Lower Prices AT MANN'S

As we have a deal hinging on the size of our stock we are going to make the effort of our life to reduce the stock one half in the next thirty days. Now in order to accomplish our end we must meet the people with a line of prices that they cannot resist.

Our Plan

Is to run the stock in general on the low scale of prices we have maintained since starting our Closing Out Sale and then take a line or two a week and make a special price until we have worked every line in the house on that basis. Now, what we mean is this: When we advertise that a line is going on special, we will place the line in prominence and make prices far below the Closing Out Sale price which will certainly bring standard merchandise in the reach of all.

Special For Saturday, Monday, Tuesday
Rugs, Draperies, Carpets, Portiers, Ladies Knit and Muslin Underwear.

Special For Wednesday, Thurs. & Friday
Men's and Boys Clothing and Duck Coats and Fur Coats.

We can't price our line in the papers as they are too large, but it will pay you to visit the store on the Special Sale Days.

Brennan-Cotterill.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Catholic church last Tuesday morning when Father O'Sullivan performed the ceremony that united John T. Brennan and Miss Mary Florence Cotterill, two of O'Neill's most prominent young people, in the holy bonds of wedlock, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties.
After the ceremony was performed the young people repaired to the home of the brides mother where a splendid wedding breakfast was served the bride and groom and the relatives of the happy couple. After the wedding breakfast they left on the ten o'clock train for a weeks visit in Omaha and Sioux City. After their return they will live for the present in the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Sarah Cotterill.
The groom is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Brennan and is a native of O'Neill. He is a young man of sterling integrity and has long been recognized as one of the able, energetic young men of this city. For years he has been with his father in the hardware business and is recognized by his acquaintances as having the ability that places him at the forefront of the city's young business men.
The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. Sarah Cotterill and has been a resident of this city for a little over a year. She is an accomplished young lady who has won a warm spot in the hearts of all her friends by her charming personality. She is a musician of talent and for the past two years has been a member of the Cotterill Sisters Orchestra, which has been recognized as the leading musical organization in this part of the state.
The Frontier joins the many friends of this estimable young people in wishing them many, many years of wedded happiness and prosperity.

A Hint to Ministers.

A clergyman in a neighboring town had been much annoyed by the way members of the congregation had of looking around to take stock of late comers. After enduring it for some time he said on entering the reading desk one Sunday: "Brethren, I regret to see that your attention is called away from your religious duties by your natural desire to see who comes in behind you. I propose henceforth to save you the trouble by naming each person who may enter, and hope that the services will then be allowed to proceed without interruption." He then began: "Dearly beloved," but paused half way, to interlopate "Mr. Stubbins with his wife and daughter." Mr. Stubbins looked rather surprised, but the minister with perfect gravity, resumed his exhortation. Presently he again paused: "Mr. Curtis and William Diggle." The abashed congregation kept their eyes studiously bent on their books. The service continued in the most orderly manner, the parson interrupting himself every now and then to name some newcomer. At last he said still with the most perfect gravity: "Mrs. Symons in a new bonnet." In a moment he felt his mistake, but it was too late. Every feminine head in the congregation had turned around.

The Live Stock Market

South Omaha, Neb., Oct. 31, 1911
—Special weekly market letter from Nye, Schneider Fowler Co.
There is a better tone to the cattle market all around this week. Good, useful cattle in all of the lines of killers are 10 to 15 cents higher. Receipts are becoming more moderate. Stockers and feeders are strong to a dime higher with buyers taking hold in a more active way than in the past week.
We quote:—
Choice beef.....$7.00@8.00
Common Beef down to..... 4.75
Choice Cornfed cows..... 4.75@5.50
Good butcher grades..... 3.75@4.70
Canners and cutters..... 2.75@3.60
Veal calves..... 4.00@7.50
Bulls, stags etc..... 3.25@5.00
Good to choice feeders..... 4.75@5.80
Common grades down to.... 3.40
Stock heifers..... 3.25@4.25
Choice range beef..... 4.80@6.40
Cows and heifers..... 4.25@5.25
Our hog market continues within a narrow range. Packers are still hammering away but cannot break them much on light receipts. Bulk $6.10 to $6.15, top $6.20.
The run of sheep and lambs shows a falling off this week and as a result the market is showing some improvement. We believe the low mark of the season has been passed.

Burgess will appear before the county court on November 11th for preliminary hearing.

Mr. Quig believes that he has invented something that will meet with great popularity from automobile owners.
