Kola Items

There was quite a little excitement south of Kola on the 29 by a prairie fire, started by some live coals which Elmer Selix emptied near his home. For a while it was thought he would lose his home, but by the heroic efforts of Mr. Smith and neighbors this was averted. John Liske who was hauling hay seeing the fire heading his way back fired and saved all of Kellogue and Bruner's hay. The only loss was a stack of hay which belonged to Selix.

Jacob Pfund and wife, and John A. Kennedy attended the protest case, which Mrs. Vesta Crabbs and her son Francis Roosa filed against Mrs. J. O. Hubbel at O'Neill last week. Mrs. Crabbs being the only witness against the defendant and the other fifteen witnesses were all for Mrs. Hubbel.

Two brothers of Mr. and Mrs. Howarth who came from Albion, Neb., were here visiting last week.

F. D. Burkert and wife are rejoicing over the arrival of a little son at their home on the 12 of March.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Baker were pleasantly surprised on the evening of the 28, it being their 16th anniversary. After spending the evening in games and a good social time. After a fine lap supper the party broke up wishing Mr. and Mrs. Baker many more anniversaries in the future.

Rev. C. E. Burch, pastor of Inez and Amelia charges, with Mr. Almond, Evangelist, recently over from England, visited at Kola on the 28th. They are holding revival meetings at Inez and are having good success.
