

In the advertisement of their ware the 18th century quack medicine proprietors were quite as resourceful as the modern representatives of their craft.

The annual report of the secretary for student employment shows a continuing expansion of the work performed by this useful office.

Water waste detection has been made a science by the present city engineer of London.

Every German city of consequence has a number of palatial cafes, which are nothing else than huge club houses without membership formality.

Leonardo da Vinci made studies in the principles of aviation more than 400 years ago.

It is predicted that by 1915 western Canada will produce 600,000,000 bushels of wheat annually.

Fresh sea fish are said to be the principal ingredient used in a factory in Holland for the manufacture of artificial rubber.

The gondoliers of the Grand canal, at Venice, have come out on strike.

The state barge from which the king and queen of England witnessed the Henley regatta this year is 223 years old.

Complaining at Tower bridge of her husband's conduct with other "women-girls," a wife was told by the magistrate: "Madam, you may be married to a Don Juan."

Essex, England, proposes to introduce the "way bill" for tramps, by which the men when they have finished work at one workhouse are passed on to the next "way bill" enabling them to obtain refreshment on the way.

Names of London streets are often painted on the bricks of the houses and when the letters wear off a painter renews them—and requests are so round a mistake in spelling.

The south is now producing more Portland cement than did the whole country in 1900.

Traveling for an English firm that makes ready made clothing, a drummy recently secured orders for $125,000 worth of "foreign" garments in Harbin, Manchuria.

A sounding board of concrete has been erected at the Wetsbaden seminary, and the acoustic properties of the board proved highly satisfactory.

The Malays make use of a coin which is worth one-tenth thousandth of an English penny.

How large is the consumption of mahogany in the world may be inferred from the fact that England alone imported last year 24,712 tons of it, valued at $4,307,402.

"Spinster," as a term, owes its origin to the fact that in olden days the law did not permit a woman to marry until she had spun a complete set of linen.

The Mexican maguey plant furnishes the national drink, a valuable medicinal herb, makes a fine carpet and weaving and takes the place of thread.

Of the 23,978 persons passing through the Suez canal last year those classified as military totaled 74,171, and the pilgrims, emigrants and convicts 28,953.

A woman's club in New York, since admitting men to membership, has increased the number of its women members by 20 per cent.

According to officials the cost to Canada of obtaining the 354,000 immigrants last year was $1,080,208, or less than $3 a head.

The English are evidently not giving up the tea habit. Last year they imported 16,222,000 pounds more than in 1910.

Tobacco growing for small farmers in the open and large ones under cover offers opportunities in New England.

One-horse power will operate 270,000 watches.

A French bicyclist has invented a practical bicycle street cleaner propelled by foot power.

Pekin and Tien Tsin are the only cities of northern China that have water works.

At retail rates, the annual coal bill of New York city foots up at $95,000,000.

Wormout machinery is now reclaimed by the process of electric welding.

An alarm which indicates a flat tire has been patented recently.

EQUINE MENINGITIS

WIDELY PREVALENT AND FATAL MALADY

State Veterinarian Believes Plague Among Horses Is Ally Of Human Ill.

Holdrege, Neb., Sept. 6.—Recent deaths of hundreds of horses in this section of Nebraska and western Kansas have been caused by cerebro-spinal meningitis in epidemic form.

Holdrege, Neb., Sept. 6.—Recent deaths of hundreds of horses in this section of Nebraska and western Kansas have been caused by cerebro-spinal meningitis in epidemic form.

About 150 farmers met with Dr. Boostrom here. Veterinarians from various points in the infected area were present. Testimony of numerous farmers who have lost horses showed that the epidemic is not due to any particular food the horses have been getting.

NEW POWER PROJECT ON LOWER PLATTE

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 6.—The state board of irrigation is hearing today the application of D. C. Patterson for water power rights on the lower Platte.

This is an entirely new project, and is financed by the Kounina Bros., of New York and Omaha. This project has been behind the Coad application, but as this would have to be denied if an adverse decision were given in the Babcock project, the backers have decided to avoid any trouble by taking up the Patterson filing.

The new claim is for an appropriation of 2,000 cubic feet a second to be taken from the Platte river, south of Schuyler and to be returned to it through Elk creek at Fremont.

STATE BUILDING AT WAYNE IS DANGEROUS

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 6.—President Roach, of the state normal board, reported to his colleagues at the annual meeting that the state normal building at Wayne, Neb., is in a dangerous condition.

The board selected Mary Pettit as instructor in the domestic science department of the Wayne normal. Elizabeth Boettcher, of New York, was elected critic teacher in the same institution, and James Garrett, janitor, Professor Snodgrass has been promoted to dean of the Kearney normal, and a number of vacancies in the various departments of the two other normals were filled.

WIFE KICKS WINDOW PANES OUT OF HUSBAND'S SHOP

Uehling, Neb., Sept. 6.—Because Mrs. Margaret Plummer kicked the window lights out of her husband's barber shop on Main street last Thursday, Mr. Plummer left for the county seat yesterday to file a suit for divorce.

Lincoln man shot in gold country quarrel. Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 6.—Harvey Fry, a former resident of this county, was murdered in June last at Nome, Alaska.

Lincoln man shot in gold country quarrel. Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 6.—Harvey Fry, a former resident of this county, was murdered in June last at Nome, Alaska.

Lincoln man shot in gold country quarrel. Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 6.—Harvey Fry, a former resident of this county, was murdered in June last at Nome, Alaska.

DEVELOPING CUSTOMERS FOR HYDRO ELECTRIC ENTERPRISE

Fremont, Neb., Sept. 6.—Efforts to extend lines for the conveyance of electric current to Winslow, Hooper, Uehling, Arlington and a number of other towns surrounding Fremont, lead to the belief that a scheme to find a market for power, which may be developed by the Fremont or Columbus power canal scheme, has been launched.

NEBRASKA NEWS NOTES

SUPERIOR—Today marked the beginning of free city delivery of mail in Superior, two carriers having been appointed and started on their duties this morning.

LINCOLN—More than 500 horses have died of a strange disease in Nebraska the past 10 days, according to reports received by the state veterinarian.

LINCOLN—More than 500 horses have died of a strange disease in Nebraska the past 10 days, according to reports received by the state veterinarian.

LINCOLN—More than 500 horses have died of a strange disease in Nebraska the past 10 days, according to reports received by the state veterinarian.

LINCOLN—More than 500 horses have died of a strange disease in Nebraska the past 10 days, according to reports received by the state veterinarian.

NEBRASKA NEWS NOTES

DESHIER—Cases of hog cholera are reported in various parts of Hayes county and prompt compliance with the law will be in checking the disease.

NELIGH—The exhibitions given at the races last week by the Rosebud Slouax are said by the fair officials to be entitled to a large part of the credit for the unprecedented box office receipts.

OMAHA—Rosa L. Hammond, collector of internal revenue for Nebraska, is busy this week making the acquaintance of all the "first inhabitants" that he can lay his eyes on.

FLORENCE—Magdeline Sophia Merkley, widow of the late Hiram Pitts, died Wednesday last at Cornwell, Ont., at the age of 94 years.

HOLDREGE—One-half of the business portion of the town of Funk, seven miles east of here, was consumed in a fire which originated in the rear of H. H. Funk's drug store.

OMAHA—After 57 years of active business life in Nebraska, A. W. Trumble, president of the Packers National bank, is dead.

MINDEN—Four Minden boys were in an auto wreck last evening, coming home from Hildreth. When the auto turned turtle, broken by a tree.

LINCOLN—John Shutz, a farmer living near Neligh, was elected alderman at the state fair, reported to the police Wednesday morning that he had been held up and robbed of $30.

BEATRICE, NEB.—Julius Pritchard charged with criminally assaulting the 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Delaney, at Wymore, June 12, 1912, was given his preliminary hearing before Judge Gilman.

LINCOLN—The Nebraska state fair of 1912 came to a close here last night with the record, having drawn total admissions to the number of 166,094, or nearly 4,000 more than last year.

LINCOLN—Thomas Harrop, of Hanlon, 88 years old, fell from the O street viaduct near the Union Pacific depot last evening and died an hour later from his injuries.

LINCOLN—All records for state fair attendances were broken here yesterday when gate receipts showed an attendance on record for Nebraska.

FREMONT—Rev. I. W. Corey, pastor of the First Baptist church, has received a check for $100 from George Yule, head of the Bain Wagon company, along with an urgent request that he come at once to Kenosha, Wis., to see him.

NELIGH—At the present time this city has three cases of infantile paralysis, and rigid quarantine is now enforced. Possibly no city of equal size in Nebraska is so thoroughly safeguarded against the spread of this disease as Neligh is at this time.

GRAND ISLAND—Mrs. Leona Jones, a bride of but a few days, was shot in the neck with a rifle ball at the hands of the late James Moore, who stopped at the Jones farm, four miles west of the soldiers' home.

LINCOLN—Chancellor Avery is preparing an analysis of university conditions, needs and necessities, to be submitted to the board of regents at the next meeting. It is probable that a statement will be prepared at that time asking the legislature for a specific amount of appropriations for the next two years.

SCORE OF MURDERS BROUGHT TO LIGHT

Campaign of Girl in West Hammond Strikes Trace Of Wholesale Slaughter.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—Digging for victims of wholesale murders in West Hammond, Ill., 12 of whom are said by France Ford, whose real name is said to be Mrs. Ethel Parker, have taken their death draught from a "black bottle" kept in a notorious resort, may be decided on as a result of his investigations.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

Chicago, Sept. 8.—What one brave little woman can do when she "sets her head" has been demonstrated in the West Hammond vice crusade.

JAPS AND RUSSIANS IN TERRITORY STEAL

A Latin-American Combat Against United States Is Feared.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States, and on the other that a more aggressive Mexico would provoke a war with all the seething little republics of Latin America, these are indeed troublesome days for the state department.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 8.—Beest on one hand by the fear of a Russo-Japanese pact to embarrass and dismember the new Chinese republic to the great discomfort of the United States.

SOCIAL EVIL HELD NOT CONQUERABLE

That Is Interpretation Placed On Mayor Gaynor's Attitude By Attorney.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an interview on the Rosenthal murder, reflecting on the commissioner.

New York, Sept. 7.—The relationship between Mayor Gaynor and the New York police department; the mayor's attitude on the city's so-called vice and excise problems and the extent to which the department followed his public declarations of his attitude, formed the basis of a relentless cross examination undergone by Police Commissioner Waldo today in the trial of Cornelius G. Hayes, an inspector, suspended on charges of making false statements during an