Editor York, John Brady and Alex Searl of Atkinson were down yesterday to get the election returns. The boys received a good deal of joshing, from republicans over the county who met them while in town, over the democratic tendencies exhibited by Atkinson township in the election last Tuesday.

Girl of the Eagle Ranch. This play has a well defined plot, is wholesome well constructed and adequately acted. Its incidents are unusually interesting, depicting life in the gold fields of the great west. The cast is exceptionally strong throughout. Many pleasing specialties add to the entertainment.

Mr. Bushnell of Faribury Neb., is in town waiting for J. P. Mann of Chicago to try to complete a deal for the store. Mr. Mann will be here Friday and if things are satisfactory to both parties the store will change hands at once. Mr. Bushnell has been here since Tuesday morning and seems to be taken with the town.

Granite Falls, Minnesota Journal Aug. 3. Applegate and Hugo presented the Girl of Eagle Ranch to a good sized audience here Monday night. The show was above the average, the characters being well taken. The comedian was extra good and the show clean. Should they visit our section again they can be sure of a packed house.

Last Saturday Judge Malone performed the ceremony that united in marriage Thomas Fleener of this city to Mrs. Martha E. Fleener of Bloomington, Ill. Mrs. Fleener was the widow of a cousin of Mr. Fleener. This is Mr. Fleener's fifth matrimonial venture, the last Mrs. Fleener dying in Omaha last June, after a brief illness.

Floyd E. Merriman of city was granted a marriage license to wed Miss Cora Penwell of Page by county Judge Malone last Monday. In the election last Tuesday the republicans of this county won one of the greatest battles for good government and an independent and untrammelled judiciary ever fought in this section of the state. In the election of R. R. Dickson as district judge the voters of this county vigorously set their seal of disapproval on the underhanded campaign methods of the opposition and this fight probably marks the passing of that kind of campaigns in this section. There is no question but that if the voters of the other counties in the district were as well acquainted with Dickson as were the voters of this county that he would have had an enormous majority in the district. But even as it was it is a great victory.

Mr. Dickson carried Boyd county by 35 votes and this county by 190. Whelen carried Keya Paha county by 123 and Rock county by 15, leaving a majority in the district for Mr. Dickson of 87 on the unofficial count. This may be increased a few votes by the official count.

On the county ticket the heavy vote given Sullivan in Atkinson defeated Hunter and insured Sullivan's election as county treasurer. Mr. Hunter received a splendid vote in this city, receiving a majority of four votes in this democratic stronghold, and had he received the normal republican vote in Atkinson would have been elected. Carlon won a notable victory in the fight for county judge. While Mr. Carlon did not receive the vote in this city that his friends figured he would be exceptionally strong in the outside precincts of the county and came under the wire with the majority of 112.

The scrap between Hall and Harmon for clerk of the district court was one of the spectacular ones of the campaign, and resulted in a victory for Harmon with a majority of 125. If Hall had received the vote that his colleagues on the ticket did in Verdigris and had received the normal republican majority in Atkinson township, he would have been returned victor, but those townships rallied to the support of Harmon and insured his election.

The race for county clerk and sheriff was two one sided to be interesting. McNichols ran away from Burch and came under the wire with a majority of 584. In the race for sheriff Grady ran as if he was using one of the latest improved Biplanes and came under the wire with the phenomenal majority of 680.

The county board is now republican, four republicans and two democrats and Mr. Seivers of the fourth district who was the republican and democratic nominee. In the second district Hank Tomilson defeated Floyd Wolfe by about 58 votes. This was the only democrat elected as the other republican candidates defeated their democratic opponents. In the fifth district George Davis, republican defeated Winchell democratic, by a majority of 11, while in the sixth district Antone Prussa present incumbent, was snowed under by J. O. Hubbell, republican, by a majority of 39. This was one of the greatest surprises of the election as the district is nearly 100 democratic and it was not thought Mr. Hubbell had a chance, but he ran like a scared jackrabbit.
