mummification, therefore, had its origin in an attempt to deprive the grave of its victory.—British Medical Journal.

PARIS STOCKBROKERS.

When They Fail They Are Always Treated as Criminals.
 An agent de change (Paris stockbroker) can under the rule of the code of commerce never be adjudged bankrupt pure and simple, his insolvency always involving more or less criminal responsibility. In the absence of fraud the penalty is hard labor for a term, but in case of fraud the punishment is no less than hard labor for life. The public, however, never suffers from the insolvency of an agent de change, because his liabilities, no matter what they amount to, are always taken care of and liquidated in full by the other members of the corporation, who contribute obligatorily each year to a sort of insurance fund or reserve for this purpose. Besides, each of them must before being appointed make a deposit of 250,000 or 300,000 francs at the treasury, which allows them an interest of 2½ per cent. An agent de change, according to section 85 of the code of commerce, must not transact any commercial or banking business for his own account. He must have no financial interest in any commercial enterprise, whether in his own name or under an assumed name. He cannot even receive payment or settle any account on behalf of his clients. The penalty for the violation of this rule may be a fine of 3,000 francs and eventually the dismissal of the offender.—Moody's Magazine.

Her Tribute to Emerson.

A poor washerwoman in Concord was seen to be hurrying her work and rolling down her sleeves considerably before her usual hour for leaving.
 "I'm going out," she informed her employer, with a pleased and rather consequential air.
 "Where are you going, Bridget?"
 "To hear Mr. Emerson lecture."
 "Why, he is very deep, Bridget. Most of us can't understand him very well."
 "Oh, I don't understand him, mum, but I like to see him stand up there and talk as if he thought everybody else was as good as he was."
 The great philosopher was absolutely free from pride, and he made his hearers realize his perfect democracy of feeling.

Family Preserves.

The following recipe was sent to the editor of a newspaper who had established a household column. It was evidently given by a person of experience:
 To make a good jam place one finger or possibly two lightly on the upper edge of an open desk or bureau drawer, close the drawer quickly with the other hand and keep closed for two or three seconds.
 Open it, remove the finger or fingers, adding plenty of interjections. This recipe has been tried by every member of my family and has never failed.

Northern Eskimos.

The northern Eskimos have absolutely none of the conveniences of civilization. The weapons they use in the hunt are tipped with bone or, more usually, with native copper, which they work quite skillfully. Bows and arrows and sealing spears, with hide canoes, constitute the outfit. Vegetables are unknown in those latitudes, and they subsist wholly on fish and fish.

An Earthquake.

The secretary of agriculture asked the chief of the weather bureau, "As a scientific man, can you tell me anything definite about an earthquake?"
 "Certainly I can," replied the weather man, who is witty as well as wise. "An earthquake is a great movement in real estate."—St. Louis Republic.

Notice.

To Zeph Chas. Felt, real name unknown, and wife, Mary Felt, real name unknown, the unknown heirs at law and devisees of Thomas A. Moss, deceased, L. F. Moldenhauer, real name unknown, and wife, Caroline Moldenhauer, Seigfried Schulein Merc. Co., non-resident defendants:
 The above named defendants and each of them will take notice that the International Land and Investment company, a corporation, as plaintiff, has commenced an action in the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, against you and each of you, plaintiff alleging in its said petition that it is the absolute owner of and in possession of the following described real estate situated in Holt county, Nebraska, to-wit: The south half of the southeast quarter and the southwest quarter of the southeast quarter of section five, and the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section eight, and the south half of the northeast quarter, and the east half of the southeast quarter of section seventeen, all in township twenty-six, north of range fourteen, west of the six p. m. plaintiff further alleging in said petition that it and its prior grantors have been for more than ten years before the filing of this petition in the actual, continuous, notorious, adverse, visible, exclusive, and open possession of all of the before described real estate under claim of ownership and claiming title under and by virtue of certain deeds of conveyance appearing and being of record in the office of the county clerk of Holt county, Nebraska. That during all of said time that none of the defendants have been in possession of said real estate or any part thereof. That the plaintiff and its prior grantors have at all times for the past ten years and more exercised absolute control and possession over said real estate as hereinbefore stated as owners and have paid the taxes levied and assessed against said real estate.
 Plaintiff further alleges in said petition that none of the defendants have any interest in and to said real estate but that by reason of certain irregularities appearing in certain deeds of conveyance of record in the office of the county clerk of Holt county, Nebraska, and in certain actions commenced in the district court of Holt county, Nebraska, and upon which the title to said land of plaintiff and its grantors are based, that the defendants claim some right, title, lien or interest in or to said real estate, but the plaintiff alleges that they have no claim, right, title, lien or interest in or to said real estate or any part thereof and that their claimed interest casts a cloud upon plaintiff's title which ought to be removed by a decree of this court and they excluded from having or claiming any interest therein.
 Plaintiff prays in said petition that it be adjudged and decreed to be the absolute owner of said real estate and entitled to the absolute possession thereof. That its title and right of possession be quieted and confirmed in it and that the defendants and each and all of them be decreed to have no interest therein and be excluded from having or claiming to have any interest therein and perpetually restrained and enjoined from in any manner interfering with plaintiff's title or right of possession and that the mortgage given by the defendant, L. F. Moldenhauer to M. M. Sullivan and by him assigned to the defendants, Seigfried Schulein Merc. Co., be decreed to be fully paid and satisfied and the defendant required to release the same. That the defendants be required to appear in this court and set forth any interest that they may have or claim to have in or to said real estate to the end that plaintiff's title be quieted and confirmed in it and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable.
 You are required to answer said petition on or before the 8th day of May, 1911.
