The republican ticket, both county and state, is composed of men worthy of your support. Vote the ticket.

Judging from newspaper reports President Taft seems to be receiving enthusiastic greeting from the people in his tour around the circle.

H. Burch, the republican candidate for county clerk, is a homesteader living upon a homestead in Wyoming township. Mr. Burch has taught school several years in different parts of this county and possesses the ability to make an ideal county clerk.

Dan Stevens of Fremont, one of the wealthiest men in Dodge county, has been nominated by the democrats of the Third congressional district to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman Latta. Mr. Stevens managed the two campaigns of Congressman Latta and is no doubt familiar with the persuasiveness of a good fat check book as a vote getter.

R. R. DICKSON

R. R. Dickson, republican candidate for district judge of the Fifteenth judicial district, comprising the counties of Holt, Boyd, Rock and Keya Paha, has been a resident of this city since 1887. Mr. Dickson has never held a political office nor has he ever been a candidate for office, unless being twice elected mayor of this city would place him in the class of political office holders.

Mr. Dickson was born in Rock county, Wisconsin, in 1863. In 1869 his parents moved to Northern Iowa settling on a farm in Mitchell county, near Osage. He was educated in the country schools of Mitchell county, and finished his education in Cedar Valley Seminary at Osage. After completing the course of study in the seminary he entered the law office of L. M. Ryce of Osage, a prominent lawyer and jurist of Northern Iowa, where he studied law for four years. In 1887 he took the advice of Horace Greeley and came west, first locating in Norfolk, Madison county, where he was admitted to practice. In the fall of that year he came to this city where he has since remained, giving his entire attention to the practice of law.

Mr. Dickson is recognized among the lawyers and judges of the state as an able lawyer and especially well fitted for the office of district judge, on account of his many years experience in the practice of his profession. He has tried one side of every civil and criminal case of importance tried in this county during the past fifteen years and has the largest practice in the county and his retirement from active practice to go upon the bench is a great financial sacrifice to him. For years he has ranked among the ablest lawyers of the state and the people of this district are to be congratulated for having the opportunity to vote for a man of such judicial training and experience for the important office of judge of the district court. His years of active practice in the district courts of the state, and his success in the supreme court, fits him for the office.

As a citizen he has always been prominent and active in his support of any enterprise or undertaking that would be a benefit to the city, county or state. He enjoys the confidence and respect of those who know him. He advocates and believes in a square deal and is a firm believer in the strict enforcement of the law. He believes that favoritism to either litigants or lawyers has no place in a court of justice, and that every case should have careful and honest consideration, regardless of the parties thereto, or by whom represented. Mr. Dickson has no business, political or professional relations that will in any way embarrass or disqualify him in the performance of his duty. Having consented to become a candidate the lawyers of the district, regardless of politics, concede his ability and fitness for the position. No lawyer, litigant or client has ever had occasion to question his personal, business or professional word. His brother attorneys have never been compelled to tie him up with written stipulations. His word is taken among lawyers wherever known. He enjoys the respect and confidence, not only of lawyers of this and adjoining districts, but of the judges and the people. In addition to being a successful lawyer Mr. Dickson is also a successful business man and is so recognized among our citizens and the people of this vicinity generally. He is an ideal candidate for the position to which he aspires and the Frontier is of the opinion that the people of Holt county will, on election day, show their appreciation of him and his ability by giving him the largest vote ever cast for any candidate since the organization of the county.

Several democratic newspapers, chief among which is the World-Herald, is endeavoring to create a senatorial boom for Governor Aldrich. The governor is more than making good in his present position and the people need him there for at least three years more. He has the ability to make a splendid representative in the Senate of the United States and The Frontier would like to see him in the place of the owner of the World-Herald and if he continues to make good in his present position he will be the logical candidate of the republican party for the Hitchcock seat.

Hugh McKenna returned last Monday evening from Sioux City, where he had Shady O'Neill and Diamond Boy entered in the races. While neither horse were in the money they both made good miles. As the Sioux City track is a mile track and these horses are used to going on half mile tracks it made a good deal of difference in their racing, it being the first mile track either horse was ever on.

The editor attended the South Fork Fair at Chambers last Friday. While the day was very disagreeable a splendid crowd was present and the various sports were pulled off according to program. The exhibit of farm products was very good, that of potatoes being especially good. The attendance this year at the fair was the largest in the history of the organization and the fair has gone into history as most successful, both in point of attendance and the number and quality of the exhibits, that was ever held in the south country.

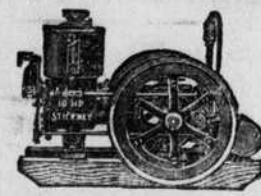

Daniel O'Donnell, one of the pioneer residents of this county who has lived near Stafford for about thirty years, died in a hospital in Council Bluffs Tuesday night. The remains were shipped to his home at Stafford yesterday and the funeral will be held from the Catholic church here tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and the remains will be interred at the side of his wife who died a couple of years ago. Mr. O'Donnell went down to Council Bluffs about a week ago and we understand was operated upon on Monday of this week, from the effects of which he died.

William Haynes returned last week from Keystone, S. D., where he has been prospecting the past two years and will visit friends and old time neighbors in this vicinity for a few weeks. Billy says that he has been successful in his prospecting and has discovered something that he believes will put him on easy street as soon as it is developed a little further. He has been a patient and persistent prospector and is deserving of having "luck" smile upon him. He says that it has been very dry in South Dakota as they have had no rain there for two years.

A couple of months ago a couple of young fellows were in this city representing themselves as agents for a Texas land company and they were offering free trips to Texas for those who were desirous of going and putting up $5 each as an evidence of good faith. They were going to have a special train through here on September 14 or 15 and they advised those desirous of going to be ready on that date for their free trip. Seven people signed up with them here and paid in their $5 as an evidence of good faith and received a receipt for their money, which is all they have to show for their five "plunks" as the starting date has passed and those desirous of securing a free trip are still waiting. One of those who bit on the deal laughs about it and says that it was not very expensive and he is not sorry for having donated the $5. The next smooth gentleman who strikes this section offering something for nothing will receive a warm welcome, if some of the would be Texas sightseers are around.

A couple of O'Neill youths, who have been caught and hauled before the officers once before on the charge of petty larceny, are again in trouble. These boys fifteen and twelve years old, broke into Golden's hardware store last Sunday night, went through the cash drawer and took all the money therein, $1.25. They also made away with a twenty-two repeating rifle and five boxes of shells. As this was not rich enough for them they broke into P. J. McManus' store a half hour afterward and took all the money in the cash drawer, $6.00. When the loss was discovered the next morning the officers went looking for the matter and Joe Pyles and Bob Carscallen left town. They walked to Inman and took a train there for Clearwater where they were arrested Monday evening. After having them a short time the officers let them go and Pyle, who is the eldest of the two and who has been in the reform school, pulled out and has not been apprehended. Carscallen was re-arrested and brought back to town by Mayor Biglin and deputy sheriff Brittel who went to Clearwater on the train Tuesday morning. Bobby confessed that Pyle stole the articles while he stood guard outside. The gun taken from Golden's hardware was recovered at Inman where they had "planted" it under a coal shed and it was "dug up" by Bob. Officers are on the lookout for young Pyle and it is only a question of a few days until he will be in the hands of the officers of the law. These boys have been in trouble before and the officials are in a quandry as to what to do with them. Young Pyle is now in the county jail, but it is said he does not take his confinement seriously. Later Pyles was arrested last night at Ashland and is now confined in the county jail there. The officials of the Reform School at Kearney will be notified to get him and take him back to the school where he will probably be confined until he becomes of age.
