During the summer months mothers of young children should watch for any unnatural looseness of the bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For sale by all dealers.

J. J. Thomas and Arthur Ryan returned last Monday evening from Lake Andes, S. D., where they went last week on a fishing trip. They made the trip in Mr. Thomas' auto and say they had a delightful time and good luck with the finney tribe, although as to the latter we will have to take their word for it as we have seen no evidence of their success.

Neligh Leader: Road expert Booth who is to come here soon to do some work on streets and roads leading out of Neligh, has certainly done some fine work of road building at O'Neill. Conditions for good road making are not nearly so favorable at that place as in Neligh and yet O'Neill now has some of the finest streets that are to be found anywhere in the country. Both in drainage and surfacing the roads are practically perfect.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes, sweeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by all dealers.

One of the swellest parties of the summer season was a dancing party given at the K. O. hall last Thursday evening by Mrs. S. J. Weekes in honor of her sister, Miss Dickinson of Omaha. Fifty young people were present and all report a very pleasant time. Music for the occasion was furnished by the O'Neill Orchestra. The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion with ferns. During the dancing intermissions punch was served the guests.

Inadvertently the office force have omitted the advertising of John L. Quig the past two weeks. Mr. Quig is a firm believer in the drawing power of advertising and is now more than ever convinced of the good derived to the advertiser who has something to sell. He says that since his advertising has been dropped that dozens of men have asked him if he has quit loaning money upon farms, thereby proving to him that the readers of this publication are also careful readers of its advertising. He wants us to correct the impression that has gone out and assure the people of Holt county that he is still loaning money and can make you the most desirable rates of any man in the business.

Andrew Schmidt returned last Sunday evening from a three months visit at his boyhood home in Germany. Andrew says that he had a delightful time on his visit but he was very glad to get back to the good old U. S. A. and to Holt, one of the brightest spots therein. He says that crops in this section look much better than they do farther east, as the extreme dry weather in the east has practically put the agriculturalist out of it for this season.

Wayne Herald: Ruben Elmer Liveringhouse, who has lived in Wayne most of the time since 1892, died Sunday, July 24, aged 60 years, 9 months and 12 days. He was born at Goshen, Ind., October 2, 1851. He was never married. He leaves to mourn his departure three brothers and one sister, being John Liveringhouse of Wayne, William and David Liveringhouse of Madison, and Mary Sagendorf of Portland, Ore. Funeral services were conducted at the home of a nephew, Jack Liveringhouse, in Wayne, by Rev. William Gorst of the M. E. church, Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Neligh Leader: O'Neill sent several automobiles out to meet the boosters, but owing to a misunderstanding as to the road which the party was to take did not meet them until just as the party was entering the city. If there is any way in which the visitors could have been better made to feel that they were welcome than the ones adopted, it would take considerable figuring to plan it out. All were hungry and dinner of course, was the first thing on the program. When members of the party came out of the dining room to settle their bills they were told there was nothing doing in the pay line, and this was only one of the many evidences of good will exhibited. Dinner over C. W. Wattles made a short address setting forth the objects of the trip, and J. J. Harrington replied in behalf of the people of O'Neill. He said that the two towns had always been mutually helpful and that O'Neill was only too glad to help Neligh boost, and also invites Nelighites to visit the O'Neill races the week before the Neligh event. The band and vocalists were the recipients of hearty applause. Regretfully the boosters pulled out for Inman with mutual expressions of good will.

We Want This.

Manager Donohoe informs us that he is negotiating with the manager of "The Lion and the Mouse" for one night. He says there is very little chance for such a company having a date open. No matter, let them know we are on earth. We may catch them on their return. You must remember, 'twas wind that made Chicago. keep blowing your horn.

Lynch Boosters, advertising their chautauqua, were scheduled to arrive here at noon today.

STEAM ROLLER WORKED

Progressive Republicans Flattened Out By Steam Roller Methods in County Convention.

STATE TICKET NOT ENDORSED

Endorsement of Congressional, State and County Tickets Turned Down By Convention.

Progressive republicans received little consideration at the county convention held in this city last Saturday. In the make up of committees they were given representation on but one, the committee to select delegates to the state convention, and on this committee of seven they were allowed but one member, and they therefore are not represented on the state delegation.

The republican county convention was called to order at the court room in this city last Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, by O. G. Snyder, chairman of the county central committee. In the absence of the secretary A. H. York was called by the chair to act as secretary, and he read the call for the convention.

Nominations for temporary chairman were called for and C. E. Hall was named by Joseph Matousek of Sheridan, while D. H. Cronin was placed in nomination by Morton Greeley of Atkinson. S. J. Weekes moved that the vote on temporary chairman be by roll call and said motion was adopted. On roll call the vote was: Hall 48; Cronin 29. Twelve townships voted upon the temporary chairman. The vote upon temporary chairman was the line drawn between the two factions of the party. Hall represented the standpatters, who desired an unequivocal endorsement of President Taft and the work of the Chicago convention, while Cronin and his followers were in favor of not endorsing the Chicago convention but endorsing the state, congressional and county tickets. The seven votes of Grattan township, cast for Hall, was questioned on the grounds that a caucus had not been held in the township and that the votes of the township should not be cast until their right to a seat in the convention had been determined. The chair held that the appeal should go before the credentials committee and permitted the vote to stand. It was also moved that the four votes of Francis township, cast by W. E. Scott, be ruled out for the reason that Mr. Scott was not a resident of the township as he had participated in the republican caucus in Atkinson where he had been defeated for delegate to the convention. The chair ruled the protest out of order, saying that it should go before the credentials committee, and the vote of Francis township was allowed to stand as cast. Ewing township held no caucus but Assessor Skidmore was present and cast the 13 votes of that township for Mr. Hall in the preliminary organization. His right to vote the township was not questioned however, as it was seen that under the rulings of the chair in the two former instances that a protest would have been unavailing. It will be seen, however, that had the votes of Francis, Grattan and Inman, 24 in all, not been allowed on the temporary organization that the progressives would have had a majority of seven votes in the convention.

The election of temporary chairman over A. H. York of Atkinson was elected secretary by acclamation.

The chair was authorized to select a committee of five on credentials and he selected the following: O. O. Snyder, R. N. Brittell, Samuel Taggart, Joseph Matousek and L. E. Shidmore. Although the question of the legality of some of the delegates to seats in the convention were questioned the progressives were not given representation upon this committee. Mr. Snyder objected to serving upon the committee and H. D. Grady was appointed in his place.

D. H. Cronin moved that the following be selected by the convention as a committee on resolutions: A. H. York, Morton Greeley, S. J. Weekes, Ernest Beaver and A. C. Purnell, which motion was duly seconded. Dell Akin moved that the chair appoint the committee on resolutions. The chair ruled Mr. Akin's motion out of order. The roll was called upon the Cronin motion and it was adopted with a vote of 45 for and 25 against.

Dell Akin moved that the chair appoint a committee of seven to name delegates to the state convention. Objection was raised to this motion by Mr. Cronin that the credentials committee had not yet reported and that the convention was not permanently organized, therefore the motion
