FURNITURE

We are showing some nice new lines of up to date furniture. Come in and look over our lines of Beds---wood, brass and iron in all sizes. A classy line of Dressers in quartered oak, mahogany, birdseye maple and Circassian walnut. We have the Globe-Wernick Book Cases in quartered oak, golden and early English-In Kitchen Cabinets we have the McDougal and Diamond cabinets, the strongest lines ever shown in the city.

Our Mattress stock is complete, ranging in price from $3 to $18.

We can take care of you if you think of buying a Bed this spring, as we have them in different sizes at prices that are right.

The Ohio Electric Suction Sweeper in stock, equal to or better than the large portable machine

The Sweeper Vac, a high class hand power machine is fully guaranteed.

FARM MACHINERY, WAGONS, ETC.

This year we have a complete line of the famous Flying Dutchman Implements

A line of implements that when a man buys a machine with the Flying Dutchman label on it he knows that he is buying a machine that is fully guaranteed, and that Biglin can always furnish the repairs for the machine.

The new, up to date spring patterns in the Heney and Staver lines of buggies; the Mandt and Weber wagons, two makes that have stood the most severe tests and have always given absolute and entire satisfaction.

The Great Western Spreader has been sold by us for years and the many satisfied customers is proof enough that it is the best spreader on the market today.

THE LOCAL W. C. T. U.

BY MRS. C. E. BURCH

Nothing has occurred in a long time which has given us such rejoicing and encouragement as the passing of the Webb bill through Congress over Presidents Taft's veto by an overwhelming majority.

This is the second time in fifteen years that any bill has become a law over a president's veto. And to think of a radical temperance measure accomplishing this extraordinary feat is encouraging indeed.

The Webb Law goes into effect July 1st, and forbids the shipment of liquor into any state, county or municipality whose laws or local ordinances forbid its sale. While this law, like any other is not self enforcing, it is powerful weapon in the hands of friends of law and order, and will make local and state prohibitory laws much easier of enforcement.

We were pleased to see so many of our W. C. T. U. members and other temperance people, both ladies and gentlemen, taking an interest in the hearing of the county board on the application of Mr. Cuddy of Emmet for a saloon license.

The temperance voters all over the county should notice and remember the members of the county board who voted to refuse the license. The saloon interests will remember them; it is only fair that the anti-saloon interests should remember them also and in the substantial way expressed at the ballot box. The saloon interests have money at stake, and they will forget whether these men are republicans or democrats or progressives or socialists, but they will remember that they refused a saloon keeper a renewal of license. Let every temperance voter, every man who places law and order and sobriety and decency above the interests of a detrimental business remember them too and in the same effective way that the saloon interests remember them.

Let us remember that we have more at stake than the saloon interests have; not our money so much; not our business interests so much, though our business interests are effected by the saloon; but the morals of our boys and girls, our grown sons and daughters and our brother's and sister's. Or have we nothing to fear in regard to any of our young folks? Are our sons so well raised they will not drink nor be influenced by the saloon element? Are our daughters immune from the blandishments of respectable young men who are only moderately addicted to the use of intoxicants but who may sometime go beyond the moderate stage? Are you sure we have no reason to fear for any of our own folks? We have at stake the morals of our neighbor. We have at stake the standard of morals of the community, the higher ideals of virtue and sobriety and industry which a saloonless town tend to cultivate. We have much more at stake than the business interests of one man who has a perfect right to go into some other business. Will it crowd the business of the other man with whom he comes into competition? If you will take simply the money he has been taking for drink from the same customers—No; how could it? He will do very well thank you, very well indeed. Do a good business and make a good living in any other line without pauperizing his customers. They will become more efficient, not less; increase their purchasing power as they increase their earning capacity, the whole community reaping the benefit to some extent. "The blessing of the Lord maketh rich and He addeth no sorrow with it."

What do you think of the offer of the saloon interests of Emmet to provide a jail and extra officers in the town to help in maintaining order if a saloon license should be granted? Rather an admission is it not that the jail and officers would be more necessary with a saloon than without it? But let the remonstrators remember that the fight is just begun. They should organize and conduct an active and continuous campaign against illegal selling.

REMONSTRATORS PLEADED
Emmet, Neb., March 24.—Editor The Frontier: The remonstrators against issuance of a saloon license in Emmet wish to use your paper as a medium through which to express their thanks for the courtesies extended to us during the hearing of the case. Kind words and wishes were given us by many different people, while the local W. C. T. U. were represented in the court room during the whole time. We sincerely appreciate these kindnesses. As to the board of commissioners, a more courteous body of men could not be found anywhere. We firmly believe they weighed the evidence and decided the case with utmost fairness to all. Some talk has been made about spite work. We believe, with the exception of two or three there has been no personal feeling other than that natural to parents and relatives over the debauchery of those near and dear to them and surely that could not be termed spite-work. There are always in all communities a few bullies and rowdies who resort to fist-cuffs and try to make a personal matter out of a civic one, this we regret of course and hope that with the absence of liquor these few will regain their dignity and composure and help Emmet to deserve and regain the good name which the better class of her citizens desire for her.

Chronic Stomach Trouble Cured
There is nothing more discouraging than a chronic disorder of the stomach. It is not surprising that many suffer for years with such an ailment when a permanent cure is within their reach and may be had for a trifle! "About one year ago," says P H Beck, of Wakelee, Mich., "I bought a package of Chamberlain's Tablets, and since using them I have felt perfectly well. I had previously used any number of different medicines, but none of them were of any lasting benefit." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

O'Neill, Neb Feb. 11 1913.

To the Hon. Board of Supervisors of Holt County, Gentlemen: Your petitioner represents that he was erroneously assessed for personal property in Atkinson village. As said property was assessed in Inman village as well as seen by tax receipt hereto attached. Therefore your petitioner asks your honorable body to have the taxes in Atkinson village stricken and the county clerk instructed to correct tax list. Owen Pray.
On motion prayer of petition was granted.

O'Neill, Neb Feb 6, 1913.—To the Honorable Board of Supervisors, Holt County, Nebraska. Gentlemen: Your petitioner states that he was assessed for poll tax for the year of 1912 in Fairview township, Holt co. and paid same December 28th 1912. He know presents to your honorable body, affidavit of S R McFarlan, Co. Clerk of Madison county, showing he is an exempt fireman, and asks that you instruct the county clerk to issue to him a refund for $2.50.

Very respectfully,
Levi Hershiser
On motion prayer of petition was granted.
Madison, Neb, Jan 6, 1913.—State of Nebraska, Madison County, ss.—I, S R McFarland, County Clerk within for said County, do hereby certify that Levi Hershiser is an exempt fireman and therefore exempt from poll tax in the state of Nebraska, and should not be charged with poll tax in said state. Witness my hand and seal this 6th day of January, 1913.

S R McFarland, county clerk of Madison county, Nebraska.
O'Neill, Nebr 12, 1913.—On motion made and seconded the court house committee was authorized to purchase one 32 size roller book section, two 3614 document film sections, to be installed in the county judge's vault.
Motion carried.

Jan 6, 1913.—To the Hon Board of Supervisors of Holt County.—Your petitioners allege that for the years 1910, 1911, 1912, their personal taxes were assessed in school district 49, through error and should have been assessed in district 240. Therefore your petitioner pray that you order transferred from district 49 to 240. The amount of 49.31. This being the amount erroneously paid into no 240 for said years as shown by tax receipts 2104, 5, 6 for 1910, no 2156 for 1911, no 2873 for 1912.
