Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Reid returned from Beresford, S. D., last Tuesday afternoon where they accompanied the remains of Mrs. Reid's mother, who died in this city last week. Miss Rose Farley, sister of Mrs. Reid, returned with them and will make her home in O'Neill this summer.

Ed. J. Burns, who formerly resided upon a farm six miles northwest of this city but who moved to Fillmore county two years ago, died at his home in Exeter, Neb., on April 7. Mr. Burns' death was very sudden as he was ill but four days, death resulting from gall stones. The many friends of the family in this vicinity tender consolation in their bereavement.

The O'Neill High School base ball team went up to Atkinson last Friday and dropped a game to the Atkinson High School ball team by a score of 1 to 0. Considering that this was the first game of the season the boys put a remarkable swell article of ball. Ryan was on the mound for O'Neill and Miller for Atkinson and they twirled in a mid-season form. A return game will be played in this city in the near future.

A man who was afraid of thunder crawled into a hollow log as a place of safety during a thunder storm. The thunder rolled, and the rain poured down in torrents, and the old log began to swell up till the poor fellow was wedged in so tight that he could not get out. All his past sins began passing before him. Suddenly he remembered he hadn't paid his newspaper subscription, and he felt so small that he was able to back right out.

Now is a good time to take a glance over your backyards and devise some plan to ostracise the fruit cans and rubbish which have accumulated since the last installment was removed. You can generally judge of the occupants of a house by the condition in which the front and back yards are kept. In a general sense we all pride ourselves on being clean and tidy. Home and its surroundings above all places in the world should be scrupulously guarded against contaminating influences.

According to the new reapportionment bill passed by the last legislature the Fifteenth Judicial district now comprises the counties of Holt, Boyd, Rock and Keya Paha. There is not enough litigation in this district to keep a judge busy more than two months in the year, but the tax payers will have to put up the $3,000 per year for the judge and the $1,500 per year for the court reporter just the same. As the work is very light the plum will probably be eagerly sought after by attorneys in this district at the coming election.

E. C. Simmons, deputy state engineer, was in the city Monday having come from Lincoln to find some corners for John Grutch on his farm northwest of town. The corners were located by County Surveyor Norton last fall but the work was not satisfactory to Mr. Grutch and he sent for the state engineer. He put in all day Monday upon the work and Mr. Grutch says that the corners located by him were from two feet to two rods from the corners located by the County Surveyor. Mr. Grutch says that he put down steel stakes and cemented them in and that his corners are now located permanently.

Every laboring poor man should buy himself a town lot, get that paid for, and then work to make the necessary improvements. A little here and a little there will in due time produce you a home of your own, and place you out of the landlords grasp; remember that fifty dollars a year saved in rent, will in a very few years pay for your home, and the money it costs you to move and shift about, without a loss of furniture and time, pay the interest on a five hundred dollar judgment against your property, until you can gradually reduce it to nothing. You can all buy that way—why do you not risk it? If you fail you are no worse off—If you succeed, as any careful man is sure to do, you have made a home and established a basis equal to another's which will start you in business.

Thomas Cantwell, for many years a resident of Verdigris township, this county, died at Creighton, Neb., last Saturday evening. Monday's Norfolk News contained the following account of his death: "Thomas C. Cantwell, proprietor of the Cantwell feed barn, Braach avenue and Third street, and whose residence is at 202 North Eight street, died from heart failure at Creighton early Saturday evening. The remains were brought to Norfolk by Mrs. Cantwell, who was called to Creighton Saturday morning. Mr. Cantwell had gone to Creighton about a week ago on business, and while there suffered a shock several days ago. He had been laid up at the home of friends and was to have come home Saturday when overtaken by the fatal shock. Funeral services will probably be held Tuesday afternoon from the Sacred Heart church."

Ewing Advocate: Last week Harry Stanton went to Omaha with his wife where she had an operation performed at the Methodist hospital and as a result was in a serious condition. However Mrs. Stanton seemed to be gaining and Harry was expected home last Thursday evening. He did not return and Friday his family received a telegram stating that H. W. Stanton was in the general hospital, critically ill and requesting that somebody come. In response Fred left on Saturday's early train for the bedside of his brother, remaining with him until death came Monday. From a statement of the attending physician, death was caused by acute blood poisoning, developing from a scratch which had been neglected, the infectious germs being communicated to the cut by contact to the wearing apparel. The doctor further stated that the process was so acute that from the first no hope was entertained for Harry's recovery. The above are the circumstances surrounding the brief illness and sudden death of one of Ewing's foremost business men. Apparently in perfect health, he had gone to the bedside of his sick wife, intending to return as soon as her condition would permit. But fate determined otherwise. Harry was stricken with the malady in its worst form and without warning. He was beyond the reach of medical aid and today this community is bowed down with grief as a result of his sudden demise.

The following article which appeared in a recent issue of the Music News of Chicago, will be of interest to the many friends of Miss Rose Fallon to O'Neill, Miss Fallon being now in Chicago pursuing her studies in vocal music. "The Bible class of the Jackson Boulevard Christian church gave a banquet and concert last Friday evening. The program of the latter being supplied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sweetland and showing also unusual interest and value. The harp numbers were alternated with songs by Miss Rose Fallon and Mr. Lester Castle, both of whom gave a number of pleasing selections, with many encores, and both meeting instant approval at the hand of the large audience. Miss Fallon is a Nebraska girl pupil of Herman Devries, and, to a natural gift of rare significance, i. e. a contralto voice of much beauty and great range, she has this winter been adding the sort of finish Mr. Devries knows well how to impart. Her work was a distinct credit to herself and to him."

A stern and unrelenting parent assisted by the strong arm of the law nipped in the bud a romantic elopement of two young O'Neill people last Sunday. The parties to the elopement were Elmer Shaw, a little over 18 years of age and Zella Simmons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheridan Simmons, 14 years of age. Taking advantage of the absence of Mr. and Mrs. Simmons last Sunday morning the young people took the morning passenger for Neligh where they intended getting married Monday morning. When Mr. and Mrs. Simmons returned home Sunday evening they learned of the elopement and the wires were put into operation and the elopers were located at Neligh, and were placed under the surveillance of the Antelope county officers. Monday morning Mr. Simmons swore to a complaint for the arrest of young Shaw charged with enticing Miss Simmons from home and detaining her from her parents. Sheriff Grady went to Neligh Monday morning accompanied by Mr. Simmons and the young folks were brought back to O'Neill that evening. Young Shaw was released on bond and will have a hearing before the county court on April 24.
