John A. Maring has filed petition in the district court praying for a divorce from Ethel T. Maring to whom he was married in this city on February 26, 1896. He alleges that she deserted him on March 15, 1908, and has since that time refused to live with him. He asks for an absolute divorce and such other relief as may be just and equitable.
This is the season of the year when mothers feel very much concerned over the frequent colds contracted by their children, and have abundant reason for it as every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for the more serious diseases that so often follow. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is famous for its cures, and is pleasant to take. For sale by all dealers.
Dame rumor has been working over time in this city the past week. From reports current upon the streets the past two weeks one of O'Neill's most prominent bachelors had fallen to the wiles of cupid and, so it was reported, was married in Chicago last week. From what The Frontier has been able to learn the rumor was without a shadow of foundation and the desirable bachelor is still heart whole and fancy free.
Miss Templeton of Lincoln, librarian of the State Library Commission, will be in the city next Friday for the purpose of trying to interest the citizens of this city in a public library. The executive committee of the Commercial Club will meet Miss Templeton Friday morning and listen to the proposition she has to submit and it may be possible that a public library will be added to the city during the coming year.
The Emmet Literary Society will give a public literary entertainment at the opera house on Monday evening, March 4, to which the public generally are invited. A splendid literary program is being prepared and the citizens of this city can rest assured that the Society are attempting to have an entertainment that will make the anniversary of Ireland's martyred hero, Robert Emmet, one long to be remembered in this city. A complete program will be published in these columns next week.
Last Monday evening the Knights of Columbus Dramatic Company made their bow to the public and presented "Stub, Or the Fool from Boston" to a crowded house. The play was well staged and well rendered and the members of the cast covered themselves with glory in their initial appearance and theatre lovers of the city hope that they will not be content to rest upon the laurels already won but will again shortly appear with another play to delight, instruct and amuse the lovers of the dramatic art in the city.

A large crowd of friends were present at a linen shower given in honor of Miss Margaret Moore at her home in this city last Friday evening, at which the guest of honor received many beautiful pieces of linen. Cards were the principal feature of amusement and Miss Julia Mandeville and Mr. James McDermott received first prizes on account of their proficiency in the games. A delicious lunch was served at midnight and the guests departed for home after wishing Miss Moore and her intended husband many years of happiness and bliss.
Messers Jack, Daniel and Gene Sullivan and their sister, Miss Mary, entertained a party of friends at their home in this city last Sunday evening with a "literary party" and it was one of the pleasantest events of the season. A delicious luncheon was served at midnight in the preparation and serving of which the hosts and hostess demonstrated a high degree of culinary ability. The gathering broke up at 1 a. m. and the guests departed for home each feeling thankful for having been permitted to have been present at such a delightful and pleasant gathering, and hoping that these grand entertainers would again give them the opportunity to enjoy their hospitality.
The executive committee of the Commercial Club held their first regular meeting last Tuesday evening and the hotel proposition was gone over thoroughly. S. J. Weekes, who was out of the city at the time the first meeting was held, was present as a member of the committee and said that if they were going to offer such a large bonus for a hotel he would like to submit a proposition to build a hotel upon his corner north of the Golden corner, where the old land office building now stands. Mr. Golden then made the committee a new proposition. He said that if they would give him $5,000 he would build a $20,000 hotel on the corner. The building would cost $20,000 exclusive of the value of the land. This amount he figures would give O'Neill a hotel building that would be ample for the needs of the city for several years. The committee were very favorably impressed with the proposition and they will get to work this week to raise the balance of the amount necessary to make up the bonus and it is hoped that at the next banquet of the Commercial Club on March 12, plans for the erection of a modern up-to-date hotel for this city will be completed and that the work on the building will commence as soon as spring opens up.
