Don't wait Until it is To Late We Have the Goods YOU WANT

For the last two or three weeks we have been warning you against just this kind of weather and many took the warning, but those that did not still have an opportunity to take advantage of the Price-Cutting, Closing Out Sale.

Fur Coats

We have a few good ones that will be sold this week. If you want a bargain come in and get our Sale Price.

Rubbers

We have more rubbers and overshoes than the man that made them. We have over 2,000 pair on hand this morning and at the prices we are selling them for, they should not last this week, so see that you get what you want before the line breaks.

Lace Boots

12, 16 and 18 inch lace boots.
Men's Chrome calf, 16 inch $3.74
Men's black, 14 inch 3.00
Men's tan Chrome calf, 15 inch 4.15
Boys boots, 15 inch 2.74

Children's School Coats

We have a line of school coats for Misses and Children ranging in price from $1.50 to $6.

Underwear

We have underwear for every member of the family.

Ladies Skirts

A Big Special

We have some good values in new skirts and popular fabrics that we will close this week at prices unheard of on this class of merchandise. The cost of a garment will not regulate our selling price as we are going to close the line.

Boys and Men's Overcoats

As we have something good to offer you in overcoats, it will pay you to make this store a call before buying.

Children's Overcoats

We are going to make a special on Children's coats for the week ending November 4th only. Don't miss this chance to get a coat.

"Dick" O'Malley was the most fortunate Holt county resident, as he should be able to get one of the best pieces of land on the reservation with number 6. Dick has been a resident of South Dakota the past year and is undoubtedly familiar with the land and will be able to pick one of the best pieces obtainable.

Miss Rose Fallon in Grand Opera.

Miss Rose Fallon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Fallon of this city, who has been taking voice culture in Chicago the past year and a half, has accepted a position with the Chicago Grand Opera Company and is now with the company in Philadelphia. The following is from the Chicago Post and shows that Miss Rose is recognized as one of the stars of the company.

"That the glare of the footlights seemed far off was observed by Miss Rose Fallon, whom Andrea Dippel, general manager of the opera company, pronounced to be 'one of his rarest finds of the season.'" We don't want to leave Chicago, even for a few months," she said, smiling through her tears. "I don't know, though, why the girls all look so sad this morning. Certainly this is not our funeral."
"We hope to please the opera lovers in the old town, where it is said every one is sleepy," said Miss Fallon, a young member of the chorus for whom Mr. Dippel prophesies a great future. "From what we have heard of the Pennsylvania metropolis it is not slow to recognize musical merit, so we all feel safe. But we do not forget that we are from Chicago and we intend to sing 'Chicago' in the Broad street station when we arrive tomorrow, just as we are doing as the train leaves to day."
Miss Fallon's many O'Neill and Holt county friends wish her every success in the operatic field and hope that she will be able to reach the top-most round in the ladder of success in her chosen profession.

The Reward of Genius.

The youth who is trying to fan into life the dormant fires of an inherent genius will find much to encourage him if he will but emulate the example set for him by Theobald, the wonderful Norwegian violinist now touring this country and who is billed to appear here Monday October, 30th, at the Opera House.

An Historic Violin.

The $25,000 instrument used by Theobald, the Great Virtuoso, One of the Most Valuable and Remarkable Violins now in Existence.

Naturally there must be many wonderful qualities in a violin that is valued at twenty-five thousand dollars but that is the value placed upon the superb instrument Theobald will use in his concert when he appears in this city Monday, Oct. 30th.

The first snow of the season, which fell last night.

Cut-Price Millinery Sale

Everything in nature indulges in amusement. The lightning plays, the wind whistles, the thunder rolls, the snow flies, the waves leap and the fields smile. Even the buds shoot and the rivers run.

Here is the way an exchange duns its subscribers: "If you have frequent fainting spells, accompanied by chills, cramps, corns, bunions, chilblains, epilepsy and jaundice, it is a sign you are not well, but liable to die any minute. Pay your subscription in advance and thus make yourself solid for a good obituary notice.

A good many years ago when a boy was whipped at school, he received another whipping when he went home, but in these days the father and mother wipe his tears away and go and whip the teacher.

Joe Mann made a business trip to the south east part of the state last week, returning Wednesday evening. Joe says it looks now as though he would be out of the store business by the middle of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Powell of Pigeon, Mich., left for their home last Thursday morning, after a few days visit at the home of Mr. Powell's brothers-in-law, Andrew Schmidt and Conrad Wettlauffer.

Will cry your sales for you and guarantee satisfaction. As to our ability ask any resident of southern Holt. Make dates at Frontier office or phone us, at our expense, at Chambers.—Cooper and Wintermote. 19-13.

O. O. Snyder has been appointed a delegate to the National Conference to Consider the Evils of Inter State Liquor Traffic, which convenes in Washington on December 12, 13, and 14th. Mr. Snyder was appointed by Governor Aldrich.

Wanted:—Will trade O'Neill city property or land in southern Holt for cattle or horses. Will take a couple of hundred head of cattle to feed by the month. For further information call or write Peter Reifers, Chambers Neb. 4-tf.

Jack Thomas, M. H. McCarthy, Tom Enright and Arthur Ryan started out on their annual duck shoot last Sunday morning. The boys expect to put in a week on the lakes in the southwestern part of the county and have promised their numerous friends, who were unable to go, that they will be treated to a duck feed upon their return.

For Sale:—Not having the time to give the poultry business the proper attention I have decided to dispose of my Rose and Single Comb Buff Orpingtons, White Single Comb Orpingtons, and white Plymouth Rocks. They are March pullets, bred right and raised right. Will also sell my pillo coops.—L. E. Carscallen. 17-tf.

Where there is a will there is a way. Recently a man in an adjoining town wished to attend a show, but had not the means. To steal was not honorable, and to beg he was ashamed. At last a happy thought struck him: He went into a grocery store and bought a package of coffee on time, and sold it for cash down the street. This gave him money enough to enter the show and buy refreshments.

Hon. W. A. Prince of Grand Island, Neb., will address the voters of this judicial district at Bassett on Monday, October 30, at Stuart on Tuesday October 31st and at Ewing on Wednesday, November 1st. Mr. Prince is a good orator and is one of the leading attorneys of western Nebraska. R. R. Dickon, republican candidate for district judge will also be present at these meetings and will speak to the voters upon the issues now before the people in this district.

The advertisements in a newspaper, if the merchant means what he says, are a very valuable part of the paper to its readers. Through them the people learn where they can secure bargains and thus save themselves money. For this reason the merchant who has bargains to offer and who always does by his customers just as
