Fame in one Night.
 Miss Rose A. Fallon, Nebraska's Queen of song and a native daughter of O'Neill, gave a song recital here in the knights of Columbus Opera House on the evening of September 2nd, 1912, to a numerous and selected house which was rapturous in its applause of the well trained and gifted singer, who has returned from Chicago, where she has spent the last two years studying under the renowned Herman Devries of the Metropolitan Opera Company, and Miss Lela Breed, the noted German lieder.
 Before her return home, she made an operatic tour of the principal eastern cities in the company of Mr. Andreas Dipple, manager of the Chicago and Philadelphia Grand Opera Company, who claims she is the coming American Contralto. By her charming personality and rare given voice of natural quality, she gained the attention and interest of the famous singer, Madame Shuman Heink, who bespeaks of her a great and wonderful future.
 The recital commenced at 8:30, Miss Rose Fallon, being assisted by Mrs. C. B. Scott, a skillful accompanist, and Mrs. Hotchkiss, piano soloist of worthy mention.

 Miss Rose Fallon
 Mrs. Scott at the Piano
 Miss Rose Fallon, in singing the Aria from "Romeo e Guletta"—"A Se Tu Dormi", thrilled her audience with her velvet sympathetic tone and her pronunciation and enunciation of the Italian text showed the artistic conception of the proper interpretation of the masterpiece number she chose to sing.
 Miss Margaret Fallon, a younger sister, sang Tom Moore's "Last Rose of Summer" in a rich sweet and sympathetic soprano voice that electrified the house, after which Frank Lynes "My Honey" was sung "a la Fallon Trio" by the prima donna and her youngest sisters, Misses Margaret and Mae Fallon.
 Miss Rose Fallon's closing numbers were "I hear you Calling Me" by Charles Marshall; "Still wie die Nacht" by Carl Bohr. For encore numbers, to which she graciously responded, she presented "The Shoozy Shoo" and "At Parting" in which the richness and resonant quality of her tones were fully exemplified.
 With a glorious creamy voice flawless from top to bottom, a talent given to but few in a generation, and her magnetic force of a cherished personality, she has gained a place that is hers alone with her people. She expects to return to Chicago soon to resume her studies and concert work, after which she will make plans to study in Berlin.

 Dan Murphy, formerly of O'Neill, Nebr., but now of Edgemont, S. D., wished to inform his old friends that there is still plenty of good government land to be had in this vicinity. Good locations, good land. For full particulars write or better still come and see.—Fall River Land Co. 4-10
 Few, if any, medicines, have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by all dealers.
 An article that has real merits should in time become popular. That such is the case with Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been attested by many dealers. Here is one of them. H. W. Hendrickson, Ohio Falls, Ind., writes, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the best for coughs, colds and croup, and is my best seller." For sale by all dealers.

 J. R. Bitney of Omaha was in the city last Saturday and Sunday visiting at the home of his cousin, S. L. Thompson and other relatives here. Mr. Bitney is a son of George Bitney, who resided on a farm four miles east of this city for several years, but who removed from this city some twenty years ago. The family is now located in Wisconsin.
 Dave Moler of Wayne was an O'Neill visitor last Monday. For many years Mr. Moler was a resident of this county and city, but left here some six or eight years ago and moved to Wayne, where he still resides. Dave says it does him good to get back to O'Neill and visit his old-time neighbors and friends. He returned home last Tuesday morning.
 We take great pleasure in inviting you to call at our store on Tuesday, September 10. A representative of the city tailors of Chicago will be there with over 200 patterns of fine woolsens in the piece, from which we ask you to select your new fall suit or overcoat. Fit and workmanship guaranteed. You will find it to your interest to call and have your measure taken.—J. P. Gallagher.
 Arch Henry and son, Clarence, came up from South Omaha last Sunday evening and will visit relatives and friends here for about ten days. They made the trip in a Brush runabout. Arch is now engaged in the grocery business in South Omaha and says he is prospering. The growth of this city in the past three years surprised him and he says that O'Neill now gives evidence of making a city, and that before many years.
 Ed and Bud Latta of Tekamah and E. E. Davis of Chicago arrived in the city last Saturday in Mr. Latta's car and accompanied by Charles Stout, C. F. McKenna and J. B. Mellor went over into Wheeler county on a hunting trip Sunday. They returned Monday night and reported game to be very scarce in the sand hills south of this city, the six of them securing only fifty birds in the two days. The visitors left for their home Tuesday morning.
 D. A. Criss of Dallas, S. D., arrived in the city last Saturday evening and has taken the position of agent for the Northwestern railroad in this city. Mr. Criss was a resident of this city some fifteen years ago, having been operator under W. J. Dobbs and for a few months under E. R. Adams. He was stationed here for nearly three years. Mr. Criss has been agent at Dallas every since the station was established, and his transfer to this city is a promotion for him. The Frontier welcomes Mr. Criss back to O'Neill and hopes that the position of agent at this place will be both pleasant and profitable. Mr. Wurzbacher, who has been the agent here the past two months, has been transferred back to his old station at Colome, S. D.

 Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hatch and children will leave next week on an extended automobile trip through Nebraska, Kansas and Colorado. From here they will go to Hastings where they will be joined by Mr. Hatch's brother-in-law who will accompany them upon their trip in his car. From Hastings they will go to Denver then on to Colorado Springs, and will come back home through northern Kansas. They expect to be gone about three weeks and will cover about 1,500 miles.
 Dr. A. A. Hardy of Lincoln was in the city the first of the week. Mr. Hardy has been living in the southwestern part of this county for a couple of years and has organized a dramatic company from the residents of Southern Holt, under the name of the Glen Iris Dramatic Co. and is arranging to put on the "Lady of the Lake" in the local opera house about October the 1st. Mr. Hardy has had many years experiences upon the stage and says that he has gathered together a company of talent and believe that they will be able to satisfy the most exacting critics of the drama.
 Mr. and Mrs. O. F. George of Carter, S. D., arrived in the city last week for a visit at the home of Mrs. George's mother, Mrs. O. E. Davidson. They were on their way home from Rochester, Minn., where Mrs. George had been in a hospital for the past month, recovering from an operation. Mr. George returned home Monday morning while his wife remained here and will visit for a month or more. Mr. George is the editor of the Carter News and says that the newspaper business is good in South Dakota. Twenty-eight years ago he was an employee of The Frontier and says that he has always had a warm spot in his heart for the Emerald Tinted city.
 A large crowd was present at the old settlers' picnic near Meek last Thursday. A splendid program of sports were arranged for the edification of the crowd and they all seemed to enjoy them. The principal event was a ball game between Bristow and Meek, in which the latter were returned victorious with a score of 7 to 1. Considering the diamond the game was played upon it was a splendid exhibition of the national pastime and thoroughly enjoyed by the large crowd. Horse races, foot races and a tug of war was among the other sports. Ex-Governor Shallenberger arrived about 6 o'clock and he delivered a short address, which was fairly well received. A large portion of the crowd were looking at the horse races at the time of the speaking, therefore a very small portion of the crowd heard the address. During the races one of the horses bolted the track and ran into the crowd, knocking down J. F. O'Donnell and Mike Enright. Mike escaped with a badly bruised leg, but Jim O'Donnell had his right shoulder blade broken. The distance they were knocked by the horses they were fortunate in escaping more serious injury. Taking it all through the picnic was a decided success and many of those present are already figuring upon going back to attend the next annual picnic in 1913.

Ditch Company Sell Out.
 One of the largest real estate deals ever made in Holt county was transacted last week when F. M. Widner, of the Elkhorn Ditch Company, sold the real estate holdings of the company, comprising 10,000 acres, to Thomas Campbell of Colorado Springs, Colorado. The largest amount of this land is situated south of this city and as good hay land as there is in the state. There is 7,360 acres in the tract south of town and was sold to Mr. Campbell for $35.00 per acre. The balance of the land, 2,640 acres, is located on the Eagle, north of this city, and was sold for $20 per acre.
 This land, or nearly all of it, was purchased by Mr. Widner and his associates some twenty years ago and cost them less than $10 an acre, so that they made a splendid profit upon their investment. The Frontier regrets to see Mr. Widner dispose of his Holt county interests as he has always been a booster for this portion of the state and always demonstrated his faith in its future by investing in real estate when it was a drug upon the market. That he has made a bunch of money on his Holt county land is a source of gratification to his many friends in this county. The new owner, Mr. Campbell, intends to move to this city and make this his future home. It is his intention to dispose of a large portion of the land, retaining only enough for a ranch. Next spring he intends to build a home upon section sixteen, just southwest of the city limits. The Frontier welcomes Mr. Campbell to O'Neill and believes that he made a good investment when he purchased the Ditch Company's holdings.
Joe McHugh Skips Out.
 District court convened in this city last Tuesday morning being an adjourned term called for the purpose of trying the case of the state of Nebraska vs. John Carr. Carr was to be tried on complaint filed by the county attorney for shooting Joe McHugh at Stafford a little over a year ago. A special venire of twenty-five had been subpoenaed and were present in addition to the regular jury when court was called to order. For the past four months McHugh had been at liberty on a $400 cash bond which he put up. He failed to appear Tuesday morning and after dinner the court declared the bond forfeited and ordered the clerk of the district court to turn the $400 over to the county treasurer. A bench warrant was also issued for McHugh and given to Sheriff Grady. A continuance was then asked for by the county attorney and the case was continued until October 2, and the jury dismissed until that time. A determined search will be prosecuted for him and the sheriff will endeavor to locate him in order to have him on hand when the case will be called next October.
O'Neill Makes Good.
 Atkinson Graphic: The O'Neill Races and Aviation Meet proved a success beyond the expectations of many this year. On all three days the weather was good, so the program could be carried out without any changes. The monoplane flights were up to what was advertised, Mr. Bonner of the Moisant Aviation Company making splendid flights each day. Many Atkinson people attended and were well pleased with the program. Pulling things off as they were advertised is a big thing to O'Neill's credit, and will create good feelings toward that city in all who were there. The management is to be highly commended for its integrity and labor in making the season a success.
