 Is there anything in all this world that is of more importance to you than good digestion? Food must be eaten to sustain life and must be digested and converted into blood. When the digestion fails the whole body suffers. Chamberlain's Tablets are a rational and reliable cure for indigestion. They increase the flow of bile, purify the blood strengthen the stomach, and tone up the whole digestive apparatus to a natural and healthy action. For sale by all dealers.
 Questions sent in for solution. An inquisitive correspondent wants to know which is worse, caterpillars or grasshoppers? Depends on where you have 'em; on the wheat grasshoppers are worse, down your back, caterpillars. 2.—Somebody wants the tariff problem solved. Make up your mind which way you want it and that will be it. 3.—Is marriage a failure? No, not if you secure your wedding cards at this office. 4.—When will the U. S. have another war? When some other nation thinks they can whip us.
 Why not effect an organization of our business fraternity and men of capital. The idea is to keep the present interest of our town at high tide and awaken new enterprises that will add to its growth and prosperity. This is a move in the right direction and the only way such a thing can be effected. We already see what new and live enterprises will do for us. There are many live industries, especially in the East that the seeking western locations, and if we were properly organized in to a "Business Men's Association," these enterprises might be looked into, and if found meritorious, sufficient inducement given for them to locate in our borders. This is what will give growth and prosperity, new life and new interest make our town the place she was destined to be, the first, the best, the most notable of all the places round about her. Now the presentation of this subject is not for mere effect, but for a purpose; for the consideration of every business man of our town, to awaken you out of slumber and arouse you up to thinking on this subject with speedy action in view.

Court Notes.

The Reckner will case occupied the attention of the district court all last week and was given to the jury about five o'clock last Monday afternoon. The jury had the case until ten o'clock Monday night when they were discharged by Judge Harrington, having been unable to agree upon a verdict. When discharged the jury stood seven to five for the probate of the will.
 Mildred E. Sheldon was granted a divorce from Samuel Sheldon and the costs of the case was taxed to the defendant.
 In the damage case of Owen Pray vs Howard Greeley the defendant was given 30 days to plead to an amended petition.
 Wednesday afternoon all the jury, except those on the McKay-Donaldson case, was excused for the balance of the term.
 Emma Ellis was granted a divorce from Frank Ellis. The property settlement was made out of court, the defendant deeding plaintiff property worth $18,000.
 Judge Westover came down Tuesday and heard several jury cases which Judge Harrington was disqualified from hearing. The case of F. J. Dishner vs D. H. Allen was tried to a jury and a verdict rendered for the plaintiff.
 In the case of Lawrence Casper vs T. J. Willburn a verdict of 6 cents damages was returned for the plaintiff. Motion for a new trial was overruled to which the plaintiff excepted and they were given 40 days in which to file a bill of exceptions.
 The case of McKay vs Donaldson, an appeal from the justice court of Ewing, was on trial Wednesday and Thursday. McKay sued Donaldson for $170.94 for merchandise delivered to plaintiff and secured a verdict for the entire amount in justice court and appeal was taken by defendant.

Newspaper Support.

A newspaper, if it has any brains, conscience and muscle back of it, must continually decide between doing its duty and injuring its pocket. In any position but that of an editor, the public is able to separate the individual home from the collective citizen. But if an editor does not please them its at his pockets they aim. Thus it is the newspapers who learn who their friends are. The man who reads the newspaper and admires it all the year around, yet gives his business support to some other concern, whose principles or the actions of its editor he detests, is not a friend to the former newspaper. Admiration alone will not run a newspaper. There are too many men who expect an editor to slave in defence of their pet notions and hobbies, advocate their views against the strongest opposition and coolly withhold the business support by which alone a country newspaper can live.
 Talk about a paper having a public duty to perform, and an editor having to work for his principles, is cheap when others stand back and extend a lukewarm neutrality. The result is the editor may starve while laboring for his principles and the cause of right and justice, which they admire but do not support.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved wife and mother.
 Frank Tenborg and family.

Strayed.

One white mare, twelve years old, weight about twelve hundred pounds, heavy in foal. Suitable reward will be given to anyone informing us of her whereabouts.—L. S. Schwinck & Co., Inman, Nebr. 44-tf

Obituary.

Sophie Tenborg, nee Richart, was born September 20, 1837 at Magdaborg, Germany, and died suddenly at her home near Emmett, Nebr., April 27, 1911, age 73 years, 7 months, 7 days. The deceased came to America in her youth and settled in Erie, Pa. Later she moved to Wyoming, and in 1868 to Nebraska, and then in 1883 to Holt Co.
