

YOUR CHANCE NOW

Government land that will increase in value, is yours—if you want it. A start in life, a prosperous future!

The U. S. Government is offering 80 acre irrigated farms, and 320 acre farms without irrigation, on the same kind of land that is raising the crops which are making Wyoming prominent. The new homestead laws make it easy to get one of these farms.

I will send you maps and printed matter and answer your questions—then you can join one of our homeseekers' excursions which I will tell you about, and at small expense you can see exactly what you can have. For anyone who has a wish to better himself and family this is the chance of a lifetime.

Write me a postal and state whether you are interested in irrigated land or non-irrigated land.

Look To Your Plumbing
You know what happens in a house in which the plumbing is in poor condition—everybody in the house is liable to contract typhoid or some other fever. The digestive organs perform the same functions in the human body as the plumbing does for the house, and they should be kept in first class condition all the time. If you have any trouble with your digestion take Chamberlain's Tablets and you are certain to get quick relief.

Found a Cure for Rheumatism
"I suffered with rheumatism for two years and could not get my right hand to my mouth for that length of time," writes Lee L. Chapman, Maple-ton, Iowa. I suffered terrible pain so I could not sleep or lie still at night.
Five years ago I began using Chamberlain's Liniment and in two months I was well and have not suffered with rheumatism since." For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Hay Business for Sale.
On account of wanting to go in business in Denver, Colo., I will offer my hay business for sale. Office and hay barn, storage about 1,000 tons. I handle from 100 to 150 cars of hay each month, have over 500 good customers along the line to ship hay to which you can go ahead and do business with without any trouble, but I am obliged to sell, if I can get some where near what is right. Write or see me. Frank Valla,

Straight at It.
There is no use of our "beating around the bush." We might as well cut it out first as last. We want you to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the next time you have a cough or cold. There is no reason as far as we can see why you should not do so.
This preparation by its remarkable cures has gained a world wide reputation, and people everywhere speak of it in the highest terms of praise. It is for sale by all dealers.—Adv.

Cough Medicine for Children.
Too much care cannot be used in selecting a cough medicine for children. It should be pleasant to take, contain no harmful substance and be most effectual. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy meets these requirements and is a favorite with the mothers of young children everywhere. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.

cipal towns throughout the United States. Licensed by the states for the treatment of diseases, deformities, ailments and maladies of various forms without surgical operation.

operations for appendicitis, gall these serious and dangerous diseases.

asthma, bronchitis, and catarrhal diseases absolutely cured with combination of medicine, diet, hygiene, and exercise. This is the most reliable and scientific home treatment known today.

of the stomach, liver, heart, kidneys, bowels, bladder, all treated by their successful methods, developed after years of special practice and experiences.
These doctors and nerve specialists treat successfully neuralgia, constant headaches, epilepsy, sciatica, nervous debility and other diseases related to the nervous system.

the treatment and cure of chronic ment (except a small charge for medicines) on this particular visit, and this only to those who are interested and really sick.

Inasmuch as these doctors are giving their valuable service free to the sick, they will expect of those treated to tell the result to their friends. trouble bring a two-ounce bottle of your urine for analysis.

THE LOCAL W. C. T. U.

BY MRS. C. E. BURCH While looking over the names of those who ask for a license to sell liquor in O'Neill the coming year, our attention is called to the following poem. While the city financiers are figuring up how much the community is going to gain from the license money let us read it and consider.
"THE PRICE OF A LICENSE" What's the price of a license?
How much did you say?
The price of men's souls in the market today?
A license to sell, to deform, and destroy.
From the gray hairs of age to the innocent boy
How much did you say?
How much is to pay? How compare with your gold?
A license to poison—a crime oft retold,— Fix a price on the years and the manhood of man; Take what is not yours to destroy if you can—
What's the price did you say?
How much for a license? How reckon the crimes Men are caused to commit when be-sotted at times?
To take character, reason, foredoomed to the grave,
And give men your curses when pity cries, "save!"
What's the price did you say?
How much for a license? Count the price of the home;
Of the tears that are shed in its anguish and gloom;
Count the happiness lost on the vote that you gave When you voted the license that made man a slave—
What price was to pay?
How much for a license? Count the price of her life Whom your children called mother and whom you called wife, Who died of her grief, heart broken away,
That her home was left bare of its bread day by day—
The license to pay?

How much to pay? Count the price of one soul, Multiplied by names on eternity's scroll.
Of those who have gone, once in man-hood's strong pride; Then add those who with them have suffered and died—
What's the price did you say?
How much is to pay? You may count out your gold,
But the price to be paid has never been told:
Count the measure you mete out your neighbor today—
To be meted you back—but in God's time and way—
That's the price you must pay!

Woman Wielded Battle Ax Broken Bow Chief: A muscular young woman, a large wolf and an axe were the leading features in a short but effective drama that was involuntarily given on a ranch near Callaway last week. Miss Katherine Beechler was the young woman and it so happened that at a late hour in the afternoon she found herself to be the only human being on the place.

It was her custom to feed the calves about this time and filling a bucket with milk, she started for the barn where they were located. As she neared this point, a confusion of sounds greeted her ear; squawks of numerous chickens filled the air, while the calves were making noises of distress.
The young lady went to the door of the barn and looked in. There, lurking in the shadow, was a big wolf that had evidently been responsible for all the confusion. Miss Beechler carefully closed the door, barred all other avenues of escape, then seizing an axe, she started in to do up his wolfship.
The animal tried to dodge the issue at hand; but the eye directing the movements of the weapon was a true one and the first blow caught the intruder fairly and squarely on the head.
There was no more dodging after that. The animal was knocked out in the first round, and a few more blows delivered where they would do the most good, utterly bereft it of any desire to ever again dally with chicken meat or tender veal.
Later on Miss Beechler disposed of the carcass to a professional hunter, and, when the hide was examined, it was found that the wolf had indeed been a battle scattered veteran, several places showing where gun shot wounds had been received.
