

ST. MARY'S GRADUATES CLASS OF 20

Twenty Young Ladies Complete the Course of Study.

LARGE AUDIENCE AT EXERCISES

Commencement Exercises Held at the K. C. Hall Tuesday Evening where Splendid Program was Given.

The commencement exercises of St. Mary's Academy were held at the K. C. Hall last Tuesday evening when the largest class in the history of the Academy were graduated. The class of 1913 was composed of twenty young ladies, two of whom, Miss Irene Biglin and Miss Beatrice Cronin, first started to school in the basement of the old church, before the convent was completed, being the only members of the class that received their entire education at St. Mary's. The program of the evening was well rendered and was witnessed by a crowded house. Miss Francis McGrane, of Atkinson, had the salutatory and Miss Loretta Hickey the valedictory. Both of these young ladies did remarkably well and gave evidence of the careful training they had received in their school work. Piano solos were rendered by Miss Mildred Downey, Miss Lydia Gatzmeyer and Miss Fay Hotchkiss and each demonstrated their ability as musicians. Miss Helen Shoemaker rendered an original poem to St. Mary's in which she expressed the feeling each member of the class felt for the dear old school and the memories they would carry through life of the happy days spent there and the kind sisters who looked after their welfare. A vocal solo by Miss Mary Fitzsimmons was warmly greeted. Miss Mary has a voice of rare sweetness and power.

Rev. M. F. Cassidy then conferred the honors upon the graduates and twenty-six graduates of the eight grade, who enter high school next year. Rev. E. M. Gleason delivered an address to the graduates which was one of the best ever delivered on a similar occasion in this city and he was warmly applauded at his conclusion.

The following young ladies were the members of the class of 1913: Etta Barret, Fremont, Neb.; M. Irene Biglin, O'Neill, Neb.; Catherine Connelly, Battle Creek, Neb.; Beatrice Cronin, O'Neill, Neb.; Mildred Downey, O'Neill, Neb.; Mary Fitzsimmons, O'Neill, Neb.; Alice Francis Fleming, O'Neill, Neb.; Lydia E. Gatzmeyer, Dallas, So. Dak.; Loretta Hickey, O'Neill, Neb.; Julia F. Howard, O'Neill, Neb.; Rose E. Hughes, Battle Creek, Neb.; Florence McCafferty, O'Neill, Neb.; Helen McCarthy, O'Neill, Neb.; Frances McGrane, Atkinson, Neb.; Grace Marie McHugh, O'Neill, Neb.; Lucille McNichols, Atkinson, Neb.; Alice Morrissey, Winterset, Iowa; Mary T. Shoemaker, O'Neill, Neb.; Helen C. Shoemaker, O'Neill, Neb.; Gatha E. Smith, Bassett, Neb.

O'Neill Trims Atkinson.

Atkinson 3; O'Neill 5.

The above figures tell the story of the outcome of the ball game on the local diamond last Sunday, between Atkinson and O'Neill, and it was one of the best games ever staged between these two teams. The victory was well earned and caused the local boys much joy for it is the first time in nearly a quarter of a century that an O'Neill team, composed entirely of local talent, has been able to clean Atkinson. Of course we were able to defeat them five years ago, but at that time O'Neill had a salaried aggregation and deserved success.

The game Sunday was a case of too much Ryan as far as Atkinson was concerned. Tim Ryan, who handles wires for the Northwestern in this city, was on the mound for the locals and was as stingy with hits as the average man is with a contribution box. He allowed but six hits during the game, two of which came in the sixth inning and coupled with a walk netted Atkinson one run. He was in a rather tight hole in the eighth when Townsend connected for two sacks; Webber went out on a fly to Murphy but Blackburn connected for his third hit of the game and Townsend took third. At this stage of the game it looked as if Atkinson was bound to score but Ryan tightened up and fanned Milner and Ravmer, allowing Dr. Townsend to pass peacefully away on third. Occasionally Ryan would forget that there was an anti pass law in this state and he gave the Atkinson boys four free passes to first. Two of these passes resulted in scores for Atkinson. In the second Blackburn was walked, stole second and took third on an error by Tomsick and scored while Scuddler was going out from Tomsick to Conklin. In the sixth inning Townsend walked, was sacrificed to second, took third on Blackburn's hit and scored on Milner's single. Atkinson made their first score in the first inning. Dickerson walked but was caught at third on Miller's slow one to short, Miller taking second on the play and he scored on a double by Kirkland. A splendid stop and throw by Boyle and a one handed handed catch of a fly by Coyle killed a threatened rally in the ninth.

O'Neill was blanked in the first inning but they came back in the second and pushed one score across the rubber. Tomsick walked, was sacrificed to second by Kansas, took third on a hit by Conklin and scored on Murphy's hit. In the third inning O'Neill tied the score. Boyle first up connected for a three sacker; Alberts went out on an attempted sacrifice to the pitcher; Lorge went out on a high foul to the catcher. The catcher walked out on the diamond to receive the congratulations of the pitcher on his great catch, leaving the home plate unprotected, and, although it was Sunday and Boyle is supposed to be above petty pilfering he promptly "swiped" the home plate, bringing cheers from the assembled crowd and great grief to Atkinson. It is a safe bet that the boys from our sister city will never leave the home plate unprotected when Boyle is on a base. No scoring in the fourth or fifth, but in the sixth O'Neill proceeded to annex two more for good measure and to win the game. Conklin connected for a hit and scored on Murphy's double. Murphy then scored on a long fly to right by Boyle. O'Neill made another in the seventh for good luck. Tomsick connected with one of Kirkland's twisters for three sacks and scored on an error by Webber. That ended the scoring, but O'Neill had enough to win and the boys were satisfied.

Eddie Alberts was on the receiving end for O'Neill and although Eddie has not caught much the past three or four years performed like in the days of old, taking in everything in sight. Scuddler was in the box for Atkinson for the first six innings and six of the seven hits made by O'Neill were from his delivery. In the seventh inning Kirkland took the mound and in the two innings he pitched allowed but one hit, a three sacker by Tomsick, and fanned four of the eight men that faced him. When "Kirk" has control the average player can do very little with his delivery.

Score by innings:
O'Neill... 0 1 1 0 0 2 1 0 x-5
Atkinson... 1 1 0 0 0 1 4 0 0-3

Hits: O'Neill 7; Atkinson 6; Errors: O'Neill 3; Atkinson 4. Struck out: Ryan 7; Scuddler 1, Kirkland 4. Batteries: Ryan and Alberts; Scuddler, Kirkland and Ravmer.

A dozen of the former subjects of the Emperor of Germany and men who served their term of enlistment in the German army, but who are now citizens of the United States, met in this city last Saturday afternoon and organized a club of the Deutsche Kreiger Verein and elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Frederick Reichter, Hauptman; John Gusse, Lieutenant; Julius Duft, Feldwebel. The organization is for social purposes and any German who has served a term of enlistment in the German army is eligible to membership. For the present they will meet the last Saturday afternoon in each month in the old land office building on Fourth street, but expect to establish regular club rooms when the membership of the organization will justify it.

Mr. Clevisch informs us that his son-in-law, W. F. Lewis has been appointed postmaster at Conde, S. D., by the new administration. Mr. Lewis was a former resident of this county, having taken a homestead upon the Eagle about twenty-five years ago. He left here eighteen years ago and moved to South Dakota, in which state he has made his home since that time.

The mystery of the several robberies that have occurred in this city the past three months was solved last Tuesday when five boys about 13 years old and the sons of prominent and highly respected residents of the city, were taken before the mayor and they confessed that they were responsible for the robberies and led Sheriff Grady to the hiding places of their loot, most of which was recovered. The first inking of who the culprits were came through a gun that was stolen from the Brennan hardware store which one of the boys had given to another young boy. When Mayor Biglin heard of this he went to the boy who had received the gun and found out from him where he received it. Then the boys were brought into the mayor's office one at a time and they told all about the robberies. The officials have not decided yet what action will be taken against the boys implicated.

A Serious Charge.

Bristow Enterprise: "Ray Witham was arrested Tuesday near Wagner, S. D. where he had taken Bada Johnson a 17-year-old girl living northeast of Bristow, and brought back here the evening of the same day. He was arrested on the charge of kidnapping, but it is believed this charge will be changed at the preliminary hearing at Lynch Monday. The case had been set for Wednesday of this week at Bristow, but the defendant's father, N. R. Witham, obtained a charge of venue at Lynch.

"The girl left home Sunday night and Monday Constable Berastrom started in search of them locating the couple at a farm house near Wagner. They had told the farmer they were married and were intending to remain there and work."

Witham had a preliminary hearing in county court at Butte last week and was bound over to the district court in the sum of $1,200, which amount of bail he was unable to give. As the Boyd county jail has been condemned by the district court Sheriff Bradstreet brought Witham to this city last Tuesday and he is now confined in the county jail here where he will remain until the September term of district court, unless he is able to give the bond necessary for his release.

Harrington, being an expert stenographer. He is an industrious, ambitious young man with exemplary habits and is bound to make his mark in the world.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party went to the Golden Hotel where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The happy young couple left on the Northwestern at 10 o'clock for a two months honeymoon trip, which will include the various cities of importance in the west.

Take Plenty of Time to Eat.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. For sale by all dealers. Adv.

BIG DAMAGE SUIT IS DISMISSED

Attorney for Plaintiff Dismisses Big Suit Against Burlington.

ARRESTS WITNESS FOR PERJURY

Man Who Testified for Plaintiff Makes Affidavit That He Swore Falsely and Now in County Jail.

The case of Walter A. Quimby against the Burlington railroad Company for $47,000.00 for personal injuries alleged to have been received by being thrown from a train on defendants company's road on August 13, 1909, came to a sudden end in district court last Tuesday morning, the case being dismissed at the request of plaintiff's attorneys.

The case was started last Friday and a number of witnesses had been examined. In his petition Quimby alleged that he purchased a ticket at Spearfish, S. D., on August 13, 1909, for passage to Deadwood, S. D. That the train was so crowded that he was unable to find room in the car and was compelled to stand upon the platform holding onto a brake, when the car took a sudden lurch, the brake turned over and he was thrown from the car upon the rocks at the side of the road and received serious injuries, as follows: His back was cut and bruised upon the right side and partly across upon the left side and his right arm was cut, bruised and injured; his right shoulder was cut, bruised, injured and mangled; was severely injured across the spine and received a severe cut on the head which necessitated putting several stitches therein; that he was also severely injured in the back. That on account of said injuries he was compelled in October, 1912, to have the nerves cut out of his right arm above and below the elbow and that it will be further necessary for him to have the said elbow opened, scraped and operated upon; that said arm is and ever will be lame. That by reason of said injuries he is and ever will be weak, lame and diseased, as all of said injuries are permanent.

Among the witnesses who testified for the plaintiff and who testified that the car was so crowded that it was impossible to obtain a seat therein or standing room on account of the crowded condition of the car, was E. J. Eastwood and wife of Deadwood, who claimed to be passengers on the train returning to Deadwood.

When court convened Tuesday morning the attorney for the railroad company informed the court that he has affidavit from Eastwoods in which they swore to facts about as follows: That the train was not crowded when it left Spearfish and that there were no passengers in the aisles of the car, and that he was promised compensation from the plaintiff if he came down here and testified for him. That since coming here he had repeatedly asked plaintiff for money and to make settlement but that he was always put off, plaintiff saying he would take care of it after awhile. That when plaintiff came to him and asked him to be a witness for him that he replied that it would cost him about $200, and that plaintiff replied that he would pay him and pay him well. Mrs. Eastwood's affidavit is substantially the same as that of husband. She says there were vacant seats in the car both before and after Mr. Quimby fell from the train. The affidavit was acknowledged before the Burlington attorney in this city.

When the announcement of the contents of the affidavit was made Mr. Harrington, leading counsel for the plaintiff, stated that he never saw
