Opportunity Items.

Jesse McAllister has rented the Jack Thomas place, south of Opportunity for this year.

Miss Ruth Simonson of Agee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loran Simonson, is on the sick list this week.

Since our last items we have received another large supply of snow, but it is going fast at this writing.

Mrs. Awalt Spangler is undergoing another spell of sickness, which came on soon after her return from Omaha. We hope soon to hear of her complete recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berger were pleasant callers at the Hatch home last Sunday evening. Phonograph music was the order of entertainment for the evening.

McAllister's sale took place on the 25th instead of on the 22nd, as was stated in our last items, but that was owing to the fact that the date was changed, and ye scribe did not learn of the change of dates in time to make a correction.

The daily papers speak of the indignation of the neighbors of Roy Blunt in Sarpy county, on account of his unfortunate death, and great sympathy for his bereaved widow. Well they might, for the people of the whole state were very much shocked at the bungling way the capture of those convicts was effected, and the deepest sympathy prevails for the widow. It is the consensus of opinion in this locality, that no reward that the state can bestow upon the unfortunate widow of Roy Blunt could ever repay her for her loss, but that she is entitled to, and should receive a pension for life, in addition to the reward. They also believe that the party to blame for his death, should be ferried out, tried, and on conviction be given a punishment that was commensurate with his offense.

Leonie Items.

Steve Hicks went to O'Neill Monday.

Another wedding in view my good people.

William Buttloph is very ill at at his home.

Thomas Hrrison departed for Montana the first of the week. Ralph Bell and Horace Rouse were callers at Steve Hicks' Sunday.

Miss Sarah Beaver is here to keep house for Mr. Beaver, as Mrs. Beaver is ill.

Quite a number of our residents attended the sale at McAllister's last Monday.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clevenger's St. Patricks day. My little Irish rose!

Ruth and Axel Borg visited Miss Addie Hubby Sunday, and were very pleasant callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Dude Harrison and daughter, were visitors at the Orvil Harrison home, Sunday.

Edward Burch, was of course, a welcome guest at the home of Edson Sargents, Saturday and Sunday.

A social was given at Bertha Rouse's school Friday night, it being the close of the term. We do not know how much was taken in, but suppose it was a good sum.

A white horse was seen galloping up towards Elmer Rouse's Sunday. I wonder who it could have been?

Edward Hubby, Levi Good-fellow, Ralph Bell and Horace Rouse, each took a load of hogs to O'Neill, Monday.

Miss Alma Ridgeway went to O'Neill to take the eight grade examination papers in to be corrected, Saturday.

The eight grade examination held at Leonie school March 21 and 22nd, was very well attended, their being seven present.

Rev. Price has organized a boy scout society at Leonie. All boys under 16 years of age are eligible to membership. I wish I was a boy.

We hear by the talk over the telephone line that Herman Stein won the automobile for getting the largest number of subscribers for The Nebraska Farmer. We also hear that he was over a thousand ahead of the other contestants. We hope his car will prove worthy of the work he has done to win it.

Inman Items.

Mrs. Robinson and children are here from Ashton, Idaho, visiting with William Simmerman and family.

Dr. and Mrs. Noyes, are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby girl at their home, last Saturday evening.

Mr. M. A. Brakemeyer went up to O'Neill last Monday to look after some business affairs at that place, returning Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Ethel Laucks and son Edward came up from Norfolk last week and visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Tompkins.

Mrs. J. J. Halron sold her residence property to Frank Colman Sr., last Wednesday and rented her vacant lot to Mr. Charles Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffin and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Downey and family and Mrs. J. J. Halron, left for their home at Burwell last Thursday morning.

The people of Inman were sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. C. P. Chase. The family have the sympathy of their many friends of this vicinity.

M. A. Brakemeyer, Miss Brakemeyer and Miss Thompson went to Stafford last Saturday and drove across and visited with Ezra Moore, returning Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. VanEvery came down from Amelia last Sunday to visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. N. J. VanEvery before leaving for Leigh, Nebraska, where they will visit with her parents.

City Election Next Tuesday.

The city election will be held next Tuesday and as there are two or more candidates for every office to be filled a lively scrap is looked for. Following are the candidates for the several offices:

Mayor—O. F. Biglin, Sheridan Simmons.
City Clerk—H. J. Hammond, Charles C. Reka.
Treasurer—J. F. Gallagher, C. P. Hancock.
Alderman, First ward—T. D. Hanley, J. B. Ryan.
Alderman, Second ward—Neil Brennan, P. D. Mullen, George Gibbons.
Alderman, Third ward—R. S. Hill lhrd, Samuel Barnard, Charles Davis.

Presbyterian Items.

Sunday morning Mar. 31, there will be no morning service but the regular Sabbath school will be held. Everyone cordially invited to bible school. Sunday evening 7:30. The regular service will be held. D. J. Malone will address the congregation in the absence of the stated supply. The choir will also have some special music. Do not miss this service.

Rev. D. B. Balston.

Hay Land For Sale

4,000 acres of the best Elkhorn Valley hay land between O'Neill and Emmet now offered for sale. To settle a long standing partnership, one-half of the holdings of the Elkhorn Valley Irrigation Company is now thrown on the market at a low price.

The following are the legal descriptions of the land offered for sale:

West half northeast, north half northwest 25-29-13
Southeast quarter 25-29-13
South half 30-29-12
Northeast quarter, east half southeast quarter 31-29-12
Northwest quarter 32-29-12
South half 32-29-12
West half 28-29-12
Northwest quarter 33-29-12
Southeast quarter 33-29 12
West half 5-28-12
Northeast quarter 5-28-12
Northwest quarter 4-28-12
Southeast quarter 4-28-12
Southeast quarter 4-28-12
Northeast quarter 4-28-12
Northeast quarter 18-28-11
East half northwest, west half northwest 19-28-11
West half 18-28-11

This is your last chance to secure a good hay quarter close to town. Remember hay land is the best property a man can own. The crop never fails. The price of hay close to market is always high.

I will be at the office of J. A. Donohoe in O'Neill, for the purpose of selling these lands in tracts to suit purchaser, for the next two weeks. Warranty deed and abstract showing perfect title furnished with each tract. Come in and deal direct with the owner.

The QUALITY of GOLDEN SHEAF

Is the Result of Our Using Only the Choicest NEBRASKA Grains.

During the past forty years we have paid to the farmers of Nebraska more than thirty million dollars. We have received in return, the choicest grain that the state has produced. These statements explain WHY GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKIES have ALWAYS BEEN on the same HIGH DEGREE OF EXCELLENCE.

The result of forty-five years of careful study of the distilling business is embodied in

GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKIES

Bottled in Bond at WILLOW SPRINGS DISTILLERY Omaha, U. S. A.

The WILLOW SPRINGS DISTILLERY is the only distillery worthy of the name west of the Mississippi River, having been founded in 1866.

GOLDEN SHEAF WHISKIES are equal to the best that can be produced, yet are sold at a popular price. This is possible because these whiskies are distilled in one of the great distilleries, located in the heart of the grain belt and operating a very large capacity.
