¶ Every accommodation is afforded farmers and you are cordially invited to make this bank your headquarters when you come to town.

NEBRASKA STATE BANK

JAMES F. O'DONNELL, CASHIER

5 PER CENT INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS

The depositors of this bank are protected by the depositors' guarantee fund of the state of Nebraska.

S. S. Welpton, President. O. F. Biglin, Vice President.

Jess stopped for a couple of days in Chicago but says that the strenuous times incident to the republican national convention was too much for him and he came home without attending a session of the convention.
 Dan and William Kelly, sons of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Kelly of this city, returned from Omaha last week where they had been attending Creighton College. The boys both wore gold medals which was awarded them for having led their classes in the final examination. It is quite an honor to be the recipient of a gold medal from Creighton and the boys are to be congratulated for their diligence in their college work.
 Dave Isaacson, of Conley township, who owns the Ogden hotel, has commenced the work of repairing and enlarging the same. The entire building will be remodeled and an addition 22x23 added to the front of the building, which will bring it flush with the street. A modern front will be placed in the building and when completed they expect to have a thoroughly modern hotel. It is an improvement that has long been needed and will add much to the appearance of East Douglas street.
 A number of O'Neill auto drivers seem to think that the boulevard on East Douglas street was built for auto speeding and they use it as a speedway every evening. The city officials have repeatedly warned the offenders that the city streets were not intended as a speedway but they ignore the warnings and the officers have decided to pull the next offender and put a good stiff fine on him in the hopes that the speeders will learn that they mean business and that speeding in the city limits must stop.
 S. J. Weekes returned from Chicago last Sunday night, where he had been attending the republican national convention. John says that he attended every session of the convention, having been provided with good convention seats by Victor Rosewater. He has attended national conventions before but says that for genuine interest and tense moments the convention of 1912 puts them all in the shade. As John was an enthusiastic Taft man the nomination of the president was gratifying to him, but the scenes and incidents witnessed in the convention, he says, will never be forgotten.
 Thomas Grady of this city and Miss Margaret Smith of Atkinson were united in the holy bonds of wedlock at the Catholic church in Atkinson last Tuesday morning by Rev. Father Locker, in the presence of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The happy young couple left that evening for Sylvan Lake, S. D., where they will spend a few weeks at that popular resort. Upon their return they will go to housekeeping in the Golden residence on Clay street, between Second and Third. The Frontier joins the many friends of the happy young couple in wishing them many years of happiness and prosperity.

 The farmers living in the northern part of the county and the business men of the thriving village of Red Bird have determined to have a genuine old-time Fourth of July celebration at Red Bird next Thursday. The Lynch band will furnish the music for the occasion and the Red Bird choir will furnish the vocal music. A ball game between Lynch and Dorsey will be one of the main attractions of the day and horse racing and foot racing and other sports will be given due attention. Dancing afternoon and evening. Those in charge of the arrangements say they expect to have the largest crowd ever assembled in Holt county to celebrate the glorious Fourth.
 Mr. Farmer, one of your great problems may be to enthrone your boy or girl to give honest, earnest assistance in farm work during the summer months. Why not hold out as an inducement a trip to the State Fair at Lincoln, Sept. 2-6, where the best exhibits and greatest attractions are gathered together? Just think, in addition to the best horse races, will be seen aeroplane flights, the entire Cheyenne Frontier Days show, Liberator's great band Grand Opera Concert company, night attractions, fireworks, and a number of other events in addition to the very best exhibits of stock, products of the soil, improved machinery, etc. Is it not worth trying?
 Secretary Ryan of the Fair Association is busy these days corresponding with horsemen throughout the country regarding the race meet which will be held in this city next August. Arthur says that from present indications there will be the greatest string of horses entered for the races this year that have ever appeared at a race meet in this section of the state. As O'Neill has always had a good string of horses at the meets in the past the coming event promises to eclipse all others. The management expects to commence work upon the erection of a new grand stand within the next ten days in order to have everything ready for the accommodation of the crowds that will be here at the meet in August.

 Charles R. Pettibone and Miss Agnes T. Bentley were united in marriage at the residence of the brides mother in this city last evening at 8 o'clock by Rev. Magill of Stuart, in the presence of a large crowd of relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride and groom are old time residents of this city and very popular in the circles in which they move. After the ceremony they left for Long Pine where they will spend a few weeks camping at the park there. Upon their return they will go to housekeeping in the residence now occupied by Mrs. Froelich on the corner of Everett and Fifth streets, recently purchased by the groom. The Frontier joins the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Pettibone in wishing them prosperity and happiness.
 Atkinson and Dorsey played an interesting ball game on the local diamond last Sunday afternoon, Atkinson winning out with a score of 8 to 7. The game started out in league style and for a few innings it looked as if Dorsey had far the better of it. Kirkac, a high school boy from Butte, was in the box for Dorsey and had the Atkinson sluggers breaking their bats reaching for his wide outs and he had as nice a break to his ball as any man who has stood upon the mound on the O'Neill diamond for several years. In the fifth inning, after two were out, he put a straight one over the pan to Kirkland and he laced it out for two sacks. Five scores were then made in this inning which gave Atkinson a lead that Dorsey was unable to overcome. The Dorsey boys drove Atkinson's pitcher to the stable in the fourth inning and Kirkland took his place. Kirk pitched as good a game as he has ever twirled in this section, but two runs being made off his delivery and they were scored on errors. It was a good game the outcome of which was in doubt until the last man was out in the ninth and was thoroughly enjoyed by a large crowd of fans and fannettes.
