LOCAL MATTERS.

Elmer Adams and Frank Charles were up from Chambers last Wednesday.

O. K. Wright of Ewing was in the city last Tuesday visiting friends and looking after business matters.

The Frontier wishes all its readers, both big and little, a Merry, Merry Christmas and a happy and prosperous New Year.

Lawrence Everett Ewing and Miss Martha Belle Pendergast, both of Ewing, were granted license to wed by County Judge Carlon last Tuesday.

Sheriff Grady left Wednesday morning for Fremont, where he will attend the annual meeting of the Nebraska Sheriff's association which is being held in that city this week.

Evang. Lutheran church, Sunday, December 22, 1912. English services with preaching will be held at the church at 3 p. m. We extend a cordial welcome to you. Bring your friends. —George H. Tietel, Pastor.

Charles Lofquest of Dustin and Miss Lottie Munson of Stuart were united in marriage by County Judge Carlon at the court room last Wednesday morning. They will make their home on the groom's farm in Dustin precinct.

Peter Hickey and Miss Birdie Hamilton, both of Phoenix, were united in marriage by County Judge Carlon at the county court room last Tuesday afternoon. As the bride was but seventeen years of age her father accompanied her and gave his consent to the marriage.

Guy Green of College View, Nebr., was in the city yesterday visiting old time friends. Guy is running a flour and feed business at College View and incidentally doing a little real estate business on the side and was here with a couple of prospective Holt county real estate owners.

"Montana" Jack Sullivan left yesterday morning for Grand Island, Nebr., where he was billed for a ten round bout with Young McCarthy of Ravenna, Nebr., this evening. Jack McKenna and Arthur Ryan went with him to witness the bout and look after Sullivan during the contest.

Editor Lee Henry of the Plainview News was in the city yesterday visiting old time friends. Lee is naturally feeling pretty good since the election of Woodrow Wilson and says that bright and happy days are in store for democrats. Lee will be a candidate for the appointment as postmaster of his home city and he has many friends in O'Neill and Holt county who hope that he will be successful in landing the plum.

Thomas Joyce of Mellette county, S. D., arrived home last Monday evening and will spend the winter at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Joyce in this city. Tom has been in South Dakota the past year and says that section of the country is not as good as it is cracked up to be.

H. C. Henning, one of the Frontier readers from Sand Creek township, was a pleasant caller at these headquarters last Saturday and advanced his subscription to January, 1914. If several hundred of our subscribers would follow Mr. Henning's example they would relieve the financial stringency around this office.

Miss Kate Lorge, who has been a mother to our motherless children for the past two years, left last Saturday morning for Hanley, N. D., where she will make her future home upon a quarter section of Uncle Sam's domain, that she filed upon last fall. The best wishes of a host of O'Neill friends accompany her to her northern home.

J. J. Thomas, J. B. Mellor, Charles McKenna and Gene Sullivan left this morning for Grand Island to witness the ten round boxing contest between Jack Sullivan and Young McCarthy of Ravenna, Neb., which will be pulled off in that city tonight. The boys each took a good-sized roll of "mazuma" with them and figure that they will have an opportunity to make expenses upon the trip.

During the past month a large number of our readers have called and renewed their subscriptions but we still have a few hundred who are delinquent and we hope that they will call during the next two weeks and liquidate their indebtedness. Start the new year right by calling and paying your subscription and enable us to make some of our creditors happy by squaring our indebtedness to them.

Mrs. S. J. Weekes went down to Omaha yesterday morning being called there by a telegram announcing the sudden death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. D. W. Dickinson. Mr. Weekes went down this morning to attend the funeral. Mrs. Dickinson was quite well known in this city having visited several times at the Weekes home and her many O'Neill friends will regret to learn of her death. Relatives here did not know that she was ill and the news of her sudden death was quite a shock.

The Hotel Evans will serve a luncheon on New Year's eve, beginning at 9 o'clock and continuing until after midnight so that these wishing to watch the "Old year out and the New Year in" in may have an opportunity of doing so in this way. An elaborate menu will be prepared and tables arranged to accommodate parties of any numbers. Reservations for tables may be made now, by phoning W. R. or R. P. Evans. Adv-27-2

In district court last Monday morning Judge Dickson ordered Lily B. Monroe Wood, who was granted a decree of divorce from Charles L. Wood on November 4, 1912, on the ground of cruel and inhuman treatment to personally appear in court in this city at 10 a. m., on January 11, 1913, and show cause why the decree of divorce should not be vacated, annulled and set aside because of deception and imposition practiced upon the court by her in procuring her divorce.

Sheriff Grady returned last Monday afternoon from Lincoln having in custody R. A. Livingston, who was arrested by the police of that city upon the request of the Holt county official. Livingston was arrested upon the charge of forgery, the complaint being sworn to by County Attorney Whelan and the warrant issued on November 2, last. The complaint charged that R. A. Livingston and his brother, D. J., forged two checks, one for $35.00 and the other for $40.00, upon which they received the money and left the country. The checks were signed J. E. Hutton and were cashed in the store of Harry Shank at Stuart. We understand that the Livingston's are nephews of Hutton and that he gave each a small check for some work done for him. The checks were written in lead pencil and Livingstone erased the amount called for in the checks and raised the amount of each one. Young Livingston is now in the county jail and will probably have a preliminary hearing the latter part of the week or the first of next week. D. J. Livingston, the other party to the forgery, has not been apprehended.
