week $1.98. This includes our line of Reed $3.50 to $4.00 shoes.*

Groceries

Better follow the crowd and get lower prices than you have seen on staple groceries for years. Our list of last week holds good, except the price on sugar.

Wanted—100 head of cattle to winter. Good hay and water.—Geo. D. Thompson, Dumas, Garfield County, Nebraska. 12-2.
Miss Lizzie Harty and Miss Ella Carey, who had been visiting relatives and friends here the past two months, returned to their home at Shullsburg, Wis., last Sunday morning.

Mrs. H. J. Hershiser returned last Tuesday afternoon from a three months visit at Waterloo, Iowa, and Norfolk, Nebraska.
I want to make fifty or more optional farm loans before September 1st. If you need money call and see John L. Quig, O'Neill. 4-8.
F. D. Ross, proprietor of the New Southern Hotel in Chicago, arrived in the city last Monday evening for a few days visit with friends here.
Bert Mapes and son, Donald of Norfolk, were in the city last Wednesday on their way home from a weeks hunting trip down in Wheeler county.
J. B. Ryan left last Monday for a ten days visit with his brother, John, at Ekalaka, Mont., where the latter is engaged in the real estate business.
All the latest styles in tailored and trimmed hats now on display. We have the nicest line we ever brought to the city. Call and see them.—Mrs. Fitzsimmons.
Miss Rose Fallon returned to Chicago, last Tuesday morning after a two weeks visit at her home here, where she has been taking vocal lessons the past year.
We do French Dry Cleaning in our shop of all ladies and gentlemen's garments. Nothing but first class work turned out. At Frank and Vince Suchy's tailor shop. 1-tf
Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Parker and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stout left last Saturday in the former's car for Lincoln to attend the state fair. Word was received from Lincoln Wednesday that Mrs. Parker was taken seriously ill with stomach trouble and was taken to a hospital in Omaha.

Miss Mary Murray, who has been spending the summer with relatives and friends here, returned to Irvington, Neb., Sunday where she will teach school the coming year.
Dr. George Stevens, who has been visiting relatives in the Scottville neighborhood the past week, was in the city Wednesday and Thursday visiting old time friends.
A Baker, superintendent of the general land office for this district with headquarters at Cheyenne, Wyoming, is in the city spending a few weeks visiting relatives and old time friends.
J. W. Brentson will have a public sale at the Balback & True ranch near Mineola on Friday, September 15, Mr. Brentson has had poor health the past year and is forced to dispose of his interests here.
FOR SALE—One good residence block, excepting two lots, in southwestern part of city. These are splendid residence lots and prospective builders should look them over. Enquire of B. H. Johring. 8-tf Found—On the streets of O'Neill Saturday August 12, ladies hand bag containing a small pocket book and a sum of money. Owner can have same by calling at this office, proving property and paying for this notice. 9-tf
Floyd Wolfe, republican candidate for supervisor in the second district, was an O'Neill visitor last Tuesday and was a pleasant caller at this office and ordered The Frontier sent to his address for the ensuing year. Mr. Wolfe is one of the old timers of the Dorsey country and will make an efficient and able member of the county board.

It seems that the good bargains at Mann's are inexhaustible, and Mr. Mann tells us the best is still to come. If this is true the people of this county will have a chance to get more than their share of bargains this season.
I have installed a lot of new machinery in the O'Neill Bottling Works, including a new crown top bottler, and am now ready to supply the wants of the trade. Let me ship you a trial order of mineral water, pop or seltzer.—O'Neill Bottling works, E. M. Meriman, proprietor. 12-2

Wanted—Will trade O'Neill city property or land in southern Holt for cattle or horses. Will take a couple of hundred head of cattle to feed by the month. For further information call or write Peter Reifers, Chambers, Neb. 4-tf.

We made a mistake in one of the prices quoted by Mann's last week but they make the price good at a loss to them. This shows they are going to adhere to their old rule of making good everything they advertise to the finish.

The ladies of the Methodist church will serve a chicken pie supper, in the Market building, one door east of the Nebraska State Bank, Thursday evening September 14. Supper will be served from 6 p. m. till all are fed and satisfied.

Peter Ryan and daughter, Miss Anna Duncan, left for Wilmington, Delaware, yesterday afternoon in answer to a telegram announcing the dangerous illness of Mrs. Ryan, who has been visiting relatives there the past two months.

Frank Spindler, one of the hustling prosperous farmers of Paddock township, was a caller at this office last Friday and ordered The Frontier sent to his address for the ensuing year, so that he could keep posted upon Holt county affairs.

J. A. Donohoe went down the road the first of the week and we understand was married this morning in Omaha to Miss Florence Lowrie, of Lincoln, daughter of Rev. N. S. Lowrie, for many years pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city.

John Horrisky returned Tuesday morning from a protracted visit with friends at Cody, Wyoming. John came back rigged out in a genuine "cowpuncher" hat and has a great collection of stories of his experience in the "wild and woolly west" which he spins to the boys each day to help them pass away the time.

Frank Gotch is still the wrestling champion of the world, having successfully defended his title against Hackensmith at Chicago last Monday when he put the shoulders of the Russian to the mat twice in nineteen minutes. From the newspaper accounts it was a bigger fiasco than the Jefferies-Johnson fight at Reno a year ago.

Howard P. Greeley of Atkinson and Miss Signora Peppina Muratori of Randolph were married at Omaha last Wednesday. The bride has been the teacher of music in the Randolph public school the past two years and is said to be a charming young lady. They will make their future home at Randolph where the groom is engaged in the real estate business. The Frontier joins the Holt county friends of the groom in wishing them happiness and prosperity.

Maggie Reaney has filed a petition in the district court praying for a divorce from Floyd Reaney, to whom she was married in O'Brien county, Iowa, on January 4, 1908. She alleges that she has been a resident of this county since March 11, 1911. She alleges that defendant is a healthy young man of twenty-five years of age and capable of earning from $75 to $100 per month and that he does earn that amount. But that since their marriage he has failed to provide for her and spends his earnings drinking, gambling and carousing and that she has been compelled to support herself and contribute to his support. She alleges that he deserted her in July of this year and she asks for a divorce and the restoration of her maiden name, Maggie Sherrill.
