per. He will admit you. You will advance to the center of the room, address the editor with the following countersign: Extend the right hand about two feet from the body with the thumb and index finger clasping a $10 bill which you drop into the extended hand of the editor, at the same time saying, "Were you looking for me?" The editor will say "You bet!" After giving him the news you will be permitted to retire with a receipt for an obligation promptly discharged.
 Every young lady may mark it down as a fact that if she flirts and associates with "pick ups" she will soon have no other for associates. No matter how unjust it may be, there will always be a suspicion that those who are not above making acquaintances in this way are not as pure in heart and mind as they ought to be. It would be unjust to say no pure minded girls flirt. They do and many of them lose their purity by so doing. Others, though not so unfortunate, subject themselves to suspicions which every woman should be above.
 If you have received a kindness remember it. If you have done a kind act forget it. We know this is contrary to custom, for every day we hear some one bragging how much the or she has done for a neighbor, and at the same time bewailing she fact that the action was not appreciated. A short time ago we heard a man bragging that he had done a great deal for a certain woman in town. On being asked what he had done, he replied that he had let her do his family washing. If the truth were known the fact would probably be proved that she did it at a mighty low figure.
 John Bradeen, who was arrested at Neligh last week charged with having stolen a horse from the barn of John Clasey near Page, was brought before Judge Harrington in district court last Wednesday morning. Bradeen
