Strayed:—From my ranch near Mineola on May 30th, one bay mare three years old, weight about 800 pounds; has a barb wire cut on left front foot. Notify the undersigned at O'Neill, or T. N. Grenier at Mineola.—F. J. Dishner. 52-2.

Supervisors Hammerburg and Simar come down from Atkinson every morning in Supervisor Simar's auto and return to our sister city in the evening. They say it is a nice ride every morning and puts them in good shape for the days business.

Elgin Review: Ruben Knapp went to Omaha Monday morning, where he is now under treatment at St. Joseph's hospital. He was operated on Tuesday morning at St. Joseph's hospital for rupture. Late reports state that he is getting along nicely.

Atkinson Graphic: Tom Davis, who lives 18 miles south west of town, lost 64 head of cattle by lightning during the electric storm last Thursday night, and Fred Dobrovolsky lost 21 head. This was one of the heaviest electrical storms we have seen for some time.

Last Thursday Judge Malone united in marriage Henry Vequist of O'Neill to Miss Bertha A. Coleman of Atkinson. They will make their home upon the farm of the groom northwest of this city. The many friends of these young people extend congratulations.

Edward Adams, the Chambers banker, was in the city last Thursday and called at this office and renewed his subscription to The Frontier. Mr. Adams has been a Frontier reader the past twenty-five years and says that he expects to continue to read it as long as he lives.

There is one medicine that every family should be provided with and especially during the summer months; viz, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is almost certain to be needed. It costs but a quarter. Can you afford to be without it? For sale by all dealers.

For Sale—I have a relinquishment to 160 acres in Mead county, South Dakota with living water thereon, 100 acres level land, 12 miles from railroad, that I will sell at a bargain if taken soon. I have also a relinquishment to 160 acres of Holt county land a bargain.—John L. Quig, O'Neill. 48t

The woman of today who has good health, good temper, good sense bright eyes and a lovely complexion the result of correct living and good digestion, wins the admiration of the world. If your digestion is faulty Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will correct it. For sale by all dealers.

Atkinson and Emmett had an interesting ball game at Atkinson last Sunday afternoon that was witnessed by a good-sized delegation of fans and fanettes from this city. This was the third game played this season by these teams and as each team had won one game the one Sunday was the rubber and was bitterly contested by both sides. The contest went ten innings and was won by Atkinson, the score standing 6 to 5. Considerable money changed ownership as a result of the game as the sporting element in both towns bet freely on their favorites.

Tom Coyne says that never again will he be inveigled into attempting to umpire a ball game. Just to accommodate the boys Tom started in to umpire the Atkinson-Emmett game last Sunday afternoon but was compelled to retire in the seventh inning, as he says he was unable to satisfy the spectators and players on both teams.

Rushville Recorder: We have heard from a reliable source that Miss Anna Michaelson has been elected as a teacher of sciences in the O'Neill high school. It will be remembered that Miss Michaelson was a member of the class of '08 of the Rushville High school and this year graduated with honors from the Peru State Normal.

P. C. Corrigan came up from Omaha the first of the week for a few days visit with old-time friends and to look after business matters. Mr. Corrigan informed us that he and Mrs. Corrigan will leave next week for an extended tour of Europe and will put in a couple of months in the Emerald Isle, returning to Nebraska in the fall.

Have stock of new groceries, dish and chinaware, and staple shelf hardware, all new goods, to be shipped direct from wholesale house, St. Louis. Want land in exchange for three fourths of price of goods; cash for balance, will give time. Will trade $2,000 to $8,000 worth. What have you to offer? Write me today. W. S. Brown Manson, Iowa.

Last week C. P. Hancock, who sold his residence on Douglas street, between Seventh and Eight, purchased three lots on the corner of Douglas and Ninth streets, and next week will commence the erection of a residence thereon. He will build a modern cottage 28x40 at an estimated cost of $2,000.00. East Douglas street is rapidly filling up and is now the nicest residence street in the city.

County Assessor Skidmore is finishing up the business of his office for the year. In looking over the records we find that Holt county had within her borders on April 1st 77,628 head of cattle, as compared with 92,332 last year; 17,107 head of horses this year, 16,273 last year; 1,662 head of mules and only 1,278 last year; 3,623 head of sheep and 628 head last year; 20,290 head of hogs and 22,264 head last year. The realty valuation of the county this year will be about the same as last year, but the valuation of the personal property will be about $50,000.00 less than last year.

D. J. Harrington who has been living upon his homestead in Pennington county since last Christmas, returned home last Friday morning for a few days visit. Mr. Harrington says that it is very dry up in his country, as they have had no rain since last March and many homesteaders are leaving their homesteads and moving back to their homefolks. He will prove up in July and will then come back to God's country.

J. M. Alderson of Chambers was in the city Tuesday on his return from Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he has been the past three months for the benefit of his health. Mr. Alderson says that he is feeling much better than when he left for the southern health resort, but that he had not succeeded in quite getting rid of his rheumatism, but expects that the invigorating air of old Holt will complete the cure started in old Arkansas.

A. J. Hammond will leave next Saturday morning for New York city where he will take passage Wednesday morning for the home of his childhood in old England. A. J. is starting a little late to take in the coronation ceremonies but says that he will be able to witness the wind up. Mr. Hammond will spend the next two months visiting relatives and scenes of his boyhood days in the land which he left 37 years ago for the good old U. S.

The German Lutherans have purchased lots on Fifth street, two blocks north of Adams, and will erect a church thereon this summer. There are many members of this denomination living in the country north of this city and the schoolhouses where they have been holding services are now too small to accommodate their congregation and they decided to build a church in this city. Members of the church solicited subscriptions from the business men of this city last Saturday to assist them in erecting the building and were gratified at the substantial assistance received.

W. P. Curtis, formerly of this city but now of Orchard, was in the city last Tuesday. Mr. Curtis has been engaged in the general mercantile business in that village since leaving here the first of the year but disposed of his business interests the past week and will again move back to this city, provided he can find a residence to move into. He put in all day Tuesday looking for a house but said he had been unable to find one. Although about a hundred residences have been built in this city the past three years residences that are for rent are scarcer here than ever.

M. J. Daly of Salt Lake City, Utah, arrived in the city last Monday evening to spend a few days visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Daly is one of the O'Neill boys who has more than made good in the west. For many years he was superintendent of the Silver King mine of Park City but the last year, having accumulated sufficient of this world's goods, has been taking life easier in the Mormon city. It has been seven years since Mr. Daly has visited his old home and says things looked fine here and that he has noticed many improvements in this city and vicinity since his last visit.

O'Neill is becoming the Gretna Green of this section of the state. During the past two weeks a half dozen couples from other counties have come to this city to be united in wedlock and yesterday Charles J. Worden of Neligh and Miss Myrtle Pearl Carey of Valentine, secured a marriage license from Judge Malone and will have the ceremony performed by one of the O'Neill ministers. Judge Malone says that he has on hand an extra large supply of marriage licenses and is ready to accommodate any of the love sick swain of other counties who are too bashful to apply for a permit to wed from the officials of their own counties.

That little cupid is no respecter of age was exemplified at the county court room last Tuesday afternoon when Judge Malone performed the ceremony that united James C. Buchanan of Ogallah, Kansas, to Mrs. Emily T. Clark of Dustin, Nebraska. The groom is 71 years of age and a veteran of the civil war, while his bride, who recently proved up on a quarter section of Holt county land, confessed to having seen 63 summers and a like number of winters. After the genial Judge had pronounced the words that made them one the happy couple started down the street, hand in hand as happy and apparently as care free as any bride and groom that ever came from the court room.

Patrick Murphy, who went to Omaha three weeks ago and submitted to an operation, returned home last evening. The operation was successful and Mr. Murphy is feeling as well as he ever did.

Obituary.

Edward Gallagher, who died in Sioux City, Iowa last Thursday morning was buried in the Catholic cemetery in this city last Saturday morning, beside the remains of his wife, who preceded him to the great beyond a year ago last April.

Mr. Gallagher was born in the county Donegal, Ireland, in August, 1829, and would have been 82 years of age next August. Shortly after reaching his majority he came to American and located in Pennsylvania where he was married and resided until his removal to this county in the spring of 1875 and located upon a farm northwest of this city which he owned at the time of his death and upon which he resided until this spring. He had always enjoyed splendid health until about six months ago and ten days before his death was taken to Sioux City for medical treatment but the best of medical skill could avail nothing and he peacefully passed away ten days after his arrival in the hospital there.

Deceased was one of the sturdy pioneers of the early days of this county who endured all the privations and hardships of the pioneers when this country was little better than a wilderness with the nearest railroad at Yankton, S. D., a hundred miles away. He was a man of a genial, jovial disposition with a hearty hand clasp and a word of good cheer for every one; with that rugged innate honesty that endeared the early settlers of this vicinity to those of the present generation.

He leaves five children to mourn the departure of a kind and loving father. They are: Daniel, of Bisbee, Arizona; Mrs. James Crowley of this city; Andrew of Laurel, Neb.; Mrs. Mary E. Bates, of Denver, Colorado; and Mrs. Sarah Chausse, of Terry, Mont. Andrew and Mrs. Crowley were present at the funeral, which was held Saturday morning. Mrs. Bates reached the city on Saturday evening too late to attend the funeral.

Alumnae Banquet.

The fourth annual alumnae day of St. Mary's Academy opened on June 11th with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the convens chapel at five P. M. by very Rev. M. F. Cassidy. After Benediction the Alumnae, class of 1911 and guests assembled in the reception hall where, immediately following the reception, the guests were invited into the banquet room where a delightful menu was served. The rooms were attractively decorated with flowers plants and the Academy colors. Miss Margaret Donohoe '08 was charming and amusing as toast-mistress. The toasts of the occasion were responded to by the following: "Our Future," Miss Mabel McNichols, "Our Alma Mater," Miss Julia Biglin, "Welcome to class of 1911," Miss Mary Coyle, "Response," Miss Gertrude Hirsch, "Our Destinesies," Miss Genevieve Mullen.

A beautiful original song of S. M. A. was sung by the members of the alumnae and both music and song was enjoyed for some time. After the toasts Mr. J. A. Donohoe was called upon to talk of his recent trip abroad. He touched upon Lourdes apropos of the recent play of the class of '11 after which he spoke of the audience with the Holy Father, that story "so old yet ever new" with its varying interesting circumstances.

Most notable among the features of the reunion was the spirit of good cheer which was abroad among the girls of former years, and the true love and loyalty breathed forth from every toast on paper read. The great interest manifested bids fair for a large reunion in 1912 when the spacious new rooms of the new annex will be occupied.

The Holt County Telephone Company are in a lot cables. When they are connected up the local service will be much improved.

Patrick Brennan, who went down to Omaha three weeks ago to receive treatment for a blood disease, returned home last evening.

Word was received in O'Neill this morning that the eight-year old son of John Carr of Stafford, was dragged to death by a horse this morning. We have been unable to learn any of the particulars. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Carr throughout the county will sympathize with them in the tragic death of their son.

Next week T. V. Golden will commence the erection of a brick store building 24x30 feet on the lots just south of O. O. Snyder's lumber office, facing west on Fourth street. This will be a splendid store room and will have a fourteen foot ceiling. When completed the building will be occupied by a moving picture theatre, which will be operated by Mrs. Brown, who recently moved here from Ouster county.
