The republicans are not the only ones who have troubles as is evidenced by the strenuous struggle the democrats had at Baltimore to select their standard bearer for the coming campaign.

J. P. Golden was passing around the cigars last Monday morning over the arrival of an eight pound son, which arrived at his home that morning. Parnell says that he will not be able to vote the democratic ticket this fall but that he will be able to do a little shouting when they celebrate the democratic victory next November.

Buy it now. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. Buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency. For sale by all dealers.

For soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. This liniment also relieves rheumatic pains. For sale by all dealers.

Dysentery is always serious and often a dangerous disease, but it can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has cured it even when malignant and epidemic. For sale by all dealers.

R. J. Starr, one of the old-time implement dealers of Chambers, was in the city last Saturday morning and made this office a pleasant call and ordered this household necessity sent to his address for the ensuing year.

During the summer months mothers of young children should watch for any unnatural looseness of the bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.

O. F. Biglin made a business trip to Omaha and Lincoln the first of the week. Mr. Biglin says there seems to be as much dissatisfaction among the democrats in the eastern part of the state over the action of the democratic convention as there was among the republicans over the action of the republican convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Dr. G. J. Hess and daughter of Wayne, Nebr., were in the city Wednesday noon on their return to their home after a weeks visit at the home of Mrs. Hess' parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Benson, north of this city. They made the trip in their car and left here after dinner and expected to drive to Norfolk that afternoon.

Sacramento, (Cal.) Bee: Sacramento fight fans are proclaiming their disapproval of Referee Billy Johnson's action in giving a decision to Frank Mantell at the close of his 20-round fight with Montana Dan Sullivan there last night. Sullivan, much lighter than Mantell, gave the claimant of the middleweight title the worst beating of his career.

The Misses Margaret Donohoe, Sue and Nellie O'Donnell left for Gillette, Wyoming, last Monday night where each of the young ladies expect to file upon a quarter section of Uncle Sam's domain. Charles McKenna went along to post the young ladies upon the quality of the soil in that section of the state, and to look after their welfare and comfort on the journey.

For Sale—On account of the condition of my health, which will prevent me from running my truck garden this season, I offer for sale 19 good residence lots in the western part of the city. These lots have been used by me in my truck garden the past four years and there is no better soil in this vicinity. Will dispose of them on reasonable terms.—B. H. Johring, O'Neill. 42-tf

James O'Donnell of Stafford, one of Holt county's hustling young stockmen, was a caller at these headquarters last Monday and ordered The Frontier sent to his address. Mr. O'Donnell said that he wanted to keep posted upon Holt county affairs and after a careful scrutiny of Holt county's newspapers he became convinced that The Frontier was the paper that filled the bill.

M. H. McCarthy, Arthur Ryan and Thomas Enright went up to Enders Lake, south of Ainsworth, last Saturday evening and spent Sunday fishing for bass at that popular lake. The boys say they caught the limit in a few hours and returned to Ainsworth and came home on the early train Monday morning. They did not succeed in catching any big bass and E. H. Whelen still holds the championship belt.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes, sweeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by all dealers.

from one to seven years in the penitentiary. His accomplice, Frank Conroy, plead guilty and was sentenced by Judge Dickson to an indeterminate sentence of from one to five years in the state penitentiary. They were taken to the penitentiary by Sheriff Grady last Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Ed McBride and three children left Tuesday morning for Armstrong, Iowa, where they will spend a few weeks visiting at the home of her son, Emmet, who is the editor of the Armstrong Journal. From there they will go to West Superior, Wis., where they will spend a couple of weeks visiting at the home of her son, John, who is one of the instructors in the high school there. On their return home they will visit a couple of weeks with a couple of sisters of Mr. McBride in Minnesota.

District court adjourned last Saturday until September 3 when the jury are to return for the trial of the Carr case. Attorney Harrington, who is the leading attorney for the defense, is in Omaha receiving medical treatment and wrote Judge Dickson that his physician said on account of his present condition he might suffer serious injury to undertake the trial of such an important case at the present time and asked for a continuance of two months. This was granted by the court and the case set for trial on September 3.

A class of forty-eight members were initiated into the local council of the Knights of Columbus last Sunday. The work was in charge of District Deputy Fitzgerald of Lincoln who was assisted by the officers of the local council. At the conclusion of the initiation ceremony a banquet was held at the K. O. hall which was attended by about two hundred members where toasts were responded to by many of the leading members of the order. Members were present from Atkinson, Stuart, Ewing, Randolph, Elgin, Norfolk, Creighton and Omaha.

J. L. Shanner was up from Page Tuesday. Mr. Shanner informed us that O. F. Darnblaser of Texas, supreme lecturer and organizer for the Farmers Educational & Co-operative Union of America, will deliver two addresses in the state of Nebraska some time during the month of July and that he had agreed to deliver one of the addresses in this city. Mr. Darnblaser is said to be a gifted orator and will no doubt be greeted with a large audience when he visits this city. The Frontier will announce the date of the address probably next week or the week thereafter.

Ten automobiles nicely decorated with banners streaming and loaded with enthusiastic Ewing Boosters were in the city last Monday morning boosting for the celebration which will be held in that thriving village on July Fourth. They carried a liberal amount of advertising telling of the various amusements which would be offered the people that day, which was distributed around the city by a couple of Ewing's charming young ladies. The features of the celebration will be a biplane flight by Savage Brothers of Ewing, who made successful flights at Norfolk last week. There will also be a fast ball game between Emmet and Ewing. When the Boosters left here they pulled for Emmet and Atkinson and intended making Page, Orchard and Neligh before the days work was concluded.

Card of Thanks.

To the friends and neighbors who came to us in our hour of trouble, and contributed all that human kindness could suggest, to help and comfort, we return our heartfelt thanks, and although such devoted friendship cannot remove the sad memories that linger around our vacant chair, it brings into view the brightest side of humanity, and throws the pure light of an unselfish friendship into a darkened home. May the day be far distant when those friends who gathered around us will need similar attention, but when the time comes may they receive the same full measure of generous aid and tender sympathy they brought to our home when death was an inmate there.

Old Settlers' Picnic.

The members of the Old Settlers' Picnic Association of Holt and Boyd counties will hold their annual meeting for the purpose of electing officers, making arrangements to hold the annual picnic for 1912, and for the transaction of any other business that may properly come before the meeting, at Meek, Holt county, Nebraska, on Saturday, July 13, 1912, at 8 o'clock p. m.

It is earnestly requested that all members and all those desiring to become members be present at this meeting.

Dan Sullivan Cheated by Referee.

The following account of the twenty round battle fought by Dan Sullivan and Frank Mantell at Sacramento, Cal., on June 4, is taken from the Sacramento Star and clearly shows that the decision to Mantell was not according to the opinion formed by the sport writers or the fight followers of the California city.

"Giving Frank Mantell all due credit for the punishment he meted out to Montana Dan Sullivan in their 20-round go at the Diepenbroek theater Tuesday evening, the majority of fans couldn't see where the local man had so much the better of the battle that he should have had a decision over the tough miner—for Sullivan handed out a bunch of punishment himself. But Referee Billie Johnson didn't see it that way, and at the end of the gruelling struggle he held Mantell's right arm aloft and the claimant of the middleweight title had another victory on his record."

"Mantell was given the worst beating of his career. Uppercuts and right swings that Sullivan landed when fighting at long range had a telling effect, and nearly every fan was standing up at the close of the mill yelling for a draw. Fighting in his own peculiar style, Mantell did effective work in the clinches. Blows to the face and stomach put Sullivan in distress at times. At the beginning of the contest the miner tried to fight the local man at the latter's game and while he put in some stiff punches to Frank's head, the latter had somewhat the better of the close range fighting. During the middle of the battle, Sullivan kept away from the local man and shot in frequent right swings. Some of these landed hard on Frank's mouth which was spouting blood during the last ten rounds. But Sullivan contributed his share of the carnage. Before the fight had fairly started, Mantell, with a short jolt, cut open an old wound above the miner's left eye, and the blood was streaming down his face until the close of the contest. Mantell was not in the best condition. He had a lot of surplus meat and outweighed Sullivan by at least six pounds."

Notice.

To automobile owners and drivers. On and after this date the law regulating the speed of automobiles will be rigidly enforced. Do you own or drive an automobile? If so, this means you. Patrick Coyne, Chief of Police. O'Neill, Nebr., June 27, 1912.
