L. E. Carcallen has entered the base ball business. We understand that Cass took his ball team to the South Fork last Sunday afternoon and got trimmed by the Dry Creek Rats.

The score on the side of the Rats piled up so fast that the score keeper ran out of paper upon which to mark the tallies. Cass' boosters say they are going to give them another game a week from Sunday and they intend to wipe up the ground with the Rats on that occasion.

As we carry two of the best best known lines of clothing made in America today we feel confident we can please any one in style and quality.

Kuppenheimer. The Kuppenheimer Clothing for Men has no superior and we know of very few equals.

Ederheimer - Stein Ederheimer - Steins line for Boy's and Young Men is so well known by good dressers we could say nothing but what you already know, except that this season we are carrying about twice as many styles and all the new shades of gray and brown and a large line of blue serges.

The sweet innocent children were playing house. Mamma and Papa scarcely less innocent, were watching them. "I'll be papa," said little Bob. "I'll be the new nurse," broke in Effie, "and when you try to kiss me Bobbie, I'll scratch your face and say I'll tell mamma." Tableau.

On another page will be found the pedigree of Stirlight, a horse owned by James Cameron of this city. This is one of the finest looking horses ever seen in this city and a perusal of his pedigree discloses that he comes from a family of noted racers. Lovers of good horses should see this beautiful horse.

During the thunder storm last Saturday a house upon the farm of John Robertson near Dustin was struck by lightning and burned to the ground. The lightning ran into the house on a telephone wire. The family that occupied the house had moved but a few hours before the house was struck.

Wednesday was a great hog day in O'Neill. On that day James Mullen purchased 232 head for which he paid the sum of $3,057.85. City Weighmaster Gordon says that it is the greatest hog day since the Boyd county trade was cut off from this city, some ten years ago. The hogs sold for $5 45 per hundred.

Jacob Pfund was in from Kola the first of the week and on Wednesday made proof upon his section of land in Swan township and is now a full-fledged bloated land owner. Jake says things are looking fine in the south country and that it will only be a few years until that section will be the finest garden spot in the county.

Ex-County Assessor Cooper was up from Chambers yesterday. He says that Mrs. Cooper who is in the Methodist hospital in Omaha recovering from an operation, is getting along nicely and will be able to return home in about two weeks. This will be gratifying news to the many friends of the Cooper family throughout the county.

County Judge Malone was in Page last Tuesday where he delivered the Memorial address. The Judge says they had a splendid crowd out to the exercises and reports from Page are to the effect that the Judge delivered a soul-stirring patriotic address that won the plaudits of the great assemblage, and won for himself the reputation as an orator of ability and power.

Dr. G. M. Mullen of Creighton arrived in the city last Monday afternoon to attend the wedding of Mrs. Mullen's sister, Miss Cecelia Holland. Dr. Mullen says that Creighton is growing rapidly and is inclined to think that the federal census did not give them the population that they were entitled to. The population of Creighton is given as a little over 1,400, six hundred less than O'Neill.

Elmer Neligh of Meadow Grove was in the city last Monday. Mr. Neligh was a resident of Atkinson for many years leaving there about eighteen years ago. Last fall he moved to Meadow Grove and built a flouring mill there and was in the city calling on flour dealers to dispose of some of his product. He went to Atkinson Monday night to spend a couple of days visiting boyhood scenes.

The Hopkins Brothers Ladies ball team played a picked up aggregation of O'Neill players at the ball park last Thursday afternoon to a small sized crowd. The traveling aggregation contains some good ball players and they succeeded in getting away with the long end of a 9 to 8 score. The game which was to have been played in the evening was called off an account of the commencement exercises at the K. C. Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cherry and children of Page were in the city Monday leaving on the Northwestern Tuesday morning for a short visit with friends at Wayne. Mr. Cherry has disposed of his property at Page and expects to leave next Monday for Washington, where he expects to put in a year looking over that country. At least George says that he expects to remain a year, unless he gets too lonesome for old Holt.

Advertising in the Frontier pays: Last week John J. Hancock placed a little three line ad in this paper announcing the fact that he had some O'Neill lots that he would like to trade for a team. Thursday night a Frontier reader in this city noticed the ad and wrote to Mr. Hancock at Inman. He came up Friday afternoon and in a few hours they made the deal. Thus a transaction involving $200 was brought about by the investment of thirty cents in an ad in the Frontier. If you have anything to sell let the people know it through the columns of the Frontier; it will bring buyer and seller together. Try it and be convinced.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barrett, Jr. are in the city visiting for a few days at the home of Mr. Barrett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Barrett, Sr. Mr. Barrett is another O'Neill boy who has made good at his chosen vocation. He has been railroading the past ten years and is now yardmaster for the Omaha road at Sioux City, an important and very remunerative position. He has been working for the Omaha road for two years.

A story is going the rounds about a hardware man who went home to dinner and found that his wife had purchased a newfangled coffee pot from a peddler for which she had paid $1.00. The husband was disgusted, and exclaimed: "Why, I sell the same thing at the store for 75 cents." The good wife then bridled up and retorted: "Why don't you advertise so people will know what you're got? It's a good story and contains a mighty good moral.

The editor received a letter from Mike McCoy, who now lives in Perkins county, S. D., but who for many years was a resident of Shields township, this county. Mike evidently did not find a garden spot in his present location as he says it has not rained there this spring; that small grain has all dried up and that it has been so dry that the corn has not sprouted. From the tone of the letter we are inclined to believe that he wishes he was back in good old Holt.

City assessor Millard says that there was added to the O'Neill assessment books this spring twenty-eight pieces of realty upon which residences have been built the past year. Notwithstanding the large number of residences that have been erected, the past two years, those looking for desirable houses to rent report a scarcity. Some of our local bondholders could make a good thing by investing some of their surplus cash in the erection of modern cottages. There would be no trouble in finding renters.

Mrs. Margaret Vaughan, mother of Mrs. P. S. Hughes, died at the residence of her daughter in the eastern part of the city last Friday night after an illness of several months of ailments incidental to old age. Mrs. Vaughan was born in Ireland and had reached the hearty age of 91 years when she was called away. Her husband, Michael Vaughan, preceded her to the great beyond some years ago. Mrs. Vaughan was one of the pioneers of this county, having moved to this county about thirty years ago and settled upon a farm three miles west of this city, where they resided until about ten years ago, when they made their home with their daughter, Mrs. Hughes. Mrs. Vaughan leaves two children to mourn her demise. Mrs. P. S. Hughes of this city and Michael Vaughan of Alliance, Neb., who was present at the funeral, which was held last Sunday afternoon from the Catholic church, the remains being laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery.

Butte Gazette: Dr. G. E. Darrow was called over to Holt county to attend Sam Fried, who was quite badly injured by a horse. He was riding a horse and had gotten off to open a gate and had the reins over his arm in a way that he could use his hand freely in opening the gate. The saddle horn caught on a clothes line and frightened the horse which jumped back suddenly, throwing him to the ground, breaking his arm and dislocating the shoulder, besides bruising him up badly. He is progressing very well.

Notice, Board of Equalization. The County Board of Supervisors of Holt county, will meet as a Board of Equalization on Tuesday the 13th day of June, 1191.—S. F. McNichols, County Clerk.
